DEATH ENDS 108 HOUR FIGHT

NEW GROUPS OF G. O. P. ENLIST IN FIGHT FOR DEVER

Thompson Home with New Slogan.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Chicago's mayoralty contest got set for the kickoff last night.

Dr. Graham Taylor of Chicago Commons, who gave Dever his start in politics about a quarter century ago by running him for alderman when as a Democrat Dever carried a strong Republican ward, went into an executive session of Democratic leaders at the Sherman.

Says Republicans Want Dever.

"Mayor Dever," Dr. Taylor said, "will win with Republican votes."

Reports from all the wards were received and the consensus based on the canvassers' books, was that a great silent vote is all ready to cast its ballots for Dever April 5. The organization will not concentrate on registration next Tuesday.

William Hale Thompson returned from Georgia, all ready to open his speaking campaign tonight at Masonic temple, 51st street and Michigan avenue. He said his fishing and hunting trip has put him in trim to "hit up a hot pace twenty hours a day" from now on.

Thompson Bags a Slogan.

Mr. Thompson on his arrival tried to surge into the ranks of the sloganeers, and in a long statement released for the afternoon prints said "Dever Didn't" was his suggestion for the other side.

The nonpartisan peoples' Dever for mayor, opens its fight in the Sixth ward today with a luncheon at the Hayes hotel. There Prof. Charles E. Merriam will be the principal speaker. The nonpartisan organization in that ward is reported to be exceptionally strong. Yesterday it elected the following officers, and decided to open permanent ward headquarters in the Hayes hotel in the drive for Republican and independent votes in this independent stronghold. The officers are:

CHAIRMAN—Raymond M. Ashcraft.

SECRETARY—Miss Josephine Perry.

ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE—Mrs. F. A. Simpson, Mrs. Howard Ray, Henry B. Colby, Mrs. George Payson, Harland S. Sylvester, Miss Sarah Tunnicliff, Walter Evans, Mrs. Anna Reel, Herbert Swett, Mrs. William G. Barry, J. G. Sponsel, Mrs. Alfred Flude, Mrs. Elizabeth L. Crandall, Rodney Mott, Mrs. Lorado Taft, Leonard White, Thomas V. Smith, Mrs. Joseph Hallam, Grant Porter, Mrs. A. P. Anderson.

Chicago After 8 Years of Bill.

The pen picture of Chicago four years ago, as issued from Dever headquarters, was, in part:

"At the time Dever assumed office municipal affairs were at their lowest ebb. In effect the city was bankrupt. It owed money it could not pay. Its credit had been destroyed by the extravagance and inefficiency with which municipal affairs were managed.

"It had been necessary to issue bonds to pay current bills, a proceeding unheard of before. Important local improvements had been halted because the money appropriated for them had been paid to so-called experts who had extorted millions for themselves, political favorites and for campaign funds.

City Hall Demoralized.

"The city departments were demoralized, the civil service ruined. The police department was conniving at the open exploitation of commercialized vice and actually aiding in the creation of gangs of bootleggers who divided the city territory among themselves and punished with death invasion of their districts.

"The teaching force had been demoralized by the spectacle of members of the board of education serving terms in jail because of violations of law."

Another Dever campaign adjunct was announced in the formation of the Independent Dever committee, composed of 200 prominent Republican men and women. Orville J. Taylor is chairman of the group. It is headed by an impressive executive committee containing many of Chicago's well known Republican citizens and it has opened headquarters in the Congress hotel. The campaign director is J. Schaefer, the executive secretary E. Moreland and the treasurer is Augustus S. Peabody.

DELAY INQUIRY IN POLICE RAIDS ON SOUTH SIDE

Efforts of the city administration to grant an immediate public hearing on the need for many police raids and arrests in the south side colored district were hindered yesterday by the same forces that had sought the inquiry so earnestly and vehemently the day before.

On the request of Louis B. Anderson, colored alderman from the Second ward, floor leader under former Mayor William Hale Thompson, the council police committee voted to delay the investigation until March 23.

Ald. Berthold Cronson [4th], a supporter of Mr. Thompson, had asked the committee to put the matter over until after the mayoral election on April 12.

Mr. Cronson explained that he wished to "take the thing entirely out of a political atmosphere." But Ald. Arthur Albert [43d] charged that Aldermen Anderson, Cronson, and Robert R. Jackson [3d], the three who had signed the resolution demanding the investigation of the police activity, were fearful now to face the inquiry.

Charges Clamor Hurts Thompson.

Politically the resolution had proved a boomerang which thrust fear into the Thompson campaign managers, Ald. Albert declared.

Chief of Police Collins, whom the aldermen in their stormy session yesterday refused to hear, although he was present throughout, last night declared that if the investigation had proceeded at once vice and gambling and drunken revels in the district would be exposed to such degree that "the people's hair would stand on end."

"With the nomination of Thompson for mayor an orgy of lawlessness was promoted in the colored wards that has never before been approached," Chief Collins said. "Conditions became so rotten, we will prove to the committee, that our action in suppressing them was urgently necessary."

Collins Musters More Police.

Warned that hoodlums in the colored wards, encouraged by the council row, might cause further trouble, Chief Collins immediately after the meeting of the committee, issued orders clamping the police lid on the district still tighter.

The chief ordered ten patrolmen transferred from other stations to Stanton avenue to strengthen the force under Capt. Dennis Carroll. There already were twelve extra men at the Stanton avenue station. Last night's order increases the number to twenty-two. The transferred men will go on duty at their new post at 8 o'clock this morning.

Though statements were made and action taken by the administration leaders, another side was pictured by the aldermen from the affected district, who charged the police were employing "Cossack" methods in herding hundreds of innocent people into cells.

Political Plot, Jackson's Version.

Ald. Jackson, in a dramatic speech, charged that with the polling in those wards of an 18,000 primary majority by Mr. Thompson the Democratic managers saw that the colored wards had deserted Dever, and that not until then did Mayor Dever discover the conditions he says exists. It was a bold political conspiracy to intimidate colored voters, Ald. Jackson said.

In the absence of the regular committee chairman, Ald. Thomas Byrne, the members presented Ald. Sheldon Govier as acting chairman. No sooner had the roll been called than Ald. Anderson arose and, suavely asserting that he and his colleagues, who had been proponents of the investigation, had had insufficient time to marshal their case.

Then Ald. Cronson, saying he hoped to avert "serious trouble" in his ward, which is of about 50 per cent colored population, moved to postpone the entire matter until after election.

"To get away from the cry of politics," Ald. Cronson said, "let us move the thing entirely out of the campaign. I will be here after the election and many others of you will be here, and then let us find out who is responsible for this wholesale arrest of people of all colors and creeds.

Calls Fourth Ward Clean.

"And I want to say this for the benefit of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, which misconstrued what I said yesterday: There isn't a saloon, a gambling house, or a cabaret in the 4th ward. A short time ago the dens were opened for two days, in an attempt

BENJ. MITCHELL DIES; 27 YEARS IN LEGISLATURE

State Representative Benjamin M. Mitchell of the Twenty-first district, one of the best known Democratic politicians on the west side, died at St Francis hospital, Evanston, at 1 o'clock this morning following an operation on Tuesday for hernia. In point of service he was one of the oldest members of the legislature.

Mr. Mitchell was born at Quincy, Ill., Jan. 30, 1869, and came to Chicago with his parents when less than a year old. He has resided here ever since. After being educated in the public schools he began to take an active interest in local politics. As a recognition of his party work he was elected to the legislature in 1892 at the age of 23. Since then he has been in the legislature except for the terms beginning 1892, 1906, 1908, and 1916.

He regarded himself as a free lance politically and in each of his earlier campaigns was compelled to battle for his nominations. Throughout his legislative work he was a stanch advocate of personal liberty and was one of the foremost opponents of the search and seizure law. He also was one of the leaders in the fight for woman suffrage.

In 1922 with several others he was indicted by a federal grand jury for alleged complicity in a plot to violate the prohibition laws, but the case was thrown out of court by Judge Wilkerson.

Mr. Mitchell became ill in Springfield early in January and returned to Chicago for treatment. Since then he has been able to give no time to legislative duties.

BABY BORN WITH APPENDICITIS; OPERATE AT ONCE

Detroit, Mich., March 10.—[Special.]—One of the most extraordinary operations in the history of surgery was yesterday performed on a baby girl an hour after she was born.

The child, one of twins, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Choice, with a ruptured abdominal wall and a severe case of appendicitis.

The attending physician, Dr. R. J. St. Louis, wrapped the child warmly and handed her to the father, who sped in an automobile to Receiving hospital.

Here Dr. Benjamin Freeman recognized symptoms of acute appendicitis, in which gangrene had developed, and he started the operation within an hour after the child was born.

Using only a local anesthetic, surgeons removed the appendix, which was almost ready to burst, sewed up the ruptured abdominal wall, and today the surgeons agreed the baby had a fighting chance to live.

While the father was racing to the hospital, Dr. St. Louis remained at the home caring for the mother, who a short time later gave birth to another twin girl in perfect condition.

Badger Paws Unearth Gold and Start Rush

Tonopah, Nev., March 10.—(AP)—A badger, burrowing for a home, made the gold strike which has caused a rush to the new boom camp of Weepah in the hills forty miles west of here.

The little mammal is the loser, however, for its home was destroyed in yielding up the rich gold shot quartz discovered last week by two 19 year old prospectors.

It was revealed by the youths today that their find was more or less accidental. They had been prospecting around and came upon the badger hole. Deciding to investigate, they dug down and were rewarded with the sight of the gold bearing rock that the badger had uncovered.

Legends of Golden Burrower.

In the legends of southern Nevada there are the stories of two other boom camps that radiated around badger holes. The busy little burrower has a nose for gold in the sage country, some prospectors say.

With the night temperatures down below twenty degrees, even the most seasoned prospectors are finding the going hard in the treeless desert camp in the Silver Peak range. Those who have been sleeping on the ground transferred last night to more comfortable quarters that were thrown open to them, while some of the improvised homes have been furnished with heating stoves, using sage brush as fuel.

Refuse Offer for Claims.

The boys who made the discovery were offered $10,000 for their three claims today, but refused. They said they could see much more than that in sight in the free dirt alone.

Engineers expressed the opinion that Frank Horton, on whose claim the discovery was made, has not divulged the full extent of the findings. They believe that the commercial value of the milled ore will be much greater than the ore now in sight on the Horton workings.

Colorado Ore Pays Big.

Denver, Colo., March 10.—(AP)—Three miners working amid quiet scenes, directly the opposite of those which mark the gold stampede to Weepah, Nev., have uncovered deposits of ore containing the yellow metal which may rival the ultimate production of the Nevada camp.

First reports on the discovery last September on the Little Annie claim at Summitville, Colo., were announced here today by John D. Fisher, consulting engineer.

Out of the top face of the cliff, where the gold first was discovered with moss clinging to the ore, Judge J. C. Wiley and John Pickens of Del Notre, lessees, have taken a total of $101,589 as shown by smelter returns.

Only three men with hand implements worked on the property, and the shipments were made during September, October, and November, 1926.

Mr. Reynolds, of the Reynolds-Morse corporation, said that one of the most valuable shipments possibly ever recorded in western mining was that of 259 pounds of ore that yielded $16,032 at the smelter, or approximately $62 a pound. About 25 tons of this rich ore now is lying in sacks behind the barricaded door of the treasure vault, but no shipments are being made because the country is covered with twelve feet of snow.

TROOPS KILL 3 IN ATHENS TAX AND RENT RIOTS

[Copyright: 1927: By The New York Times.]

ATHENS, Greece, March 10.—Street demonstrations here by shopkeepers and small business men striking against the high taxes and the government's intended abolition of rent restrictions resulted today in the death of three shopkeepers when troops opened fire on a crowd with machine guns. Tanks and heavy military patrol fired at the people until they were forced to seek shelter in a hotel.

A crowd of perhaps 1,000 gathered in Concord square. It then marched up University street, carrying the national flag and shouting "Down with taxes!" At the Hotel Majestic a fire engine met the demonstrators with powerful jets of water and then machine guns opened fire.

The crowd, momentarily dispersed, returned later, much weaker, but carrying the same flag smeared with the blood of those killed and wounded.

Shooting also occured near the old Phalon. Reports say that the military charged, shooting into the crowd twenty times.

Suit Hints at Ex-Senator's Gaming Losses

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Washington society received a shock today when a New York modiste filed suit in the District of Columbia Supreme court against former Senator Robert N. Stanfield of Oregon, who retired March 4, to cover the cost of a trousseau for the former Miss Barbara Stanfield, whose marriage here on Jan. 21 to Henry Teasdale Dunn of Jacksonville, Fla., was one of the events of the winter reason.

The suit is to recover $1,121 on behalf of Carrie Wallace and Annie Grantland, New York modistes, and includes the cost of Mrs. Grantland's railroad fare to Washington to try the clothes on Miss Stanfield.

Lends Color to Gossip.

The suit appeared to lend color to reports in Washington to the effect that Senator Stanfield, who came to the United States senate six years ago rated as a millionaire, lost a considerable part of his fortune, which he made as a sheep raiser in Oregon. Rumors a year or two ago associated Senator Stanfield's name with the big poker parties in "The Boar's Nest," the most famous gaming place in Washington.

"The Boars Nest" was the rendezvous of statesmen and jurists for a generation until it closed down a year ago, following unfavorable publicity growing out of the divorce suit of Congressman Scott of Michigan. Mrs. Scott coupled Scott's poker losses at "The Boar's Nest" with her marital difficulties and alleged that the Michigan legislator lost "everything but his shirt" in the stiff games in which he engaged with various national celebrities.

Put Losses at $250,000.

The reports regarding Senator Stanfield's poker losses were based on something more than rumor. The Oregon senator, one of the popular solons of the upper branch of congress, became so involved at one time that a committee of friends took temporary charge of his affairs, with a view to bringing order out of chaos and getting his assets in such shape that he would be solvent. How well they succeeded has never been disclosed.

The reports have it that the Oregon senator's losses at "The Boar's Nest" ran close to a quarter of a million dollars during his term in the senate.

A member of congress from Texas, a man who, like Stanfield, had accumulated a fortune before he came to Washington, also dropped a fortune about the same period and announced, on leaving congress, that he was going home to retrieve his losses by close application to business.

Illinoisian Heavy Loser.

An Illinois member of wealth also had huge losses in this most fashionable of gambling places. The game ran nigthly for nearly thirty years. An ex-congressman from Pittsburgh was in charge of it during its closing years.

The modistes' itemization of the dainty articles they say the recent bride purchased is as follows: One green chiffon evening dress, $150; one black evening dress, $118; one rose satin evening dress, $125; one rose flat crêpe street dress, $85; one green satin crêpe street dress, $100; one wedding gown, $200; one blouse, $25; alterations on gowns, $25; other alterations, $13. Mrs. Grantland's carfare to Wasihngton, $20; one suit, $125; one coat, $135.

Senator Stanfield's defeat in the Oregon primaries has been ascribed to his arrest last September in Baker, Ore., on a charge of disorderly conduct. This case was dropped, but was used against him politically.

CIGARET SMOKING MORRISON GUEST SETS ROOM AFIRE

G. L. Simpson, a guest in room 3115, Morrison hotel, went to sleep with a cigaret in his mouth early this morning. The flames of the burning bed clothes awakened him shortly afterward. He was badly burned about the head and face. He threw open the window and emitted a lusty yell. The smoke poured from the open window, and some one sent in an alarm of fire.

Soon firemen were dashing about the thirty-first floor and a large part of the hotel was in an uproar. Guests on other floors were told there was no danger and did not leave their rooms, but all were aroused by the noise of the fire apparatus. Guests on the thirty-first floor paraded out in pajamas and other night garments to the mezzanine floor until the excitement was over.

All the furnishings of Simpson's room were destroyed, causing a loss estimated by Manager E. F. McNamara at $1,000. The walls of the room are fireproof and the flames did not spread. Simpson's injuries were treated by Dr. James Maltman, the house physician.

PARALYSIS WINS LONG DUEL WITH BORROWED LIFE

Pals Force Breath to Last Second.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.

Albert Frick died at St. Francis hospital, Evanston,, at 10:12 o'clock last night, just 108 hours and 12 minutes after paralysis of the diaphragm had stopped his natural breathing and sent him to borrow, moment by moment, the artificial respiration induced in him by sixty comrades, working in pairs on fifteen minute shifts.

Death was due, said Dr. T. E. Conley of Park Ridge, in charge of the now internationally famous case, to a type of paralysis known as Landry's (acute, ascending, and usually fatal in from 48 hours to two weeks), following an attack of intestinal influenza. The immediate cause, Dr. Conley pointed out, was paralysis of the diaphragm and of the respiratory muscles. An autopsy held early this morning confirmed Dr. Conley's view regarding the cause of death.

Four Physicians at Bedside.

The four physicians caring for the 22 year old patient, who a week ago was a salesman in the Public Service company's store in Park Ridge, and who is today a figure in medical reports, were in consultation in room 108 of the hospital for more than two hours before death actually came upon Frick. They are Dr. Conley; his brother, Dr. H. H. Conley; Dr. Charles F. Read, specialist in nervous disorders, and Dr. Hart Fisher, medical consultant for the Public Utilities company.

The youth's father, Herman Frick of Crystal Lake, was at the bedside, too. He had been with or near his son since last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock when the dramatic pageant of manual respiration was started on its four and one-half day cadence by fellow-employes of young Frick in the Public Service company. The father had been pacing the corridor, trying to persuade himself that his son's sinking spell was but temporary, when, some fourteen minutes before the end, they called him into the room.

Father Valiant Till End.

For the first time in many hours, the son didn't look up and whisper, "Push, pa," urging his father to set the rhythm of the lung beats for the other workers.

Mr. Frick stood by, valiantly quiet, until the doctors murmured, "He's gone." Then he collapsed and was put to bed.

The two men administering the respiration on the 10-10:15 shift were Chris Hendrickson and Harry Reynolds. Frick was then unconscious. Repeated doses of oxygen had failed to revive him, his heart was failing, and his pulse had dissipated its regular beats in a wild flutter. But the two men kept on, pressing down, relaxing, pressing, relaxing, with the heels of their hands on their comrade's lower chest, until every flicker of life had departed.

Nurse Gives Youth Broth.

The eighth person in the room was Miss Pauline Blau, the night nurse. Miss Blau was the last one to minister to young Frick while he was conscious. At 8:30 she fed him some broth with a spoon. L. Davis, one of the team working at that time, remarked Frick's difficulty in getting the liquid down his throat and said to the nurse, "He's not swallowing so well."

Frick, roused to make one more fight, forced out a dogged "Yes," then drifted back into unconsciousness.

His mother, Mrs. Amelia Frick, passed the afternoon at the hospital. In the early evening, when the sick man's temperature was resting on a level of about 100 degrees and his pulse didn't vary much from 123, she was persuaded to return with her youngest son, Carl, to their home. As soon as death ended the battle for breath, George Joedicke, one of the workers, telephoned the message of defeat to Carl, and he told his mother.

Mother Praises Breath Givers.

She was unable to say munch except that she hoped there would be no postmorten on her boy. Nor did she forget to praise the young men who had kept him alive for four and one-half days.

Arrangements were made to take the body back to Crystal Lake this morning.

Frick, who was transferred from the Crystal Lake branch of the Public Service company to its Park Ridge store last September, had two teeth pulled last Wednesday. He did not take gas, and fainted in the chair. On the way home, he later told his landlady, Mrs. George Leeds of Park Ridge, he was so dizzy that he couldn't guide himself well, and was sat, ever so slightly, by an automobile which slid him to the pavement, where he bumped the back of his head.

But the physicians regarded these two episodes as more coincidence than causes of Landry's paralysis, which is the result of infection, and the dentists declare the extracted teeth had no pus pockets.

Becomes Ill; Taken to Hospital.

On Friday Frick became ill with stomach cramps and the sickness was first diagnosed as intestinal influenza. On Saturday he was worse, and Saturday night his father had him taken to the hospital. Sunday morning his face was blue and paralysis set in, first of the bladder, then of the legs, and at 10 o'clock of the diaphragm, controlling the involuntary breathing and accessory respiratory muscles in control of the voluntary breathing.

The Conley brothers started up artificial respiration. They were relieved by two internes, Dr. I. Halperin and Dr. R. C. Brown. By 2 o'clock they were exhausted. Meanwhile word had gone out to John F. Reesman, manager of district C of the Public Service company. All of the company's men are trained, an hour a week, in the Schaeffer method of prone pressure resuscitation. This involves manipulation of the hips and is used in reviving persons who are threatened with asphyxiation and with electrocution.

Comrades Called to Aid.

Jack Riley, chief of the teaching staff, summoned his men. Harry Reynolds, prize winner in the course, and John McGill organized the men into three shifts. Each shift was subdivided into pairs of men, working 15 minutes, one every 75 minutes.

Tuesday came a slight improvement. The tongue, which had been paralyzed, became active. On Wednesday the patient could swallow and talk a little. Yesterday morning the soft palate, which had been paralyzed, was in perfect condition. The blood count dropped from 21,000 to 13,000, which was considered a good omen.

Find Parallel Case in Records.

Yesterday afternoon the accessory respiratory muscles, in the neck, manifested some slight resiliency. Physicians searching the records for analogous cases, came upon the report of a Minneapolis case in 1898, when the late Dr. Charles Lyman Green of St. Paul had kept a 20 year old Swedish gilr, a victim of Landry's paralysis, alive for 41 days by means of artificial respiration. Then, unable to withstand the rigors of the treatment, she had died.

At 9 o'clock last night young Frick took a definite turn for the worse. Half an hour later the doctors predicted he could not live beyond midnight.

And at 12 minutes past 10 he died, as Harry Reynolds, one o fthe first men to work on him, was bending over him, coaxing air in and out of his lungs.

Cemeteries Now Will Deal with Alsip as a Village

Alsip, the territory in which a bitter controversy has been waged in regard to new cemeteries being established, was officially incorporated yesterday by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki. The village now has the right to regulate its cemeteries and it will be up to the town board to decide whether cemetery corporations will be barred. The population of the dead in cemeteries is said to outnumber the living population in Alsip, which is in Worth township.

GRAIN QUIZ ON; COURT ACTION IS HELD UNLIKELY

Armour Co. Officials Said to Expect Immunity.

Officials of the Armour Grain company were reported to be viewing with complacency the investigation started yesterday by the Board of Trade relative to charges of fraud growing out of the crash of the grain marketing company.

The officials feel confident there will be no criminal prosecution, according to Board of Trade comment. Although Edward E. Brown, arbitrator in the dispute between the Armour and the Rosenbaum Grain companies, found that several high officials of the Armour company had deliberately falsified records and switched grain samples, thereby cheating the marketing company out of nearly $3,000,000, it is said they are confident they will never face trial in the criminal courts.

Cite Limitations Statutes.

The statutes of limitation prevent punishment for conspiracy to defraud if the prosecution is not begun within eighteen months after the last overt act of the conspiracy. Therefore, those named in the hearing before Arbitrator Brown as responsible for that huge piece of cheating believe they will go unpunished, according to other Board of Trade men.

The Grain Marketing company became a failure in July of 1925. Several days ago Arbitrator Brown found the reason for its failure was that the Armour Grain company had unloaded several million bushels of low grade wheat on to the marketing company, representing this grain to be of first class.

Had it not been for this deception the marketing company would have shown a profit, Mr. Brown found. The evidence given before him showed that these fraudulent transactions took place in 1924.

Crowe Remains Silent.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe had not announced what he intended to do. It was inferred that he was waiting for official notification from the Board of Trade or from Mr. Brown that criminality had been proved. The reports of yesterday, however, show that Prosecutor Crowe would be unable to bring about the indictment of those men named as the conspirators by Mr. Brown.

It was said, however, that there might be some possibility of federal prosecution under the grain futures act. Secretary of Agriculture Jardine has not yet expressed his intentions regarding the grain scandal here. He, too, was said to be waiting for more definite action.

Call Witnesses Today.

The committee appointed by the Board of Trade to delve into past grain transactions of the Armour Grain company, after a brief meeting yesterday, said it would call witnesses today. The entire transcript of the testimony before Mr. Brown has been given this committee.

The consensus is that between the board's investigation, the state's investigation, the possible governmental action, that the truth will be disclosed and many evils banned, even though there is no criminal prosecution.

FOURTH HUSBAND ADOPTS CHILD OF HER 2D MARRIAGE

Following her fourth marriage, Mrs. Dorothy Shaw Gibbons Mulligan Thompson, whose divorces and marriages have occupied much space in public print, yesterday appeared in the county court with a petition to adopt her daughter by her second marriage, Patricia, 1 year old.

Judge Biggs permitted her latest husband, Charles Edward Thompson Jr., to adopt the child.

She was once denied custody of her daughter by Judge Joseph Sabath when she was involved in a divorce fight with Walter Gibbons, wealthy box manufacturer, her second husband.

Kellogg, Feeling Fine, to Return to Washington

Charleston, S. C., March 10.—(AP)—Secretary Kellogg, who has been here for several days recuperating from a cold, today declared he is "feeling fine" and plans to return to Washington Saturday. Mr. Kellogg, who is the guest of former Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey at the latter's estate, has been spending his time in horseback riding and on the golf links.

6,000 CHEER U. S. ENVOYS OF AIR AT RIO LANDING

Uruguay Flyers Rescued from Tribesmen.

BY HENRIQUE TJADER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, March 10.—The United States army pan-American airplanes San Antonio, San Francisco and St. Louis arrived here at 5 p. m. from Santos. The flight was made in two hours and twenty-five minutes.

The American colony will give a reception for the flyers tonight at the Gloria hotel. The airmen will go to Petropolis Sunday. There they will be presented to President Washington Luiz, delivering to him President Coolidge's letter of good will. The motors of all the planes will be changed before they start for the north.

Met By U. S. Envoy.

Ambassador Morgan, together with all the high government officials, was present at the landing of the airmen here. About 6,000 persons cheered them. The maneuvering of the planes was admired by all aviators here.

Maj. Dargue, the commander, and Lieut. MacDonald went to Sao Paulo while their planes were being overhauled at Santos today. They visited the Brazilian airdrome.

Flyers Rescued from Moors.

MADRID, Spain, March 10.—(AP)—Safe and sound, the four Uurguayan aviators, headed by Maj. Tadeo Larre-Borges, who have spent the last week as virtual prisoners of a tribe of Moors, returned to civilization today still determined to complete their interrupted trans-Atlantic journey if possible.

The fliers, whose shattered plane was found sixty miles from Cape Jubi, North Africa, last Saturday, were found by airmen of the Latecoere air service, who brought them in two planes to Cape Jubi from the Moorish village where they had been held. The Moors showed them hospitality but at the same time robbed them of their money, watches, arms, and other personal belongings.

REPORT MEXICO WILL YIELD TO DEMANDS OF U. S.

Obregon Said to Be Back of Settlement Move.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

MEXICO CITY, March 10.—It is reported here in semi-official circles that the Mexican government is on the point of granting concessions asked by Washington. It is said the decision has been reached after a conference between President Calles, Foreign Minister Saenz, and Ambassador Tellez, who recently returned from Washington. Former President General Alvaro Obregon, it is asserted, has thrown his weight in the balance in favor of an amicable adjustment of the differences between Mexico and the United States.

Ambassador Tellez is said to have emphasized the determined attitude of President Coolidge and that there is no hope of changing him.

Undoubtedly the seriousness of the last two American notes is preoccupying the Mexican authorities, as the contents were not communicated even to those close to the government, who have known the contents of former notes.

See Payment For Seized Land.

Among the points on which Mexico is expected to yield is the attitude of consistently refusing payment for American lands seized for agrarian and other purposes. It is expected to propose a scheme for gradual payment for these lands. It is said concessions will be made to the oil interests sufficiently to satisfy them and that guarantees will be given for the protection of lives and properties of foreigners resident in Mexico, especially Americans. Mexico's new oil and land laws, which are held confiscatory, have been the chief cause of recent American disputes with the country.

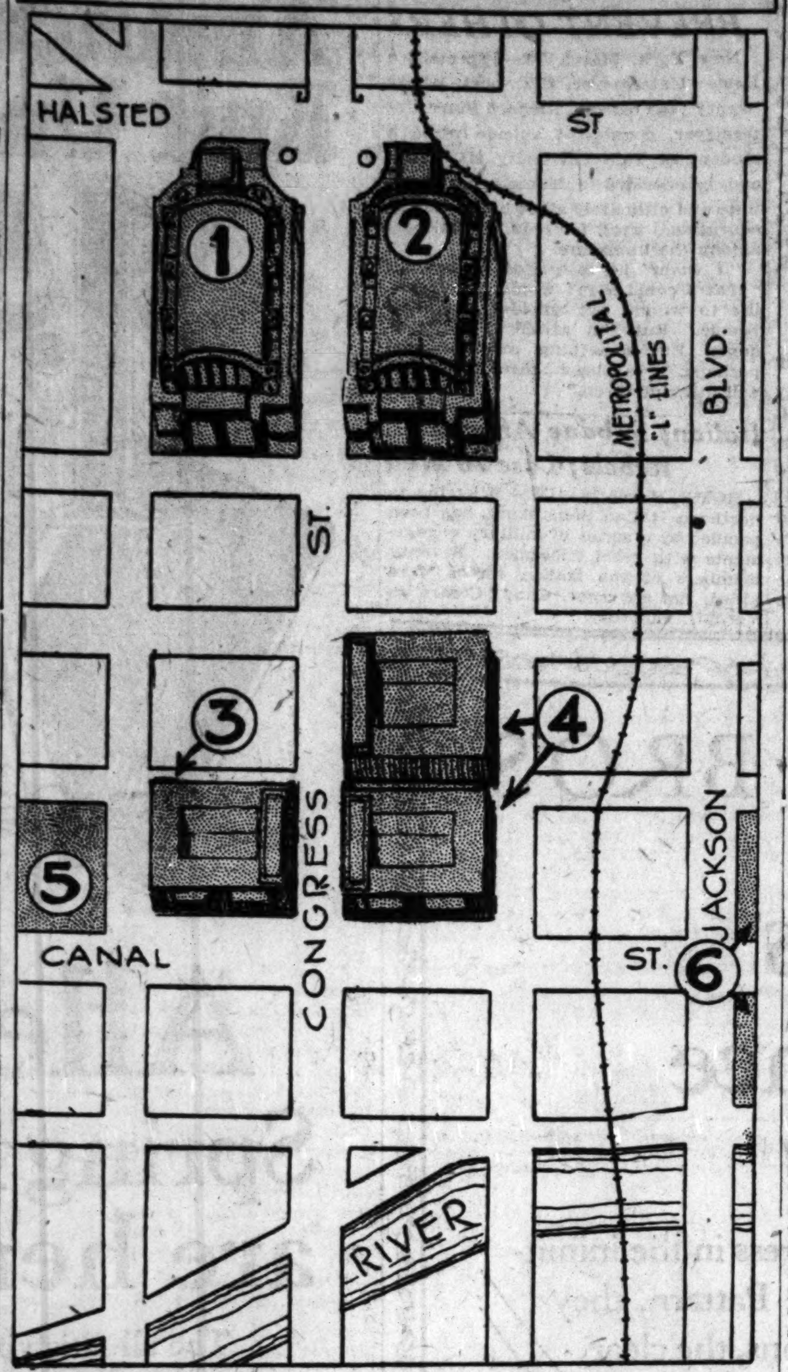
Semi-official sources say the recent American note threatened the removal of the embargo on arms. It is asserted Ambassador Tellez indicated in his conference with President Calles and Foreign Minister Saenz that the American government had threatened to make the embargo effective on March 1 if an agreement with Mexico was not reached or steps made in that direction before that date.

Harassed by Rebels.

The unrest throughout Mexico, the insurrections in various states, the slump in business, the decline of Mexican silver, the determined resistance of the Catholics, the opposition within the government circles of the anti-reëlectionists, and the evident intention of Gen. Obregon to become a candidate for the presidency next year all combine to make it in the interest of the Mexican government to find an amicable settlement with the United States. It must, if possible, prevent the lifting of the arms embargo, which would aid the insurgents.

Semi-official information says that in the recent notes the United States government threatened to sever diplomatic relations with Mexico.

NEW CIVIC CENTER PLAN



Suggestion of Edward H. Bennett, architect, for group of buildings along Congress street, widened and extended. (1) and (2) are twin buildings, one a convention hall, the other an exposition building; (3) is a proposed building for state offices; (4) an alternative site for the convention hall, or for a building for civic organizations; (5) the proposed new post office; (6) the Union station.

GROCER IS SLAIN IN MYSTERIOUS PISTOL ATTACK

Tomasso Piazzo, so identified by papers found in his pockets, was shot and fatally wounded by an unidentified assailant at Sibley and Arthington streets last night.

Sergt. Al Jenner of the detective bureau and his squad, summoned to the scene, found the man lying on the sidewalk. Five bullets had been fired into his body. He died on the way to the county hospital.

Piazzo was about 55 years old and conducted a grocery at 1041 Taylor street. The police went to this place and learned, they said, that he dealt in bootleg liquor as a side line.

NEAR WEST SIDE SITE PROPOSED FOR CIVIC HALL

Congress St. Suggested by City Plan Architect.

A site on the near west side will be the most suitable for Chicago hall, the projected mammoth exposition and sports edifice that has the approval and active backing of President Cermak of the county board, Mayor Dever, and Julius Rosenwald, in the opinion of Edward H. Bennett, consulting architect for the Chicago Plan commission.

The widening of Congress street will provide the west side with a great traffic artery, Mr. Bennett pointed out, and there will be several sites along it that would be ideal for the purpose. He suggested the Halsted or Canal street intersections as ample in size for the immense building that is proposed.

Transportation facilities here would be excellent, Mr. Bennett said. Numerous improvements are under way or will be started in the near future in this section. These include the straightening of the river, the building of a new railroad center, and cutting through of south side streets.

Harmon Renews His Plan.

Publicity given the Chicago hall plan has brought out the announcement of a plan to build a huge sports arena, with P. T. Harmon, owner of the Dreamland and Arcadia dance halls, as the promoter.

Harmon declared last night that his plans had been completed and that his building, to be located at Madison, Wood, and Lincoln streets, will be erected at once. He named $5,000,000 as the cost.

The site, Harmon said, is worth $1,500,000. He added that a bond issue of the same amount had been underwritten by Aylward & Co., and that preferred stock to the amount of $2,000,000 would be issued. Of the stock, he continued, $1,000,000 already had been subscribed.

Names Wrigley as Backer.

Only one financial backer was named by Harmon—William Wrigley Jr. Mr. Wrigley is now in California.

The Harmon plan is to build one unit at a cost of $2,667,000 at once. This unit, according to plans, will seat 26,000. The dimensions given are 266 by 300 feet.

" When it is all completed it will seat 40,000," the promoter said. "It will be the biggest permanent building in the world. It will be possible to use it for boxing shows and hockey games with maximum admissions of 50 cents and $1. The transportation is good and this hall can be used for conventions and expositions as well as for sports."

To Widen N. Central Ave., Milwaukee Ave. to Higgins

Construction on a three-fourths mile stretch of North Central avenue from Milwaukee avenue to Higgins road will be started within the next two months as a result of a decision of County Judge John D. Biggs yesterday. The street will be 80 feet wide and will cost $600,000.

AGED MAN KILLED BY GAS.

ROCKEFELLER ACCUSED OF RUNNING BAPTISTS LIKE STANDARD OIL CO.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Charges that John D. Rockefeller Jr. is sponsoring a plan of reorganization which, if adopted, would make the northern Baptist convention "a religious department of the Standard Oil company" were made today at the conference of the Baptist Bible Union of North America by the Rev. Dr. T. T. Shields, pastor of the Jarvis Street Baptist church of Toronto, Canada.

Dr. Shields charged that the plan of reorganization which would put it on the plane of a big business firm was proposed recently at a meeting in New York to which Mr. Rockefeller invited seventy-five men and at which only fifteen appeared.

"The proposals," Dr. Shields said, "may be summed up by saying that their adoption would have made the north Baptist convention in its principle of organization a duplicate of the Standard Oil company. In view of the personnel that would dominate it the entire denomination would practically be subject to the absolute control of one man."

FALLS TO DEATH IN SKYSCRAPER AT RUSH HOUR

A man about 45 years old, partially identified by papers in his pockets as Harry E. Trump, was killed late yesterday afternoon during the rush hour when he either fell or jumped from a window facing an airshaft in the Masonic Temple building, 32 West Randolph street.

Elevator operators in the building heard the crash of the body and notified the police. No one was found who had seen the plunge. It was discovered that a window at the nineteenth floor level was open and it was assumed that the man's fall began there.

Mail in the pockets of the man was addressed to Trump in care of general delivery. One letter was from a building and loan association in Davenport, Ia., requesting payment of a note. A card showed that he was an employé of Mandel Bros.' store.

Condition of Dr. Julia Smith Reported Improved

Dr. Julia Holmes Smith, pioneer woman physician, who is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hyde Wallace Perce, 216 North Grove avenue, Oak Park, was reported slightly improved last night. Dr. Smith, is 88 years old.

TAME CHEETAH EATS OUT OF HAND; ALSO LEG

Mr. Wentworth Reads as Policeman Learns.

Half grown African cheetahs are all right in their place. But their place is out in a jungle with the other beasts or behind the bars of a good strong circus wagon, not in Lake Shore drive apartments.

So declares no less an authority than Brevet Sergeant Wellington W. Britton, well known author and zoölogical expert of the Chicago police department. He feels that the marks of a cheetah's teeth on one of his legs qualify him as an expert.

The pair of cheetahs is owned by Mrs. John Wentworth, 1240 Lake Shore drive, and the council ordered the police to see if they are "a menace to public safety."

Twice the Wentworth maid refused him admittance, but finally Mr. Wentworth, called from his office, let him in. Percy and Nellie—the two cheetahs—lying on a white sheeted couch, looked up at him hungrily. It was about supper time.

Cheetahs Seem Charmed.

"Come over and pet them," Mr. Wentworth invited.

"No, thank you," Britton replied. "All I want between them and me is distance."

Mr. Wentworth then started to read to his visitor from a nature book, stating that cheetahs are gentle, harmless pets.

"Why, these cheetahs will eat right out of your hand," he said.

"Yes," shouted the policeman, "maybe they'll eat out of your hand, but they'll eat out of my leg, too!" Then, turning on Percy, "Scat!" he ordered. But Percy didn't scat. He started to take another bite and the sergeant pulled out his artillery.

They Hunt Rabbits, Too.

"Don't shoot Percy," entreated the owner. "He won't hurt you. Let me read you some more. It says here: 'They can be trained to hunt rabbits.'"

"Worse and worse," commented the detective. "They're nearsighted as well. He mistook me for a rare bit."

"He smells the odor of a dog," explained Mr. Wentworth, starting to read some more. . . .

At the detective bureau Britton wrote a classic bit on cheetahs, the erstwhile royal hunting leopards of Persian kings:

"Mr. Wentworth showed me a book that said they would not attack a man, but one bit my leg," Britton wrote.

M'CLINTOCK ESTATE GROWS TO $1,200,000 SINCE YOUTH'S DEATH

The estate of the late Billy McClintock has increased to $1,200,000, according to a statement filed yesterday in the Probate court by the trustee. The estate, at the time of the youth's death, was valued at only $1,000,000, but its personal property is now worth $900,000 and its real estate worth $300,000. William D. Shepherd, executor under the will and acquitted of the murder of McClintock, is now engaged in a legal fight with relatives of the boy over disposal of the estate.

THOMPSON MEN DELAY INQUIRY ON POLICE RAIDS

Council Black Belt Quiz Is Set for March 23.

to aid my opponent in the election, but I found out about it and had them closed. There hasn't been any vice in the 4th ward and there won't be any. I am not informed about conditions in other wards."

Ald. Albert took another view, declaring there should be an inquiry adding:

"A colored preacher in my ward said to me today that the good people of his race on the south side want to be protected from vice lords and gambling chieftains.

"And now we see the men supposed to represent those better colored citizens crying because these places of iniquity have been closed. Let us hear from the chief of police. Then, I submit, we have witnesses here from the other side who can be heard at once."

Ald. Albert's suggestion won a second from Ald. Max Adamowski.

"But the chief of police cannot possibly know what happened—he wasn't there," protested Ald. Cronson.

"If the chief doesn't know what his department is doing, then we ought to take steps here and now to oust him," Albert retorted. Ald. Anderson, commenting on Ald. Albert's recent defeat for reëlection, said:

Declares Third Ward Clean.

Then Ald. Jackson took the floor and, like Ald. Cronson, he said there was no crime or vice in his ward, the Third.

"If I could get my name in THE TRIBUNE, as you do, Ald. Albert, I, too, could make eloquent speeches in defense of my people.

"But I hold up to you one of the newspapers printed by we colored people, the Chicago Whip, and show you the headline—'1,000 Freed in Police Raids.' Isn't it the foulest commentary on the liberties of American people that a thousand citizens should be arrested, and that our courts, with white judges, should find not one among them guilty of any crime?

"The chief of police says he is acting to avert a race riot. There is nothing more conducive of race riot than the present Cossack methods of oppression employed against us by the police."

Ald. Jackson wanted to have the committee hear Mrs. Ida B. Wells Barnett as to the nature of the police raids.

On Ald. Albert's motion to hear from Chief Collins at once, Alds. Cronson, Kunstmann, Mendel, Petlak, and Bowler voted "No," their action defeating the motion, which was supported by Alds. Wilson, Adamowski, Albert, and Loescher. Then Ald. Cronson's motion to delay until after election was defeated, and a substitute motion to open the inquiry on March 23, at 10 a. m., was carried.

Dever Makes Statement.

Mayor Dever, after the adjournment of the committee, issued the following statement:

"I hope the respectable people of Chicago will think I am above exploiting for political purposes any race prejudice. I am all for protecting—as I've been asked to do—the decent colored citizens, who merely want an opportunity to express themselves fairly at the polls and to have their votes counted honestly.

"The people of Chicago might be surprised if they knew what a large element of respectable population is in that community and the interests of those people are what I am particularly concerned about.

"If the police will act intelligently and not ruthlessly I have no doubt the colored people will very shortly understand we are trying to protect them from every kind of exploitation. It really would be fine if in the interests of the decent colored citizens the conditions that actually exist down there were shown to the public."

Write an Answer! Win a Prize!

Write a "Snappy Cum-Bak" to the remark illustrated above and try for one of the Cash Prizes offered EVERY DAY by The Chicago Tribune. Men, women, boys, girls everywhere are doing it.

Lots of fun. Easy, too. Just ask yourself the question "If that remark were made to me, how would I reply?" Suggest a snappy "CUM-BAK." Fill it in on the coupon and send it to The Tribune. Ten words or less are all you need. The very first "CUM-BAK" you think of may be a prize winner. Tear out and fill in the COUPON now!

Follow These Simple Rules:

1. Every day until further notice The Chicago Tribune will print a cartoon sketch and a bit of conversation, inviting the public to submit a "Snappy Cum-Bak" to the printed bit of conversation. Ask yourself the question if this remark were addressed to you, what sort of a "Snappy Cum-Bak" would you make? Then send in your answer in 10 words or less.
2. $50 will be paid by The Tribune each day as follows, for the best answers received:
   - 1st Prize........................$25.00
   - 2nd Prize........................10.00
   - 3rd, 4th and 5th Prizes, $5 each. 15.00
3. This contest is open to all—men, women, boys and girls. Only employes of The Tribune and their families are barred.
4. You pay nothing. Just amuse yourself and prove your skill.
5. Do NOT hold your answers to "Snappy Cum-Bax"—send them in immediately. All answers must be in The Tribune office by midnight, five days following the publication of the remark. Winners will be announced exactly one week after the publication of the "Snappy Cum-Bak" to which they supply an answer. For example: Answers to today's "Snappy Cum-Bak" must be in The Tribune office five days from today, and the winners will be announced exactly one week from today.
6. You need not purchase The Tribune to compete. You may write your answer on any piece of paper. The Tribune may be examined without cost at its offices or at Public Libraries.
7. Entrants may submit as many "Snappy Cum-Bax" as they wish. Originality will count. Address all entries to "Cum-Bax," The Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 1539, Chicago, Ill.

POISONED WIFE'S 'OTHER MAN' AND HUSBAND BATTLE

Mrs. Eileen Buckley, 30 years old, swallowed poison Wednesday at her home, 4007 Kenmore avenue. She did it, it was explained to the police, because of despondency over the tardiness of a guest she had invited to a party.

At a hospital Mrs. Buckley was quickly revived. Yesterday she went home again. Last night the tardy guest, Robert Nelson of 1728 North Troy street, called to express his sympathy. And Edward Buckley, the estranged husband of Eileen, also went there to express something or other.

They met. Instead of expressing sympathy they expressed personal opinions of each other. It was done with fists. The police were called and both were taken into custody. Mrs. Buckley did the sympathizing at the Town Hall station. Nelson was there with several stitches in his scalp and no bonds. She said she didn't care what became of Edward.

His Conscience Came to Life Two Months Too Soon

Detroit, Mich., March 10.—(AP)—Saying that his conscience bothered him, Gerald Krausgill, 30, of Mount Carmel, Ill., tonight confessed stealing a mileage voucher from a Minneapolis recruiting office on May 4, 1924. Had he delayed the confession two more months Krausgill would have been immune from punishment under the statute of limitations. He will be taken to Minneapolis tomorrow.

Sends Relic of Illinois Veteran Here from South

J. W. Quiggins of Holly Springs, Miss., has sent to THE TRIBUNE a civil war relic which he says was discovered among the effects of his father, a confederate soldier. It is a small bronze badge, engraved with the name Elijah Kepner and stating he was a member of the 7th Illinois cavalry. Mr. Quiggins believes that Kepner, if he still is living, or his heirs would like to have this badge.

MOTHER TRIES TO KILL SELF.

Mason City, Ia., March 10.—(AP)—Mrs. W. D. Cullen, a young mother, leaped from a second story window of a hospital here today. She will recover. A baby was born to Mrs. Cullen four days ago.

Garnishee Salary of Cornelius Vanderbilt

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Two garnishee orders were filed today against Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., under which a deputy sheriff will collect 10 per cent until a judgment for $4,550 has been satisfied. The judgment was obtained by the Title Insurance and Trust company on an assigned claim on a note made by Mr. Vanderbilt. Under the garnishee orders $70 a week will be paid from Mr. Vanderbilt's salary as a news writer until the claim is liquidated.

Quarantine 18 at N. U.; One Has Scarlet Fever

Eigteen Northwestern university students, residents of a house at 724-726 Emerson street, Evanston, were quarantined last night after it was discovered that Chester W. Bennett of Urbana, a graduate student, had contracted scarlet fever. Dr. John W. H. Pollard, the city health officer, said the eighteen would be held in the house until all danger of contagion is over.

SON A SUICIDE; POET WORKS TO PREVENT OTHERS

New York, March 10.—[Special.]—Louis Untermeyer, the poet, whose twenty year old son, Richard Starr Untermeyer, committed suicide while a student at Yale university six weeks ago, has decided to devote some of his time and ultimately all of his money to educational work for reducing suicides among the immature.

"I wish," he is quoted as saying, "that I could say I would devote my life to wiping out suicides of young people. But I'm afraid it can't be done. But something can be done, perhaps, or at least started. That I will attempt to do."

Italians Subdue African Rebels; Lose 70 Men

ROME, March 10.—(AP)—Mijetrins, in northern Italian Somaliland, has been pacified by a series of military engagements with rebel tribesmen. Seventy members of the Italian forces were killed, the governor, Count Cesare de Vecchi, reports.

ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE

CROARKIN SANE, FEELS REMORSE, ALIENIST SAYS

Dr. Gerty, State Expert, Gives View of Killer.

CRIMINAL COURT.

C. Bass, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell; Fred Griffith, obtaining money by false pretenses, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell and fined $1,000, by Judge Emanuel Eller.

Sam Christ, crime against children, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell; George Brandt, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell, by Judge Phillip L. Sullivan.

Carl Jones, burglary, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in Pontiac reformatory, by Judge Harry B. Miller.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Sane or insane? On the basis of expert testimony the score stood 3 to 1 in favor of insanity when the Harold J. Croarkin murder trial was adjourned last evening. But the state has just begun this part of the fight to hang the slayer of little Walter Schmith, and has three more alienists to overbalance the "perfect defense" by the close of the trial next week.

This part of the trial is wandering into its predicted, almost hopeless maze. One perfectly good expert says one thing and another one says the opposite. Two faint guideposts began to loom up in the fog of yesterday's testimony. One was the suggestion by Dr. Francis J. Gerty, director of the county psychopathic hospital, first state alienist to testify, that Croarkin began to build his own defense almost as soon as he was apprehended, that he had an appreciation of the insanity feature, and that he said and did things to help this defense.

Stress Time of Observation.

Again it was made clear that the experts' varying opinions may turn upon their respective opportunities for studying the defendant. The experts for the family observed him much later and did not know certain things which the state experts knew. Croarkin may have developed his technique, thus accounting for the "psychic pillow" and other catatonic features observed by the defense alienists but overlooked or discounted by the state alienists.

The defense closed its case yesterday with the testimony of Dr. William F. Lorenz, professor of nervous and mental diseases at the University of Wisconsin and director of the Wisconsin Psychopathic institute, an alienist of national reputation. He said that from his own examination of Croarkin the young man was insane at the time of the Schmith killing. He fixed the type as dementia praecox.

Dr. Gerty, who, in his five years at the county institution has passed on more than 10,000 cases of mental disorder, testified that from his examination the defendant was not insane and has never been insane. Dr. Lorenz, gray haired veteran of the mental field, sat in court after he had concluded his testimony and listened to Dr. Gerty, who is only 35 years old, maintain his position in a long cross-examination.

Impulse to Kill Another.

The ancient problem of free will, the power of choice, again cropped into discussions which became at times purely theoretical. Dr. Lorenz disclosed that during his examination of Croarkin the defendant had told him he had an impulse to kill another boy on the day before he struck Walter Schmith. This also was in the Devon Riding academy stables.

"He said that the reason he did not was because a spell of dizziness overcame him and everything grew red before his eyes," said the doctor. "He could not account for the impulse."

Dr. Lorenz maintained that Croarkin had no power of choice to resist the killing of Schmith on the next day.

Dr. Gerty declared that he had as much power as he ever had, sufficient to overcome the fear motive, and that his judgment was on a par with that used in all crimes of this nature.

IT HAS BEEN OFTEN SAID - HE WHO BUYS WHAT HE NEEDS NOT - SELLS WHAT HE NEEDS - SIDNEY SMITH
OATS
CHING CHOW

Copyright, 1927, by The Chicago Tribune.

Dr. Gerty got away from the dementia præcox hypothesis and explained the change in personality in Croarkin that preceded the crime to a more commonplace reason—merely the fact that he was without parental restraint for the first time and had gone wild over women and gin and freedom. Back of it all was more of a spoiled child than a mental defective he said.

Dr. Gerty examined Croarkin at the time the police and the state's attorney did, as soon as he was caught. Questioned by Attorney Joseph P. Savage, special prosecutor, Dr. Gerty said:

"Croarkin said at first that he killed the boy because he made a noise. He said that after the killing he felt rotten, that he thought of the boy lying there up in the cold loft, and went to a priest to make confession. He also thought he would not be betrayed. I asked him his motive and he would not tell at first. I asked him what he would think as a likely motive if he heard of a similar crime. He answered, 'I think they would call that a moron attack, something concerned with sex.' He said he could think of another motive, but he would not tell me until next day. His attorneys, he said, had instructed him not to give a motive."

Tells of Confession Scene.

Dr. Gerty was present the next day when Croarkin confessed. He told of this scene:

"Dr. William J. Krohn asked him what he thought ought to be done with him.

"Croarkin said he did not know, yet admitted that something should be done.

"'Do you believe in capital punishment?' he was asked. 'No,' he replied promptly. It was suggested that after this he had not much to live for. He was not sure, but knew that he wanted to live.

"'Is hanging a proper punishment?' he was asked.

"'No,' he said and cried for a long time."

Q.—Was he sane or insane at the time of the homicide? A.—He was sane.

Reasons for Sanity Claim.

Q.—Give your reasons. A.—He was able to give a clear, connected account as to what had happened, or what he wanted us to believe. He was sane because in his original story he was definitely erecting a defense for the action. He understood that the examination by doctors was an element in his defense. He knew what the penalty was if found guilty of murder. He showed remorse for what he had done... He showed profound emotion over what might happen to him. From his own statement he experienced remorse for his act on that day and showed a deep emotional reaction at his girl's house. He also wished to keep out of the road of possible apprehension.

The facts in Croarkin's life and history as shown in defense testimony, including the showing of the X-ray pictures, were given to Dr. Gerty but he said this did not change his opinion.

Has No Split Personality.

After defining dementia praecox, which, he said is of an unknown cause and may take several forms which are confused sometimes with symptoms of other troubles, he testified that Croarkin is not a victim of this disease and has no split personality.

"His change of conduct is accounted for by escape from parental jurisdiction," he said. Under cross examination he said that he believed Croarkin killed because of an emotion of fear overpowered his judgment.

Dr. Lorenz testified that he examined Croarkin on Feb. 5. Croarkin knew he was employed by the defense. He was questioned by Attorney Michael Ahern.

Given the hypothetical person, with all the defense evidence as to physical deficiencies and peculiarities and illnesses, the doctor declared that such a person did not know right from wrong when he committed homicide.

Couldn't Choose Own Conduct.

"He was unable to choose a course of conduct," he said.

He found no evidence to indicate homo sexuality.

The X-ray pictures indicated, he said, a faulty development going back to the germ. It made favorable soil for mental ills.

Q.—How would you classify him, assuming him to be the hypothetical person? A.—A case of constitutional inferiority in whom there is a dementia praecox development.

He found no remorse in Croarkin, no adequate grasp of the situation. The dementia began in August, 1926, he said.

AUTO-TROLLEY CRASH INJURIES FATAL TO WOMAN

Injuries received last Sunday night when an automobile in which she was riding was struck by a street car at Washington boulevard and Nineteenth avenue, Maywood, caused the death yesterday of Mrs. Rose Kupilus, 32 years old, of Fargo, N. D. The death raised the Cook county motor toll for the year to 152.

Mrs. Kupilus was visiting relatives in Melrose Park and was riding in the automobile of Anton Marshall of Melrose Park, when the accident occurred.

John Duff, 43 years old, 304 Forest avenue, River Forest, a printer employed by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, suffered a possible skull fracture last night when he was struck by a taxicab at Michigan avenue and Ohio street. The driver, Joseph Jenkins, 544 Rush street, was not held.

Fourteen year old Frank Badenarowd, 1512 Washington street, Evanston, was perhaps fatally injured when struck by an automobile driven by Policeman Henry Groh of Evanston.

Mrs. Pearl Wells of West Chicago was struck by an automobile, hurled against a rock and instantly killed near her home. Three youths driving the car were held by the police.

Three men were injured last night when the automobile in which they had been riding overturned at Addison street and North Artesian avenue. Rudolph Eichaker, 24 years old, 1331 Otto street; George Eichaker, 39 years old, 3917 Grace street, his brother, and Joseph York, 23 years old, 1308 Otto street, were those injured.

BRITAIN TO BUILD 20 NEW WARSHIPS ON 1927 PLANS

$290,000,000 Says Estimate; 102,000 Men.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, March 10.—Twenty new warships will be built by Great Britain on the 1927 construction program, according to naval estimates published today, comprising an outlay of £58,000,000 ($290,000,000) and making a net decrease of £100,000 ($500,000) under last year.

The following ships will be built during the year: one class A cruiser, two class B cruisers, one flotilla leader, eight destroyers, six submarines, and two mine sweepers. It was announced, however, that work will not start on these ships until the results of President Coolidge's naval disarmament conference are known.

102,000 Men in Navy.

The estimates also show that the British naval personnel is 102,275 men. During the year two new battleships, Nelson and Rodney, will be completed, replacing four battleships to be scrapped under the Washington treaty. They will join the Atlantic fleet, and the remainder of the Royal Sovereign class then will be transferred from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean fleet. The Kent class also will be completed. The report points out that construction of four cruisers of the London class was delayed because of the coal strike. Great progress is announced in defense against aircraft attacks.

In his statement on the estimates W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty, points out that the provision for new construction was increased from £9,083,000 ($45,415,000) to £9,983,000 ($49,915,000) and the provision for the air fleet arm was increased from £681,000 ($3,405,000) to £882,000 ($4,440,000). Small reductions in the year's estimates are made possible by administrative economies effected through the new construction program and the contribution of the Federated Malay States to the cost of the Singapore base and completion of oil and fuel storage installations.

In order to increase the efficiency and mobility of the fleet, plans are being tried out in the Mediterranean for extending the period between successive dock yard refits of ships and reducing the number of such yards.

Mr. Bridgeman notes that increasing attention is given to fuel economy in the fleet.

Prime Minister Baldwin announced in the house of commons that the British will take no further initiative regarding disarmament until the United States government is again heard from.

Report Japan's Acceptance.

TOKIO, March 10.—[U. P.]—Foreign Minister Shidehara today was understood to have instructed Ambassador Matsudaira to notify the United States state department of Japan's acceptance of President Coolidge's invitation to a three power naval limitations conference.

DIVORCE WINNER CHARGES SLANDER IN $100,000 SUIT

Soon after Mrs. Jessie Bartlett Duncan of 1016 South Wesley avenue, Oak Park, obtained a divorce yesterday from Leo Oliver Duncan, furniture manufacturer of Grand Rapids, Mich., on grounds of cruelty, a declaration was filed in her $100,000 suit against Milton Fish, member of the furniture firm of L. Fish & Co. Mrs. Duncan received alimony approximating $2,500. She and her attorney explained the $100,000 suit about which they previously had refused to talk.

"My home was entered and I was robbed of $7,000 worth of jewelry by two men," Mrs. Duncan said. "One of the men was caught, tried, and acquitted. During the trial Milton Fish wrote a letter about me to one of the defendants in which he made slanderous statements about me. That is the basis of my $100,000 suit."

CARRINGTON FILES $1,000,000 SUIT AGAINST BROTHER

New York, March 10.—[Special.]—The case of Carrington vs. Carrington which recently had trial by a battle of canes, became doubly legal today when various aspects of it entered two courts, with the disclosure in a legal action before Supreme Court Justice Glennon of the fact that a suit for $1,000,000 damages for alienation of affections has been filed by Col. Carrington against his brother and with the briefest of appearances in the West Side court before Magistrate Tolleris.

In the latter moment the trial of Col. Edward C. Carrington on a charge of assault growing out of his caning of his brother Campbell Carrington, was adjourned until March 15.

Asked to Take Testimony.

The Supreme court aspect of the case hung up on the application of counsel for Col. Carrington for permission to take testimony by deposition from Mrs. Mary C. Walsh concerning letters written in her care to Mrs. Annette Walsh Snyder Carrington, wife of the colonel.

The application before Justice Glennon today to take testimony concerning the letters was made by James P. McManus. It was denied. It led, however, to the disclosure of the complaint and of a letter allegedly written by Campbell Carrington to his brother's wife in 1923.

Couched in Affectionate Terms.

The letter, couched in affectionate terms, was sent to her, it is alleged, under cover of an envelope addressed to Mrs. Walsh. It follows:

"Thursday. Darling: We have hit oil in Texas and I have received an imperative wire to come right down there.

"I would give anything, darling, to have you in my arms and hold you real tight. I am terribly hungry for you, and it seems like you have been away from me for years. Are you going to arrange in some way to see me when I get back, or are you satisfied to go on without seeing me? All my love and a million kisses."

The letter is the chief basis for the suit. Mrs. Carrington has brought a counter divorce action in Chicago, denying all allegations.

BULLETIN.

TOKIO, March 11.—Friday.—(U. N.)—Acceptance by Japan of President Coolidge's proposal for a three power naval disarmament conference has received the sanction of Emperor Hirohito. Japan will notify the United States of her action today.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—The question of our right under the Washington treaty to elevate our battleship guns so as to give them a range equal to the British and Japanese is scheduled to come before the forthcoming conference on supplemental naval limitation called by President Coolidge.

The British and Japanese battleship fleets can steam faster and shoot farther than ours—two advantages that might easily spell victory in battle. The Japanese outrange us as a result of elevating their guns without consulting anybody. The British have not increased their gun elevations and contend that such changes are a violation of Washington conference agreement.

After halting the gun elevation program in deference to British objections, the United States was about to proceed with it in connection with the modernization of the battleships Oklahoma and Nevada when the second deficiency bill, appropriating for the work, failed in the senate filibuster in which the Sixty-ninth congress ended last week. Now it will be impossible to finance gun elevation until congress meets next winter.

Geneva Conference to Decide.

In the meantime the question of the legality of changes in gun elevation will come before the three power armament limitation conference which is to meet at Geneva in June or July. This was learned today following official notification that Great Britain will accept the President's invitation and press advices from Tokio that Japan intends to accept. Mr. Coolidge is now expected to issue a formal invitation to the two powers to join the United States in endeavoring to agree on limitation of the building of cruisers and other auxiliaries not covered by the Washington conference treaty.

While Sir Esme Howard, the British ambassador, was advising the state department of the British decision to accept, American naval authorities were noting with interest the statement of William Clive Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty in parliament, that the British government will not lay down any warships on its 1927 program pending the outcome of the conference but will not suspend work on ships already under construction.

No Real Concession by Britain.

This represents no concession at all by Great Britain, as the 1927 program will not be voted by parliament until next summer, while the conference is in session, and the ships would not be laid down anyway until next winter, long after the conference ends.

In view of these facts, the Bridgeman statement is regarded here as British propaganda intended to influence President Coolidge to hold up the plans for building six 10,000 ton cruisers, bids for which were advertised for a few days ago.

The fact is, however, that it would be necessary for the United States to build these cruisers and more, even if the President's conference agrees on a limitation, which will not be below Britain's fifty-four built and building, aggregating 332,290 tons.

We have only eighteen of 155,000 tons built, building and appropriated for. Ten of them are 8,000 ton cruisers, two 10,000 ton cruisers are being built, and the other six 10,000 ton ships will not be laid down in any event for several months. Japan has twenty-five cruisers of 156,000 tons.

Three Power Naval Figures.

The respects in which the British and Japanese battleship fleets are superior to ours are interesting. The 5-5-3 ratio, as applied by the framers of the Washington treaty, allows the United States eighteen battleships, Great Britain twenty-two at present, and Japan ten. Britain is replacing her four oldest battleships with the Rodney and Nelson, two remarkable fighting ships of 35,000 tons each, now nearly complete. So, eventually, Britain will have twenty battleships of the same aggregate tonnage as ours.

The Rodney and Nelson and the Hood carry nine 16 inch guns each, one more than our three latest capital ships, which carry 16 inch guns. The next nine American ships carry 14 inch guns, and the six oldest 12 inch. When the Rodney and Nelson are completed the British will have twenty ships mounting guns of 13.4 inches caliber or heavier, the United States fourteen ships, and the Japanese ten. Of capital ships with 12 inch guns the United States will have four and Britain and Japan none.

The British and Japanese capital ships are all faster than those of the United States—from one to two knots each. Our builders have sacrificed speed to armor protection. Our ships are not so capable of keeping out of range but are better qualified to withstand damage when hit.

Show Boat

by MISS TAYLOR TEEN

The girls had come together for bridge and as usual the conversation turned to those not present.

"Did you see Florence with Bill last night? I do hope they make a match."

"She'll never get him, though," said another, "and it's her own fault. She simply does not know how to dress. I overheard Bill near the punch bowl muttering, 'That's the last time I ever go out with a Show-Boat!'"

"You're right, Dorothy," the third hand chimed in. "Florence wears the most unbecoming colors. And her clothes never have any line or grace. Why doesn't someone take pity on the poor girl and take her down to Taylor's?

"Smart clothes are just a question of going to the right place and goodness knows, Taylor Teen frocks and coats aren't expensive, even if they are exclusive."

PRINCETON MEN URGE REVISION OF WAR DEBT TERMS

Hibben and 116 of Faculty Indorse Butler Plan.

Princeton, N. J., March 10.—[Special.]—Princeton university followed the lead of Columbia tonight in indorsing the statement issued by the faculty of political science at Columbia for reconsideration of the settlement of the allied debts to America.

A statement made public tonight by President John Grier Hibben is signed by 116 members of the Princeton faculty, and reads:

"We, the undersigned, members of the faculty of Princeton university, heartily indorse the desire expressed by the faculty of political science of Columbia university for a reconsideration of the settlement of the allied debts."

Promoted by Dean.

Agitation for an indorsement of the statement, made public last December by Nicholas Murray Butler, was promoted by Dana Carleton Munro, head of the Princeton department of history.

President Hibben, whose name heads the list of Princeton signers, said there is a growing recognition that the settlements so far effected do not meet the actual situation, in spite of the leniency with which the debt terms are represented to be by those who wish to insist on our generosity.

President Hibben's statement follows:

"The signatures of 116 members of the Princeton faculty constitute one more indication, in a lengthening series, that the enlightened opinion of the country calls for a revision of the debt settlements with our former allies. However well intentioned may have been the motives of our representatives who approved the terms of these settlements, and however lenient these terms may be represented to be by those who wish to insist on our generosity, there is a growing recognition that the settlements so far effected do not meet the actual situation.

Grants Capacity to Pay.

"Even granting the capacity of our debtors to fulfill our stipulations which is now openly questioned, we do not desire to impose tremendous burdens of taxation for the next two generations on friendly countries who are struggling to regain their strength, at the very time when we are amassing a national fortune.

"To urge our government's obligation to its citizens bondholders and taxpayers is to evade the real issue, which does not concern the relation of the government to the people, but our national policy toward certain other states.

"To divorce the financial provisions of the loans from the moral situation in which they were asked for and given is to invent and unreal economic abstraction.

Revise Previous Agreements.

"Against the contention that this question should not be raised until all our debtors have come to book there is a ready rejoinder that it would be wise to adopt a policy which would facilitate agreements with the remaining parties and then revise previous agreements. Finally there is good reason to believe that in economics, as well as in morals, altruism is indistinguishable from true self interest.

The signatures, which number nearly half the members of the faculty in the university, include those of Dr. Henry Van Dyke, Edward Capps, formerly minister to Greece; Christian Gauss, dean of the college; Luther P. Eisenhart, dean of the faculty; Andrew Fleming West, dean of the graduate college; Walter L. Whittlesey, of the department of politics; Frank A. Fetter and Frank D. Graham, members of the department of economics.

Florence Stokes Indicted for Murder of Glennon

Florence Stokes, 18 years old, 6459 Green street, was indicted by the grand jury yesterday and held without bail for the murder several weeks ago of James E. Glennon, 22 years old, 6715 Green street. She told the police at the time that she shot Glennon when he told her that their friendship was at an end and handed her a revolver. She claims she shot him with his own pistol.

Constipation! How to Keep Bowels Regular

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated men, women, children, and particularly old folks, had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all headaches, biliousness, indigestion and stomach misery, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Sryup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even to those chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Beauty's castile

.... a toilet soap that adds new virtues to the ancient goodness of castile

What woman who knows Castile has not longed for a Castile with the modern touch, a dainty, generously-lathering feminine toilet soap with all the matchless virtue of old Castile? And here it is; DOÑA*CASTILE, the loveliest of all toilet soaps today.

You will find Doña Castile infinitely bland and soothing to your skin. There is nothing the least irritating in Doña—no artificial scent even, nothing but vegetable oil. Doña's fragrance comes only from its pure ingredients

And there is nothing in the world like olive oil to softly cleanse a woman's skin! This is the secret of Castile; the reason why Castile has always been the most beneficial toilet soap in the world.

Is there a woman who does not know it? What woman would think of using anything else for the tender skin of her baby? True, she may not have used it for herself. Not because she questioned the virtue of Castile; but there were objections to it for her! The old-fashioned Castile did not give generous quick lather—as Doña does, even in cold water! (Doña rinses instantly, too!) And again, Castile came in such weird, unattractive shapes—whereas Doña is beautifully molded for her hand, and "hard-milled" too, to make it last as Castile never was.

So today millions of women are using Doña as a beauty soap, and as a toilet soap for the whole household. It's the utterly sensible, delightful thing to do! You can buy Doña almost anywhere. Armour, U. S. A.

COSTLIEST OF ALL SOAPS TO MAKE

We could reproduce the finest of imported Castile Soap for considerably less than it costs to make DOÑA CASTILE. To the best of our knowledge DOÑA is the costliest to make of all pure, unscented toilet soaps.

*Pronounced Don-ya

Castile was first made in Castilla, in northern Spain, six hundred years ago. It has been used ever since by the beauties of Spain, possessors of the most gorgeous complexions in Europe; and by the aristocracy of the whole world.

U. S. PROTESTS TO CANTON FOR RAID ON MISSIONARIES

American Women Flee After Wuhu Capture.

SHANGHAI, China, March 10.—(AP)—American Minister John McMurray today directed the American consul general at Hankow to protest to the Cantonese authorities concerning the disorders which followed the Cantonese occupation of the city of Wuhu, when American mission property was looted.

Wuhu, which is 200 miles west of Shanghai, was the center of an anti-foreign demonstration throughout Tuesday and yesterday. The customs house and Customs club were wrecked by rioters. The foreign men in the city were concentrated under the protection of warships, while a group of foreign women and children were placed aboard the steamer Kutwo, which left Wuhu today.

Report U. S. Women on Warship.

An earlier report said that American women and children had been placed aboard the United States destroyer Preble. It was not certain whether these also were taken aboard the Kutwo before it sailed for Shanghai.

The soviet consul general went to Nanking this morning in an effort to obtain the release of Mme. Borodin, wife of the Cantonese adviser, and the three Russian couriers who were arrested last Saturday aboard the soviet vessel Pamiat Lenina. He was met with the answer that the matter lay entirely with the government at Peking.

Reports yesterday that the three Russian couriers had been executed were emphatically denied by the Chinese authorities today, who said that the three men were being closely guarded at Tsinan, but that they were being well treated.

Arrest 79 Strike Agitators.

The Chinese authorities in Shanghai have begun to take action against strike agitators, many of whom have been arrested. The headquarters of the Postal Workers' union was raided and seventy-nine men were arrested, including a representative of the general labor union and the secretary of the postal union. All but these two officials later were released.

Foreigners Flee City.

LONDON, March 10.—(AP)—All foreigners have been evacuated from Ningpo, according to a Shanghai dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph, after distressing demonstrations in which the Chinese took advantage of the absence of warships to insult the foreigners.

"The Chinese threatened to repeat previous incidents when English women were paraded through the streets in a cage," the dispatch said. "Three cages had been prepared when the foreigners decided to leave."

Italy Sends Transport to Orient.

THE POLICE IN THE NEGRO WARDS.

Mayor Dever and Chief Collins are accused of misusing the police in the Second, Third, and Fourth wards to terrify, coerce, and punish the Negro voters. These wards have been for Thompson whenever he was a candidate. They were for him in the primaries. The attempt, under Negro leaders, to take them from him was a fizzle.

Masses of colored people who are not disorderly are for him because they think he is their friend. They think they get a fair deal from him. That includes favors in politics, jobs, where they can be had, and a recognition of their social as well as political rights.

Vicious Negroes have been for him because in his administration a free hand was given to the black resort keepers, gamblers, black and tan cabarets, and the business of making money out of the vices.

It has been generally feared that a high cultivation of the disorderly professions and sex depravities in the Negro wards would make trouble for the whole city. The particular license granted black bad men to do as they pleased without police interference was harmful to the Negro citizenship. It lowered the standards of the Negro neighborhoods and it gave their worst characters an idea of their immunity from law which was not good for the city.

Mayor Dever explains that since the primaries in which Thompson ran all over Litsinger there has been a flare-up of the most unpleasant activities in the Negro wards and that orderly colored citizens and whites have told him they were afraid of the probable consequences. He instructed the police to get control of the situation and keep it. The Thompson Negroes say that he turned the Cossacks loose on them.

No one who knows Dever will believe that he did any such thing. Some of the police may have interpreted Thompson's "left-handed" crack at Brennan as in reality a slur on the Irish and may have put their heart in their work when they were ordered to bring Thompson's Second, Third, and Fourth ward friends to time. It is police politics to razz your enemies and favor your friends before an election. We do not believe Dever will stand for much of that this election.

The white and the colored people of Chicago have to find a way of getting along with each other. Most of them do not have much trouble. Ordinary decency of behavior on both sides makes it easy enough. The city cannot have a situation in which white men are in danger in black streets and black men in danger in white streets. Let either the bad whites or the bad blacks get out of hand, and it is provocative.

It is hardly required of Mayor Dever that he anticipate the possible policy of Mr. Thompson in these wards. Mr. Thompson is not yet elected mayor. If he is, he will have four years of his own and the responsibility for what he does.

WIDER BRIDGES.

The finance committee of the city council wants to submit a number of bond issues to the voters for approval at the April election. The whole sum which the committee wishes the city to borrow is $21,000,000, of which $8,725,000 is to be spent on bridge construction.

Four bridges are contemplated. They will span the river at Wabash avenue, Clark street, Taylor street and Roosevelt road. No question exists of the need for new bridges at these crossings. The bridges should be built and they should be built wide enough to serve the needs of traffic.

Many of the bridges in the city are too narrow. Traffic is clogged behind them. Even the Michigan boulevard bridge, providing six traffic lanes, is too narrow during the rush hours. In wet weather it is the scene of numerous more or less serious collisions.

Bridges which are wide enough for today's traffic will be too narrow in a few years. Everybody knows that and yet the obvious truth has not been acted upon in the past. The Dearborn street bridge is an example of short-sighted planning. Because traffic moves more slowly across the bridges than on the approaches, the bridges should be built, if possible, wider than the street to prevent congestion.

THE SHIPPERS AND THE HARBOR.

The Chicago Shippers' Conference association has adopted six principles which it deems of importance in the planning of Chicago's harbor facilities. The principles have the endorsement of Maj. Rufus Putnam, who has been engaged by the Commercial club to draw up a harbor plan. They were incorporated in the harbor scheme prepared by THE TRIBUNE's traffic manager.

There is reason to hope that the gulf waterway will be completed by 1930. When it is open, Chicago will have to have docks for barges where goods can be unloaded for local delivery. We shall need other facilities for transferring cargoes from freight cars to barges and vice versa and still other facilities for interchange with lake vessels. The location and equipment of docks for these various services should be determined in the light of the requirements of traffic. It is better to study the needs now with a view to guiding the harbor development, than to leave the solution of the problem entirely to caprice.

The danger is that the plan agreed upon will sacrifice usefulness to symmetry. The temptation to adopt a balanced design is great, but it must be resisted if the harbor is to achieve a maximum of usefulness. In this matter the views expressed by the shippers' conference are of the highest value, for their interest is centered upon the proper functioning of the harbor. If it won't work they have no use for it.

A SUMMER CAPITAL.

The factor of political strategy or expediency should be removed from the selection of a summer capital. It can be by creating a permanent summer capital. The government should have a summer capital, for Washington is impossible, and since Washington is in the east the summer capital should be in the west. When the site of Washington was chosen it had a strategic situation between the north and the south. If a site were chosen today it would be in the middle west if the decision were made on legitimate considerations, and the same considerations point to some site in the middle west for a permanent summer capital.

We think the Michigan Riviera is the place for it, say near Grand Haven or Muskegon or higher up, if it seems advisable. There is no finer summer climate in the temperate zone than this region, with the west winds cooled by the lake, little fog or heavy rains, bracing air, and cool nights. The situation is accessible in case of emergency, and there may be serious consequences in which the highest medical or surgical skill might be called upon, as ready access to Washington would be important. The scenery is picturesque. There are lakes for fishing and boating and good roads for motoring.

We do not deny the charms of far west mountain regions, but they are very remote from Washington, where the main offices of government must remain while Washington remains the capital, and the Michigan Riviera has all the qualifications from the standpoint of health and comfort and the relaxation our Presidents and cabinet should have in the summer period.

There should be a permanent summer capital. It should be in the middle west, and we think the east shore of Lake Michigan has more advantages than any other situation in the great valley.

THE SENATE PASSES REDISTRICTING TO THE HOUSE.

The senate by one vote passed the Dailey resolution for a redistricting of the state, to be planned and offered by a legislative committee for action this session. This was done with the aid of six senators from districts outside of Cook county, Barr, Carlson, Dailey, Kessinger, Searcy and Wright.

It is Springfield opinion that the senate has relieved itself of the charge of violating the oath of office and nullifying the constitution, but that the house will be found entirely willing to have that charge concentrated upon itself, that it will dispose of the resolution and that the metropolitan district will continue without its constitutional representation in the legislature. The house has three times the membership of the senate and consequently more shoulders to carry a load.

It is a part of assembly procedure for one house occasionally to step in out of the wind and for the other house to carry the basket of eggs. Reciprocity can keep either branch from getting all the worst of this from time to time. The assumption that the representatives in the lower house are willing to bootleg Chicago's seats to downstate districts is based on the idea that these legislators do not object to being set apart as the star perjurers and nullifiers of the assembly.

It may be a part of the plan that nullification should continue with these gentlemen high lighted as the cause of it, but the responsibility for it is not growing any lighter. It is not an enviable position for a member of the legislature and perjurer is not a complimentary term.

It is one that sticks if a man swears to uphold the constitution when he takes his office and then votes to discard it. The men and women who want to decorate themselves with the name have the power but not the right to do so.

AMERICAN FARM OWNERS IN MEXICO.

It is revealed in Washington that the state department informed the senate foreign relations committee last month that Americans in Mexico have suffered from 121 agrarian expropriations and from 662 property seizures of various sorts and from over 500 trespasses. The committee also was told the information in the state department indicates that the figures applying to oil lands and companies given by Calles to Borah were not accurate.

Opponents of the American administration talk of nothing but oil because they know Doheny is interested in Mexican oil and they think that Americans do not care what happens to Doheny in Mexico or elsewere. The policy of this opposition, if it is forced on the administration, will leave without protection the American farm land holders and other property owners. The Americans who have suffered from land seizures have not been recompensed.

Other properties will be taken and American citizens who have gone into Mexico and have acquired property under Mexico law will be wiped out.

CHICAGO'S DOGS.

[The Indianapolis News.]

Whatever else may be said of Chicago, it must be a happy home for dogs. Whenever a homeless wanderer is found, cab drivers are authorized to pick it up and transport it to the headquarters of the Anti-Cruelty society, which pays the tax bill. Many dogs have been cared for in this way. They and the cab companies alike profit by the arrangement, and from neither have any criticisms emanated. So far no criticism of the plan has been heard. There are, however, two dangers. Dogs may be picked up that are not really homeless for the purpose of adding to the receipts of the cab companies. On the other hand, dogs may beg so hard for a ride as to make it impossible to resist their importunities. For it is said that "most of the dogs like the cabs so well that they hesitate to leave them even for a permanent home." But as long as the Anti-Cruelty society does not object to the cab hire, there is no reason why any one else should. Motor cars have a strange and almost irresistible fascination for dogs—such is the conclusion derived from a somewhat limited observation.' That conclusion is greatly strengthened by this word from Chicago. Whether it is a case of speed mania or the passion to be in motion without walking which has enslaved so many human beings, or love of comfort, we do not suppose even a psychologist could say. Perhaps even the dog immortalized by the late Senator Vest would have been unable to resist the lure of the automobile.

How to Keep Well.
By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions pertinent to hygiene, sanitation and prevention of disease, if matters of general interest, will be answered in this column. Where space will not permit, or the subject is not suitable, letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitation, and where a stamped, addressed envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make a diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

MALE WEAKER SEX, THIS DOCTOR SAYS.

DR. PAUL POPENOE thinks the male is the weaker sex. No part of his interesting book on the "Problems of Reproduction" is more intriguing than those chapters in which he sets forth the arguments that prove the inferiority of man, the male, biologically.

To begin with, the male has the advantage at least in point of numbers. The proportion of babies born alive is about 105 males to 100 females. Where the mothers are quite young the disproportion is greater still. So it is among first born. It is particularly greater during war times and immediately thereafter. But going back of the birth period we find the disproportion is greater still. The sex of the child is determined at the moment of conception.

The evidence by which physicians can decide whether a child is a boy or a girl by an anatomical examination is not discernible until the baby is about three months on its way toward birth. But that does not change the fact that the die was cast, male or female, at the moment of conception, and close microscopic examination discloses the decision. Such examinations show that the potential males enormously outnumber the females.

Some investigators make it 180 to 100, and one makes it less than 110 to 100. Popenoe compares it to playing with loaded dice. He explains scientifically how nature may be loading the dice to favor the male. But once conception has taken place, the dice are loaded for the female. Just how nature may be loading those dice the other way he also tells.

At all periods of life from nine months before the cradle to the grave the female has the better of it from the standpoint of holding on to life. The pendulum swings the other way at once and there it sticks. Nature seems to try to make up for favoring the male at the start by nagging at him "all his days"; the slang is "all his born days." That is only a part of the truth. All his days born and unborn is nearer right.

Let us be conservative and say that the proportion at conception is 150 males to 100 females, and at birth it is 105 males to 100 females. Plainly, in the enormous death rate between conception and birth the males have lost 45 out of their 50 initial advantage. And at no other period in life is the death rate so high as during these months before birth.

The female continues to reap her advantage as life goes on. Among still births there are more boys than girls. Among babies who die during birth boys predominate. Likewise among those who die during the first week and the first month of life periods, when the child seems to die because he cannot get a toehold on life.

Of all the seven diseases of childhood, whooping cough seems to be the only fatal one that is harder on girls than it is on boys.

In an early age period the females are found to outnumber the males. That surplus of 50 at conception and five at birth has given away to a deficiency. The death rates of women at all ages are lower than those of men. It is the old woman and not the old man that fills the old people's homes. The reason is that the male is biologically weaker. Popenoe gives the theories in explanation of this.

MILK DIET CAN BE OVERDONE.

A. F. D. writes: I was a good deal startled by reading in a medical paper a quotation from a Harry Lowenburg, Archives of Pediatrics, that milk was not so beneficial in all cases, as your column and numerous papers by infant welfare people and dietitians are continually advising us to drink at least a quart a day.

I have seen several instances where children would drink the milk but then would not eat anything, especially vegetables and fruits. The milk evidently satisfied them and took away all appetite for other foods.

Have we been pushing the milk diet too strongly?

REPLY.

Milk is a good thing. But all good things are subject to abuse.

The facts are about as Dr. Lowenburg says. The Minneapolis Infant Welfare society told us the same several years ago.

HOW TO LIVE LONG.

H. F. writes: 1. What are the things that help towards living a long life?

2. Does outdoor work and less excitement help?

REPLY.

1. First comes having the right ancestors. After that come careful living, underweight, regular bowel habits, moderation in eating and drinking, exercise and cheerfulness.

2. Yes—to a degree.

MINOR'S DEBTS.

Chicago, March 9.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—"A," while a minor, charged one hundred dollars' worth of clothes to his father, asserting that he had the latter's permission to do so, which was a deliberate lie. "A" is now twenty-one years old. Is he liable to prosecution for nonpayment of the debt or for "getting possession of goods under false pretenses"? T. G.

No. TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Chicago, March 8.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—A woman was in a department store looking at some goods on counter. She had a market bag on her arm and pocketbook inside bag. A woman standing next to her attracted her attention to some goods and meanwhile purse is gone, and supposition is that this woman took it. Store manager was called and when asked he refused to open her coat to see if purse was there. Store manager said he could not hold her legally and have house detective investigate.

1. Would like to know if it is not in their power to do this so as to protect a customer. 2. If so, are they responsible for not doing so? R. R. G.

1. Of course, it is within their power, but if the woman proved innocent she might be entitled to damages.

2. No. TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

TYING UP THE PROPERTY.

Chicago, March 8.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—1. If a man insists upon buying property in his own name without adding his wife's, can she prevent him from selling the property without her consent?

2. If he should die before the property was entirely paid for would his wife be responsible for the remainder of the payments? G. N.

1 Yes.

2. Not unless the facts were such that it could be regarded as a family expense.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

MARCH 11, 1862.

LOUISVILLE.—A squad of cavalry under the notorious rebel Col. John Morgan, recently erroneously reported killed, attacked Federal pickets fifteen miles south of Nashville. A party of Ohio Federal cavalry is now in hot pursuit of Morgan's gang.

ST. LOUIS.—Maj. Gen. Halleck reported to Gen. McClellan at Washington that the army of the southwest, under Gen. Curtis, after three days' hard fighting, has gained a glorious victory over the combined rebel forces of McCulloch, Price, Van Dorn, and McIntosh. Our loss in killed and wounded is estimated at 1,000. That of the enemy is much larger. The battle was fought at Sugar Creek, Ark., beginning March 6.

FORT HENRY.—Gen. C. F. Smith has been placed in command of the army in the field, Gen. Grant remaining at this point, which is at present headquarters of the department. Officers of his command presented Gen. Grant a magnificent sword as a token of their appreciation of his masterly military tactics.

WASHINGTON.—Gen. Phil Kearney's New Jersey brigade and an equal number of rebel regiments fought a battle at Langley's station, and the rebels were driven back.

WASHINGTON.—There is no longer any doubt the rebels have evacuated Centerville, Winchester, and other important points, indicating a general falling back of their forces in Virginia.

FORT MONROE.—In the Hampton Roads battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac, the Monitor was not damaged and only one person, Lieut. Worden, its commander, was injured. The last seen of the Merrimac it was apparently sinking deeper at the stern and was in tow of tugs.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

MARCH 11, 1902.

ST. PAUL.—Attorney General Knox, as directed by President Roosevelt, filed in federal court here a bill in equity intended to nullify the recent merger of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, and Burlington railway companies.

PITTSBURGH.—The strike of 7,000 teamsters and freight handlers in Boston is likely to spread over the entire country.

CHICAGO.—Aroused by the strike of the freight handlers in Boston, the "rustlers" of the freight houses in Chicago are preparing to organize. There are 7,000 of them employed by the various railroads running into the city.

CHICAGO.—Mrs. Anna Schneider, 23 years old, 358 West Ohio street, was instantly killed while being removed from one ward to another in an elevator in the West Side hospital.

LONDON.—The defeat and capture of Lord Methuen by Gen. Delarey and his Boer command has plunged England in gloomy depression. In the battle 1,200 British soldiers were stampeded. Forty-one were killed, 77 wounded, and 200 captured. Lord Methuen was taken prisoner after his leg had been broken. The Boers were uniformed in British uniforms of khaki.

CHICAGO.—The Leland hotel, a name that hostelry has borne since Warren Leland assumed its management in 1881, will be renamed on April 1 the Hotel Stratford. George B. Weaver, manager of Kinsley's, will assume control for five years. The hotel was the first of the large ones constructed after the fire. It was then called the Gardiner house, after one of the lessees, who were Gardiner and Gould.

CHICAGO. — Brig. Gen. Frederick Funston of Kansas will become the guest of Chicago this afternoon when he arrives from Washington for a two days' visit.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

MARCH 11, 1917.

CHICAGO. — A national railway strike is again threatened. Assurances have been sent to President Wilson, however, that if the country becomes involved in war the renewed demands of the railway employés will not be pressed. Announcement was made that the four big brotherhoods have asked for a meeting with the national conference committee of the railroads in New York next Thursday, regardless of whether the United States Supreme court shall have handed down a decision on the Adamson law or not. The unions are demanding a settlement of the eight hour day question.

WASHINGTON.—Arming of American ships is going forward rapidly, and within a few days all these vessels on the high seas will be prepared to defend themselves. In view of the German "ruthless" war order, crews of ships are directed to fire on submarines at sight and not to await an attack. The government plans to build a fleet of submarine chasers and contractors have been called for a parley.

CHICAGO. — Announcement was made of the engagement of the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Aldrich of Lake Forest, Anita and Helen, the former to Lawrence D. Smith, son of Mrs. Dunlap Smith, 2636 Lake View avenue, and the latter to Albert Blake Dick Jr.

CHICAGO.—Dr. Herman Berry, 4345 Grand boulevard, celebrated his 100th birthday.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Hew to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

FEET.

There are things
Feet know
That hands never will:
The exciting
Pounding feel
Of running down a hill;

The soft cool
Prickliness
When feet are bare
Walking in
The summer grass
To most anywhere;

Or dabbling in Water all
Slip sliddering through toes—(Nicer than
Through fingers though why
No one really knows.)

"Toes, tell my Fingers," I
Said to them one day.
"Why it's such Fun just to Wiggle and play."

But toes just Looked at me
Solemn and still.
O there are things
Feet know
That hands NEVER WILL.

Now, what else must I do?

THE BOY FROM OREGON.

WE'RE GOING to borrow one of John Wentworth's cheetahs to use in place of Cuthbert the cockroach. Cuthbert is not attending to business since he went into politics, and a cheetah would be the very thing. A cheetah has a splendid nose for tender, good tasting morsels, and we will just throw all the contributions in a pile and let the cheetah dive right into 'em and grab the nice, juicy ones. Now, what shall we name our cheetah?

EUSEBIO CONCIALDI (Conchi), who has sung on Line Nites ever since that institution began, is going to give his annual song recital a week from next Sunday (March 20) at the Studebaker theater, half past three in the afternoon, and the commonest or gardenest form of gratitude requires that we call your attention to it. We'd do it anyhow, because Concialdi's singing is so very much worth while. We have never thrilled so excitedly to a human voice as we have to Conchi when he sang Madelon's Road to Vaux. Oh! goose pimples all up and down said spine! He'll sing Vaux at his recital, and Lun Dee's Weave Me a Dream, and Marjorie F. W.'s Alchemy. Good luck, Conchi; we'll be in the front row.

Richard: About this new Slow Club. I suppose they accept members at their face value. Some are born slow, some attain slowness, and others . . . Of course, the password will be "Sello, everybody."

Since it is too easy to give each other the grippe by kissing, the girl member will grasp the boy's wrist firmly and murmur, "Be yourself, buddy." The club flower will be the garlic blossom, sulphur and molasses will be served at all parties, and while the men will appear in a natty straitjacket, smart frocks of armor plate steel trimmed with festoons of barb wire will be worn by the gentler sex. A GENTLEMAN AND HIS TIPPLE.

Monticello, March 7.—I inherited my wine cellar from my father, as did he and his forebears back to the time when our earliest cavalier ancestors landed on these shores. Even now I have Rhine wine dated 1886 and Pol Roger 1898. During the war my father stopped buying to put all his spare money into Liberty bonds. Since then I have not been able to buy legally and I have not violated the law of the country my forebears established, however contrary it is to the high principles of the constitution makers.

Fortunately, I was stationed in Normandy during the fall of 1918. Our own duties left us time in which we helped the overworked women whose men were at the war. I assisted in the manufacture of cider and of wine.

Cider well made is as palatable as sherry, but, like it, too strong for my palate, except immediately after a ride to hounds. I have been making cider since my return. I have been making wine since Representative Hill won his epochal lawsuit. I have recently tapped my first cask of wine in the presence of several gentlemen of the most refined taste, and all agreed as to its excellence. It is as good as the best imported Bordeaux of bygone days.

The prohibition law may hamper the working man. Many tell me that was its only purpose. To a gentleman residing on his own property it presents no problem at all. Indeed, it adds to the elegancies of genteel hospitality. It is nobler to regale one's friends with a beverage created by one's care and thought than with a bottle purchased. The latter, upon consideration, seems to be more in keeping with the station of a New England tradesman than that of a gentleman. G. W. JEFFERSON.

CENSORS AND CENSORSHIP.

Chicago, March 5.—About this time, the women's clubs of the city are nearing the end of their year, and the entertainment committees have just about exhausted their resources; what is more natural than that they fill in the time considering how to "regulate the morals and manners" of the community? If they would confine their efforts to the immediate members of their families or their friends and let the community of grown men and women decide for themselves whether or not their moral fiber will stand the strain of attending one of these so called lewd and indecent plays, they would become eligible for a vote of thanks from several thousands who haven't attained the high plane of living enjoyed by them.

If they succeed in keeping their own husbands and children at home, they will make a large enough dent in the box office receipts to warrant the producers to sit up and take notice much more effectually than all the censorship they can put over and not cause half the ill feeling and disgust.

A BLACK SHEEP.

EXPLAIN TEACHERS' OPPOSITION.

Chicago, March 7.—Without a doubt public money should be wisely and economically spent, and public employés should fulfill their duties as faithfully as those of private concerns. Under the Thompson régime there was laxity in these respects among public officials in Chicago. It was inevitable that with the present administration the pendulum should swing the other way, and that the forces which control our municipal government should seek to check certain of the loosenesses which had previously prevailed. Their intention was commendable; the results, so far as the public schools are concerned, are deplorable.

Making teachers check in and out like factory workers is not efficiency; neither is suppressing the teachers' councils; nor are other bureaucratic innovations lately introduced. If certain changes were necessary in the school system (and undoubtedly they were, for no system is perfect) they could have been tactfully introduced without arousing the ill will of the teaching force.

The disheartening feature is that the support of twelve thousand teachers, who should be lined up on the side of well administered city government, has been alienated. And unless all signs fail their votes are going to be missed by the present administration next month.

HARRY A. MICHAEL,
Teacher of Civics.

DRY STUFF.

Battle Creek, Mich., March 7.—Here are some interesting facts which indicate social and moral changes which seem to be interrelated. During the last wet year, the Methodist Episcopal church spent $9,000,000 building new churches, and in 1926 that church spent $21,000,000 for the same cause. In 1926 the membership of Protestant churches of America set a new record of 62,000 new members.

The finger print bureau of New York City shows that the number of first time drunks in that city has dropped from 19.1 per 10,000 population before prohibition, to 5.6 in 1925, the last available figure and the lowest record for the city. That indicates a decrease of well over two-thirds. Another interesting and probably related fact is the decline of 43 per cent in the commitments of offenders under 18 years old to the penal institutions of the nation. This figure is found in the census of prisoners, issued by the federal census bureau.

The same report shows further facts that would naturally bear a relation to church building and membership—commitments for all crimes have decreased 37.7 per capita, or more than one-third, since 1910, and commitments for drunkenness have receded 55.3 per cent per capita, in spite of the stricter attitude of the policemen against drunks. Even though very imperfectly enforced, the prohibition of the liquor traffic has wrought great moral, social, and economic good. M. C. MOORE.

WHAT ABOUT XANTIPPE?

Chicago, March 6.—The fact that the majority of our philosophers were bachelors makes this momentous question clamor with annoying persistency on my mind: Were they wise because they were single, or were they single because they were wise? ANTHONY BALAS.

FROM A FACTORY GIRL.

Chicago, March 9.—In reply to a factory worker's article of March 6, I would like to say that whoever told her about the eight hour bill certainly didn't tell her anything about her future earnings, or what it will mean to women in industry.

Overtime is the allowance the average factory girl gets, and with that she can take a vacation, buy a fur coat, or some other luxury, or use it to educate herself, which I have known several girls to do. Having been supervisor over a number of girls, I can say for them that they are glad when they get an opportunity to work overtime, and the saddest part of my job is when dull season comes and you have to have the girls work short hours and lay them off permanently. The dollars and not the hours are of the most interest to the working girl. If the eight hour bill passes, it is going to take a lot of women out of industry such as shop clerks, proofreaders, and other women who hold important positions, and they will be replaced by men and boys.

The Illinois Manufacturers' association might be misrepresenting you in Springfield, but they sure are not misrepresenting the average working girl. I might add, if you work more than ten hours some days, as you state you do, you are breaking the law right now. Also if the eight hour bill goes into effect, girls will work eight hours in a factory, then in the evening they will work four or five hours in a restaurant, ice cream parlor, movie house, etc., and there is no law which says they cannot do that. They will do this in order to make the extra money that is denied in overtime work. I am a factory worker myself and I know.

Folks, you are cordially invited to view our wonderful exhibit of these beautiful suits. We've devoted our entire window space to the initial showing of Capper's Boulevard "50."

BEECHER said, "Character is the one human quality that all men covet."

And a current writer defines "Prestige" as the reward of faithful performance. Prestige should be labeled "Handle with Care"—it is frail, fragile, perishable.

Folks, this institution is great not because of dollars accumulated, but character formed. Its prestige reaches far because it has ever kept its "shooting-irons" trained on the target of truth.

* * *

Some four years ago we tied a tin can to the tail of a slumbering industry by the publication of our famous page "Dynamite and Printers' Ink." That was "Step Number One." Mild hysteria developed from coast to coast—scoffers and unbelievers wig-wagged and zig-zagged along the Shores of Doubt.

And the clothing industry—green-goggled Apostles of Standpatism—stood winking and blinking at the Dawn of a New Era—for with the broadcasting of "Step Number Two" under the caption, "America, Here's Our Plan," came the realization that the "Old Order" was in total eclipse, and that a "New Order of Things" had nosed in under the wire.

Amazement deferred to Admiration, however, when "Step Number Three" was announced—a complete clearance of clothing stocks in all Capper & Capper Stores, down to the last garment—in order that our new merchandising plan might be put into effect.

And so, while felicitating ourselves upon the happy fruition of our plans to produce the finest clothes in the world, we fell to wondering what the effect would be if a car of Rolls-Royce quality could be marketed at a Buick price.

Or, turn it around this way if you please, what would be the reaction if a suit of clothes of Capper & Capper quality could be offered at the "Average Man's" price?

The thought obsessed us. But how could it be accomplished? Obviously, it was a manufacturing problem. And then, like a clap of thunder from a clear sky, came the answer.

"MAINTENANCE OF THE CAPPER STANDARD—THE SAME RIGID ADHERENCE TO THE PRINCIPLES OF STANDARDIZED QUALITY IN THE MAKING OF A CAPPER & CAPPER SUIT AT $50, AS IN OUR FINEST GARMENTS."

"Pooh-Pooh!" they said. "It can't be done." We replied, the "impossible" is always "possible."

A year and a half of intelligent effort—which took us back to the very beginning of things in a manufacturing sense, followed—and lo, another glorious dream is realized in the presentation today of Capper's Boulevard "50"—at its price—$50—America's greatest suit-value.

And this, folks, is "Step Number Four," in the development of our "New Order of Things."

Another idea has "clicked," and our good friend—"The Average Man"—is the beneficiary.

REAL ESTATE BOND HOUSES TO GET PROBE

Legislator Charges Unsafe Methods.

Springfield, Ill., March 10.—[Special.]—Stirred by charges that real estate bond houses in Illinois were violating safe banking principles and endangering millions in investments, the state house of representatives today passed a resolution introduced by Representative Frank A. McCarthy of Elgin providing for a joint legislative investigation of real estate bonds, mortgages, and investment paper in Illinois.

"Beginning with 1916, and especially in 1919," said Mr. McCarthy, "there began a great building boom and the method of issuing securties became extremely lax. I represent, for example, clients who lost $500,000 as the result of the failure of an Elgin loan and investment house. A thorough investigation shows glaring violations of banking principles on the part of many investment companies."

Wild Speculation.

Construction bonds, Mr. McCarthy declared, were being issued at the rate of more than one billion dollars a year in the United States. In the case of bonds issued on projected buildings, he explained, the investor often must depend entirely on the integrity of the underwriting house. Monies received by investment houses, he charged, despite their nature of a trust fund, are often used for speculation or are pooled, and unsuccessful buildings are promoted at the expense of successful buildings.

The Elrod bills, providing for jury service by women, advocated by the judiciary committee, were advanced to second reading this morning.

Marketing Quiz to Start.

The house committee created yesterday to investigate the Grain Marketing company of Chicago, and the question of co-öperative marketing in general, will meet tomorrow morning in the offices of the attorney general in Chicago in order to organize.

Adjournment of the house was taken until next Tuesday morning. Two important committee hearings are scheduled for the first day's meeting next week. Opponents of the women's eight hour bill and of the McClugage and Durso home rule bills will be given opportunity to present arguments.

BURNS FATAL TO BABY.

Walter Hennebery, 3 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hennebery, 266 Root street, died yesterday from the effects of burns he received when he pulled a kettle of boiling water off a gas range.

INCOME TAX PAID IS 5 TIMES MORE THAN LAST YEAR

Income tax payments have multiplied five times and almost twice as many schedules have been filed to date over a similar date last year, according to figures announced yesterday by Mabel G. Reinecke, collector of internal revenue.

On March 10, 1926, the returns filed totaled 29,958 with $1,588,539 paid. To date this year 54,858 schedules have been filed and $8,741,050.55 paid. Mrs. Reinecke attributed the tremendous increase in payments to persons seeing the advantage of paying their entire tax at the time of the first installment.

"Penalties for failure to file income tax schedules under the revenue act of 1926 vary," Mrs. Reinecke said. "For willful failure to make a return the penalty is not more than $10,000 fine or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and in addition 25 per cent of the amount of the tax. For willfully making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is not more than $10,000 fine or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, and in addition 50 per cent of the amount of the tax, in case of a deficiency.

Klondike O'Donnell Freed on Weiss $50,000 Bond

Klondike O'Donnell, arrested with three others last Saturday morning while siphoning whisky from the Morand Bros. warehouse at 924 South May street, was released yesterday on bonds of $50,000. Mrs. Hattie Weiss, mother of Hymie Weiss, who was killed in a machine gun ambuscade in front of Schofield's florist shop, scheduled real estate valued at $100,000. Cash bond of $22,500 was deposited by friends.

NEW INSTITUTION FOR INSANE ASKED IN HAENISCH BILL

Would Convert Dunning Grounds Into Park.

Springfield, Ill., March 10.—[Special.]—A bill was presented in the senate today by Senator Herman J. Haenisch of Chicago which would abandon the present Dunning institutions and erect a new hospital for Chicago's insane within the boundaries of Cook county.

The bill further provides that the present Dunning grounds be transformed into a public park and named in honor of Gen. Frederick Wilhelm von Steuben, hero of the American revolution. The subject was refrred to the committee on parks and boulevards and playgrounds of which Senator Vanlent of Chicago is chairman.

The state department of public welfare has estimated at $32,000,000 the cost of obtaining an adequate new institution, although some senators predict a higher figure.

Backed by Steuben Club.

At present the chief interest in the subject appears to be centered in having a park named Von Steuben. The Steuben club of Chicago has been working for a fitting recognition of the services performed by Von Steuben, which were the subject of commendation by George Washington in the last letter he wrote as President.

Several Chicago senators, while urging a Von Steuben park, have said privately that they are opposed to the abandonment of Dunning.

He Asks Why Move It.

"That is an institution for the poor," explained one today. "It is so close in that any relative can go there for a 7 cent car fare, and with the loss of not much time. Why move it out ten miles more?

"There is 468 acres in the Dunning farms. After a new Dunning is built there may be pressure upon the state to sell that property for homes instead of retaining it for a park."

62 IN SHADE; 25 YEAR RECORD FOR MARCH 10

A temperature of 62 degrees in Chicago yesterday at 3 and 4 p. m. made the day the warmest March 10 since 1902, according to the records of the weather bureau. Twenty-five years ago the high mark was 63. In 1871, however, real summer weather prevailed on the same date, the maximum being 71.

The official prediction was for clouded skies today and tomorrow, with probably showers by tomorrow. Somewhat cooler weather also was forecast. The highest previous temperature since Jan. 1 was 56 degrees, on Feb. 22. The 62 mark has not been reached since Nov. 13, 1926.

SINCLAIR TRIAL IS ADJOURNED UNTIL MONDAY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Harry F. Sinclair's trial for contempt of the senate committee investigating the Teapot Dome oil scandal was adjourned today until Monday morning after the defense concluded the presentation of evidence in support of its contention that the questions the millionaire oil operator refused to answer were not pertinent to the oil land lease probe.

Justice William Hitz, presiding over the trial in the District Supreme court, having decided that he and not the jury will determine the pertinency of the questions, the jury was excused. The defense then submitted the complete record of the senate's public lands and surveys committee's hearing on March 22, 1923, when Sinclair declined to answer queries of Senator Walsh [Dem., Mont.] and Alva R. Adams, then a senator from Colorado.

Martin W. Littleton, chief of counsel for Sinclair, took the witness stand and assumed full responsibility for Sinclair's refusal to answer, asserting he had advised the oil man not to answer and had prepared Sinclair's statement waiving immunity. Today's testimony and arguments which the defense will make on the pertinency of the questions on Monday are formalities by which the defense is perfecting its record for an appeal in the event Sinclair is convicted.

Here Is the Reason for This Amazing Offer:

Hartman's MARCH OF EVENTS is a series of departmental Sales in which all Departments compete to offer the best value. This spectacular underselling event is the second great achievement of our Radio Department in the month of March, proving that Hartman's can provide Chicago's best radio values.

Hartman's Greatest Radio Offer:

As leaders in radio selling in Chicago, and by reason of our 17-store buying power, we have been able to induce the manufacturers of these cabinets and many of the standard accessories included in this amazing offer to forego their profits for this particular event. And it is only for this reason, together with a great sacrifice of profit on our own part, that we are able to give you such a high-grade set in a Console Cabinet with built-in speaker, together with the finest of accessories, for this price of $89.75 complete.

FREED-EISEMANN was the First High-Grade Radio Set

Throughout the history of radio, this name has always meant quality—and this is one of the latest and most perfect models produced by FREED-EISEMANN. The FREED-EISEMANN was chosen by the United States Navy for the President's yacht, the Mayflower. Wherever cultured people discriminate between noise and true tone, the choice is FREED-EISEMANN.

This Is Not a Liquidation Sale

It is an offer of a current model of a popular, high-grade Radio Set Complete, in which all the savings are reflected by our ability to buy cabinets and accessories at practically manufacturing cost, and by our willingness to turn these products over to you at very little profit.

REMAPPING BILL SENT BY HOUSE TO COMMITTEE

Friends Claim Sufficient Votes to Pass It.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., March 10.—[Special.]—The Dailey reapportionment resolution, passed by the senate yesterday by a vote of 25 to 24, made its initial appearance in the house today and was welcomed with open arms. Legislators on both sides of the question are eagerly awaiting a chance to battle it out. Predictions are that the resolution will be passed.

Count 82 for Resolution.

A preliminary counting of noses by Minority Leader Michael L. Igoe and other experienced solons, showed 82 probable votes in favor of the measure, which would empower a joint committee to draw a bill redistricting the state, and only 68 votes in the negative.

Today's first move was to send the bill to the house reapportionment committee of which Representative Ralph H. Hoar of Elgin, a sure advocate of the resolution, is chairman. Consideration will begin next Wednesday but is likely to be short, the probable result being a quick approval on the strength of the 21 to 16 majority in favor of the resolution said to exist in the committee. The chances are all in favor of a summary casting of the resolution on the floor of the house where all may engage in the general tussel.

Battle Echoes in Senate.

Though the resolution has passed out of its hands, the senate chamber continued today to echo with the reverberations of the contest. Chicago senators and their downstate brethren kept their differences alive by disputing the bill's likelihood of getting successfully through the house. But both sides agreed that John B. Fergus of Chicago has been a highly important factor in promoting the success so far obtained by his suit against the legislature in the state Supreme court.

Motion to Free Furniture Case Defendants Denied

Motion for a directed verdict of not guilty in the trial of 79 furniture manufacturing concern and 65 individuals on charges of violation of the Sherman anti-trust law was denied yesterday by federal Judge George A. Carpenter.

Judge Carpenter limited the time of counsel to four hours each for the government and defense in closing arguments. Trial of the case was continued until Monday, when the closing arguments will start. The case is expected to go to the jury on Wednesday.

New bills—By Kessinger, to license and regulate grain and other public exchanges; by Dunlap, to appropriate $50,000 a year to state university for sale of federal lands turned over to state; by Dunlap, to appropriate $10,500,000 to state university for biennial expenses; by Huebsch, to provide employés one day's rest in seven.

HOUSE.

New bills—By Curran, to appropriate $783,250 to state treasury for biennium; by Hoar, to require pneumatic tires on all busses and vans using hard roads; by Igoe, to provide for holding of civil service examination for park employés; by McCiugage, to amend real estate mortgage laws; by Reeves, to appropriate $10,500,000 to University of Illinois for biennium.

RELATIVES ASK CONSERVATOR OF GARRETT RICHES

Declaring that Mrs. Ada Sawyer Garrett, recluse, who was removed to St. Luke's hospital several weeks ago when friends found her ill and half starved in a small hotel room, was incompetent to manage her estate, said to total $2,000,000, relatives yesterday filed a petition asking that a conservator be appointed to manage her property.

Miss Bessie Forest, 321 Center street, a cousin of Mrs. Garrett, was the petitioner who charged that Mrs. Garrett has become mentally incompetent, due to semi-starvation. She told Probate Judge Henry Horner that Mrs. Garrett could no longer manage her estate, the real estate alone being valued at $1,617,000.

The judge took the case under advisement until he can hear testimony as to Mrs. Garrett's condition.

Fined $100 for Operating Airship Without License

Boston, Mass., March 10.—(AP)—Judge Brown in the East Boston court today fined Henry J. Larkin $100 for operating an airship without being licensed and without having had the airship registered.

N. U. COUPLE ARE FINALLY WED; SIX TIMES THWARTED

Objections of parents who six times frustrated their marriage plans were finally overcome on Feb. 22, and Leslie Lloyd Ogilvie and Gwynfa Ruth Thomas were married at Fort Sheridan, it was learned yesterday. The two met at Northwestern university, where they were both students two years ago.

They announced their engagement after a short courtship, but Miss Thomas' parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. Morrison Thomas of 1728 Montrose avenue, objected so vigorously, it was said, that the wedding was postponed. Then Ogilvie's parents, who live at Kankakee, brought pressure, and alternately the couple's plans were thwarted until Ogilvie finally found Miss Thomas in Detroit, where her parents had sent her to live, and eloped to Fort Sheridan with her. He has left the university and is now an advertising salesman in Cihcago.

PHONE OPERATOR SAVES WOMAN FROM GAS DEATH

Mrs. Lillian Peacock, 50, of 4029 Melrose street, whose life was saved early yesterday morning when a telephone operator heard her fainting gasp over the wires, was fully recovered last night from the effects of gas which escaped from her cook stove.

Miss Agnes Pawlowski, 4828 School street, an operator at the Kildare exchange, received a signal from the Peacock home, was given no number, but heard a gasp. She called the police, who broke in and found Mrs. Peacock unconscious. A pulmotor squad revived her.

Mrs. Peacock said later she believed she had caught her apron on a handle of the stove and turned on the gas. A lotion she used in her nose had prevented her from smelling the gas, she said.

REWARD YOUTH WHO SAVED BUSH FROM DROWNING

Alvin Ott, the youth who rescued William L. Bush, former head of the Bush & Gertz Piano company, from the river near Clark street last Monday night, was presented with a gold watch yesterday for his heroism and was also promised immediate aid in his long search for employment.

Friends gathered at the Wilson avenue Y. M. C. A. yesterday noon to watch members of the Ravenswood Kiwanis club present Ott with the watch. W. Y. Brownlee, president of the club, said that the members are determined to find a suitable position immediately for the high school graduate.

Here's the greatest improvement ever made in writing instruments

You can't begin to appreciate how great the improvement really is until you have actually tried, on your own desk, the Sheaffer fountain pen desk set. Other desk sets are only imitations. Sturdy, fixed sockets hold the gracefully tapering pens, always ready, at an easy angle, for the writing hand to grasp. And the pens, specially designed for desk set use, are the famous Lifetimes°—the pens that are made so well that they can be unconditionally guaranteed by the maker for a lifetime. This means that there can be no repair costs whatever for the owner. Get the original. Do not be satisfied with imitations.

Want to Pay a Gas Tax?

IF a gas tax law is passed in Illinois, you will be forced to pay a tax on every gallon of gasoline you buy. Tell your State Senator and Representatives that you are opposed to a gas tax law for Illinois.

The forces lined up in favor of the tax are strong; and a gas tax will surely pass if motorists do not unite in their opposition to this unfair and unnecessary tax.

The Chicago Motor Club is opposed to a gas tax. Thousands of motorists have signed petitions protesting against the enactment of such a law.

U. S. SEEKS MORE INDICTMENTS IN LAND FRAUD QUIZ

Charges Two Promoters' Friends Aided Sales.

Friends and friendship proved the greatest aid in helping Henry J. Froelich and Joseph DeVore sell about 100,000 acres of imaginary holdings in Colombia to more than 1,000 persons in Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, it was revealed yesterday as federal investigators continued their inquiry into the $1,500,000 promotion scheme conducted by the pair.

The sale of several tracts of land to a few close friends of the two promoters started the ball rolling, it was said, and these purchasers passed the good word and opportunity along to their hundreds of friends.

Promises of wealth to be gleaned from the investment of only $100 were made to the buyers, it was charged. These were told, they said, that the land they could buy was literaly saturated with oil, jewels and minerals. When some of them purchased last September and October they were promised Christmas gifts of new houses and clothing, the investigators were told.

U. S. to Ask More True Bills.

The government declares that the Colombian Utopia does not exist, at least, not in the names of Froelich and DeVore, and six more true bills will be asked against some of these men's friends by United States prosecutors who charge the mails were used illegally in the selling campaign. Postal Inspector Frank H. Davis, Assistant United States District Attorney Edward J. Hess and other officials said they hoped to bring speedy action in the case.

Yesterday they were seeking the list of those whom they classified as victims and last night had obtained the names of about forty, many of whom will be served with grand jury subpenas to tell their stories. Some difficulty confronted the investigators, however, since several buyers hesitated to admit their investments and name the friends whose influence had caused them to make the purchases.

Bought Through Kin, Woman Says.

Mrs. Luella Hemingway of 1027 Clarence avenue, Oak Park, who followed the lead of her husband, George J. Hemingway, and bought 40 acres at $3 an acre, said their purchases were made through a relative.

"We took a chance and lost," she said. "We borrowed the money, but it was not much. We naturally had confidence in our relative who apparently had been misled. But until the authorities insist, we will not reveal his name."

Mrs. Harry A. Patterson of 321 Iowa street, Joliet, said her husband bought 20 acres at $5 an acre because a physician whom they knew well had purchased. "But it was our first like venture," she said, "and we kissed the money good-by when he invested."

Several women who were questioned expressed surprise and even denied that purchases had been made. Several others admitted their husbands were in the habit of making "foolish investments without telling even their wives," and said they didn't know anything about the present case, according to the investigators.

A partial list of the victims was revealed at the federal building yesterday. It included Milton H. George, Joliet, 35 acres; George L. Glasgow, Plainfield, 35 acres; Grace Curtis Long, Cincinnati, 20 acres; D. C. Hager, Aurora, 40 acres; C. E. Hubertz, Joliet, 40 acres; Mrs. E. Uber, Naperville, 40 acres; Clara O. Connell, Joliet, 25 acres; Lillian Searles, Joliet, 35 acres; Mrs. W. L. Ferrick, Joliet, 10 acres; Henry C. Stewart, Joliet, 15 acres; the Rev. George F. Courrier, Plainfield, 25 acres; Mrs. Charles Cutting Sr., Joliet, 20 acres; Harry Patterson, Joliet, 20 acres; Emily Bryon, Joliet, 20 acres; George L. Wood, Aurora, 10 acres; W. W. Staley, Aurora, 40 acres; Nick Hossbach, Frankfort, 35 acres; George E. Barron, Plainfield, 25 acres; S. E. Johnson, Joliet, 120 acres; Arthur O. Nelson, Joliet, 50 acres; Axel Eckman, Joliet, 50 acres; W. J. George, Plainfield, 50 acres; Mrs. Laura Rott, Joliet, 50 acres; Albion Delander, Joliet, 10 acres; George Fisher, Joliet, 50 acres; Glen W. Folkers, Plainfield, 35 acres; R. Glasgow, Plainfield, 25 acres; Theresa Ford, Elwood, 10 acres; Raymond C. Morgan, Elwood, 50 acres; J. C. Powell, Joliet, 200 acres; E. J. Sellenbach, Joliet, 20 acres; Henry F. Eggers, Joliet, 440 acres; George W. Busch, Joliet, 50 acres; Martin Johnson, Joliet, 50 acres; George A. E. Baron, Joliet, 100 acres; Martha K. Woods, Aurora, 20 acres, and Walter W. Henke, Cincinnati, 10 acres.

While this list is only the first of those to be revealed, it comprises the majority of those near Chicago who bought the alleged imaginary land at prices ranging from $3 to $10 an acre, postal authorities said.

CHARGES MEXICO WITH $2,000,000 PROPAGANDA POT

Gallivan Calls Campaign in U. S. Damnable.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—More fuel was added to the inflammable Mexican situation today with the publication of charges that $2,000,000 is being expended by the Mexican government in the "most damnable anti-American propaganda campaign in this country since Bernstorff was handed his passports during the world war."

The accusations were made by Representative James A. Gallivan [Dem., Mass.] in an extension of his remarks on "Our Policy in Mexico," which appeared in today's postponed issue of the Congressional Record. The attack, vitriolic in nature and unrestrained in language, was marked by a sweeping indorsement of the Mexican policy of President Coolidge and a bitter arraignment of American citizens who criticize the administration's Mexican policy.

State Department Silent.

Mr. Gallivan's charges failed to win a response from the state department tonight, but they aroused new interest in the reports that propagandist activities were responsible for the return to Mexico City of Manuel Tellez, the Mexican ambassador to this country.

"Upon my responsibility as a member of this house," Representative Gallivan stated in beginning his attack, "I charge that the Mexican government, through its ambassador at Washington, and Arturo Elias, its consul general at New York City, has expended almost $2,000,000 for the purpose of discrediting the President of the United States and Secretary of State Kellogg.

"I charge that they have subsidized preachers, professors, and hack writers to attack the President of the United States."

Borah Defends His Action.

Responding for the first time to the criticism directed at his head for obtaining information concerning the oil laws directly from President Calles of Mexico, Senator Borah [Rep., Idaho] today defended his action in a letter to the Association of Producers of Petroleum in Mexico.

He asserted that this "hypocritical cry of criticism that would prevent one who is in a place where he must act upon important matters from gathering information from whatever source he may is but an expression of that agency which comes from a fear of the facts."

"I have no desire in the world to see the oil companies or interests deprived of their legitimate rights or to see their legitimate intcerets unprotected," Senator Borah said, "but I utterly disagree with the policy which would seek that protection by a break with Mexico."

Suicide in Hotel Tragedy Is Laid to Despondency

John Rich, manager of the Rich hotel at 1648 Lunt avenue, committed suicide while despondent over the fact that two guests had been poisoned by gas used in fumigating an apartment, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury yesterday. A verdict of accidental death was returned in the cases of Mrs. Nettie Reneau and her 18 month old son, Francis, the gas victims.

FAHERTY SAYS DELAY IN EXPERTS' BILLS WAS TO FOOL ALDERMEN

Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements under the William Hale Thompson administration, admitted yesterday some undercover operations in connection with the $1,000,000 paid to real estate experts in 1921. He was cross-examined before Circuit Judge Hugo M. Friend at the trial of THE TRIBUNE's suit to recover for the city of Chicago alleged exorbitant fees from the experts.

Attorney Weymouth Kirkland, representing the complainant, forced the witness to admit that the money paid out of city funds for expert fees was not brought to the attention of the finance committee until an investigation started some time later revealed that that amount had been paid.

Faherty also revealed that bills amounting to $191,000 for the work done on Ogden avenue, which was finished in the summer of 1919, were not turned in to be paid until 1920. The reason for this, the witness said, was that he was afraid no more appropriations would be made when the size of the bills was noted.

Attorney Kirkland sought to bring out from the witness that the experts, in addition to the 1 per cent they received of the value of the property they appraised, also were assured $50 a day for their testimony in court.

Faherty said he expected the experts to testify as well as do appraisal work, but would make no definite statement as to the fees they were to receive.

CAPTURE ESCAPED CONVICT.

Jack Spratlin, 26, an escaped convict from Atlanta, Ga., was arrested by three detectives yesterday at Market and Madison streets.

GOFF QUITS REED COMMITTEE ON ELECTION SLUSH

Senator McNary Denies He Will Resign.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—One of the two regular Republican members of the Reed slush fund investigating committee—Senator Guy D. Goff, [Rep., W. Va.]—has resigned his place on the committee, pleading ill health and the necessity for a long vacation, it became known today.

At the same time, early reports that the other "regular," Senator Charles L. McNary [Rep., Ore.], would resign in a day or two were emphatically denied by the senator himself, who declared that "desertion of the committee in its present difficulties would be cowardly and unsportsmanlike."

The reports had it that the Reed committee, already hampered by the refusal of funds to continue its activities during the summer recess, was to be further embarrassed and its future activities discredited by the withdrawal of the "regular" Republican members, which should subject the committee to the charge that it was a "Democratic insurgent Republican" group.

Plans Trip to Australia.

Senator Goff, it was learned, submitted his resignation to Vice President Dawes last Monday, just before the later left for a vacation trip to Florida, Cuba and Panama. The senator, it is understood, is planning a voyage to Australia and New Zealand as a means of recovering his health.

"I thought of resigning from the committee some months ago when it became apparent that the fight for farm legislation would occupy much of my time," declared Senator McNary. "But I was persuaded to continue, and although any work the committee may undertake this summer will mean a hardship to me in the way of travel, I certainly will not resign now that the committee is under fire. I have never deserted a cause when I thought it was a righteous cause, and I shall not now."

Meanwhile, Senator Keyes [Rep., N. H.], chairman of th senate committee on audit and control, continued in his refusal to approve an advance of $1,000 from the contingent fund of the senate to pay the expenses of the sergeant at arms in securing the ballots of Pennsylvania counties which are under scrutiny by the Reed committee in the Vare-Wilson election contest.

Holds Committe Expired.

As a last resort the sergeant at arms appealed to Edwin A. Thayer, secretary of the senate, to advance the money out of the special fund set aside for emergencies—to pay the funeral expenses of senators who die during a recess—and was again refused. Senator Keyes based his refusal on the ground that the Reed committee expired with the congress on March 4.

"The resolution which authorized the Reed committee to investigate expenditures in primary campaigns," contended Senator Borah [Rep., Idaho], "did not limit the authority of the committee as to time, and did not end its authority with the termination of the session. The committee has not completed its work, has not been discharged, has made no final report, and the senate has not recalled nor limited its authority."

Mother! Now You Know How To Help Your Puny, Weak Child

It's Your Duty to Aid Him to Grow Strong, Active and Sound in Body and Mind.

That little boy or girl of yours—that doesn't weigh enough — that itsn't strong—has no appetite—lacks vigor and is perhaps backward, listless and timid.

What are you going to do with him?

Have you ever heard of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—sugar coated and as easy for ailing children to take as candy?

Every druggist in America sells them—60 tablets, 60 cents—and the supremely good combination of upbuilding agents surely does help the sickly, run down, puny, frail little ones.

No need to give him any more nasty Cod Liver Oil — McCoy's Tablets, rich in vitamins, are made to take the place of that good but evil smelling, stomach upsetting medicine, and they surely do.

Try them as directed for 30 days, mother, and if at the end of that time you are not delighted with the improvement in your dear little one, get your money back.

You can get them at your druggist and remember, too, they are fine for thin, run down, underweight men and women who need more flesh, strength, vigor and vitality. Demand McCoy's — the original and genuine.

FOUR WOODFORD COUNTY VOTES GO TO SCHOLES

Small's Road Promises Sway Committee.

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Peoria, Ill., March 10.—[Special.]—Meeting at Eureka, eighteen miles from here, the Woodford county Republican committee reached out today for badly needed concrete roads by indorsing Gov. Small's candidate for the Supreme court, Robert Scholes, speaker of the lower house of the general assembly.

But the committee performed in a desultory manner. Its members knew that the real decision between Scholes and Justice Clyde E. Stone, whom the governor is trying to defeat because of his vote on the $1,000,000 decision against the executive, will come at the Henry county convention on Saturday. What Woodford county did with its four delegates didn't cut much figure.

Strings Tied to Promises.

And they began to perceive that apparently there are strings tied to most of Small's promises of both roads and jobs. It became known that his representatives have said many of the roads promised in this district will not be built unless a gas tax law is passed.

Seemingly for the sole purpose of being recorded as on the job, although they really accomplished nothing, there were four Peorians on hand at Eureka. First of all there was Attorney David Conigisky, who was as badly defeated as Small's leader in the Peoria convention. Then there was Shirley West, who lost his job as chief of police when one of several stolen automobiles discovered in Peoria was found in his possession and licensed in his name.

In addition, there was George Knoll, who told fellow Peorians about a month ago that he had been promised a $4,250 job on the governor's pay roll. And there was a fourth man, William Pinckney, said to have been promised "something better" than he has. So far as is known, none of the four has actually gone to work, except on politics.

Chances Grow Slimmer.

Apparently their rewards are contingent upon the actual nomination of Scholes, the chances for which are reported growing slimmer every day. And in the same way the many miles of hard roads the governor has said he would like to build for well behaved counties are said to be entirely dependent upon the imposition of a gasoline tax, the prospects of which are growing less and less, according to members of the legislature.

The addition of Woodford's four votes gives a total of only twenty-four that are instructed for Scholes. The one delegate from Putnam county was uninstructed, but is said to be for Scholes. That gives him—or Small—a total of twenty-five; but thirty-seven are needed to carry out the Small plan to oust the regularly chosen delegates from Peoria county when the district convention meets next Tuesday. Henry county has thirteen votes.

BUREAU EXPECTS TO BEGIN MAKING LOANS TO VETS ON APRIL 1

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, informed President Coolidge today that he expects to commence making loans to veterans on their adjusted compensation certificates beginning April 1. Despite the failure of the deficiency bill carrying $25,000,000 for financing loans to veterans, Gen. Hines said that he would have about $5,000,000 available for loans.

Do you know the value of TREES?

IN YEARS past the people, as a whole, gave but little thought to the destruction and waste of our forest resources, feeling secure in the belief that there was an abundance for all time to come. This state of mind was, and is, due to a lack of knowledge regarding the true worth of Trees and our utter dependence upon them in the sustenance of human life. The demands of a steadily increasing population upon our forests and their by-products have mounted to proportions far in excess of natural growth and maturity, and the thought uppermost in the minds of those who are in close touch with the situation is to devise methods of creating an interest in Forestry so that it will become a topic of conversation in every home.

Did you ever stop to consider that every Telegraph and Telephone pole represents a single Tree, and that 5,000,000 Trees are cut annually to supply these two commodities? Cedar is particularly adapted for use as poles, as it is strong and slow to decay. Chestnut, Oak and Cypress are also suitable in some localities. The Eastern supply of Cedar is rapidly diminishing and thousands of Cedar poles are now being shipped from Idaho to supply the Eastern demand, but the question still remains, how long will the Idaho Forests last?

There are in America today millions of people who know practically nothing of our Forest resources and the fact that they enter into our daily cost of living and form an important part in the industrial prosperity of the nation. That Trees affect the climate of hills, valleys and plains, and play an important part in regulating the flow of streams, reducing to a great extent the severity of floods that often devastate large tracts of tillable land, is a mystery in which they evince but little interest. To find the most plausible way of educating the people as to the importance of conservation, is a gigantic task, the problems of which are legion.

The youth of today is the nation's hope of tomorrow, and to awaken THAT interest to the meaning of conservation aside from dull study is the first important step, and when the student mind responds to the joy and happiness that lies in the companionship of Trees, the fight will be easily won. The time to begin is NOW, and if one is not familiar with the characteristics of different Trees, start today by taking note of the Trees with which you may come in contact, observe their form and stature, examine their leaves, take note of the markings in their bark, and in a very short time you will find yourself a Tree enthusiast.

Beginning next Monday, March 14th, and continuing for 48 days, we will wrap with each loaf of Schulze's Butter-Nut Bread one of 48 Native American Tree Pictures. Be sure that you get the first picture next Monday and continue each day until you have collected the entire series. Then bring them or send them to our bakery at 40 East Garfield Blvd., or 2858 West Harrison Street, or 1435 Webster Avenue and we will give you or send to you a Beautiful Tree Album containing all of the 48 Native American Tree Pictures with an interesting description of each. This Album carries no advertising and will make a valuable addition to your home library.

ANDREWS STAYS AS ACTIVE HEAD OF DRY FORCES

New Commissioner Will Work Under Him.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Determination of major prohibition enforcement policies will remain in the hands of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lincoln C. Andrews, it was indicated today by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in discussing plans for placing in effect the new prohibition reorganization act.

The new prohibition commissioner, yet to be appointed, will be in charge of the prohibition bureau, but will exercise only such authority as is delegated to him by Secretary Mellon. It was made plain by Secretary Mellon that it is not intended to give the new prohibition commissioner such broad powers as might have been the case if the new law had vested authority in the enforcement of the Volstead act directly in the commissioner.

Andrews to Act for Mellon.

This means, in effect, that Assistant Secretary Andrews, acting for the secretary of the treasury, will be in charge of prohibition enforcement, as has been the case in recent months with the commissioner of prohibition, acting as an administrative officer to carry out the Andrews' policies.

Secretary Mellon is being bombarded with communications for and against various candidates for the appointment as commissioner of prohibition. Under the law this appointment is to be made by the secretary of the treasury and not by the President, as is the case with most bureau officials.

Mentioned for Position.

Those mentioned for the position include Roy Haynes, who has continued to hold the position of prohibition commissioner ever since Mr. Andrews supplanted him as the real head of the enforcement organization and E. C. Yellowley, administrator of the Chicago district.

Attacker of Girl, 22, Gets 3 Years in State's Prison

Bernard Bogus, 24, of 935 West 35th street, was found guilty yesterday of attacking a 22 year old girl. A jury in Judge Phillip L. Sullivan's Criminal court fixed his punishment at three years in the penitentiary.

INDICT FORMER JUDGE STELK ON FRAUD CHARGES

John Stelk, former Municipal court judge, who was arrested last Monday when discovered in an alleged fraudulent scheme to obtain possession of 5,000 parcels of real estate in Cook county, was named in four indictments voted by the grand jury yesterday. In three of the indictments Stelk is named alone on charges of counterfeiting and forging notarial seals and deeds, and in the fourth he is made a joint defendant with Mrs. Amelia Clayton, his private secretary, and Mrs. Bertha Kroyman.

Mrs. Kroyman, a divorcée and former client of Stelk, was brought into the case when the former judge charged that he paid her about $100 to sign many of the fictitious deeds. She admits, however, signing only one such document. Mrs. Kroyman and Mrs. Clayton are charged with conspiracy and held in $5,000 bonds each, while Stelk is held in $20,000 bond.

GIRL, 16, MISSING TWO DAYS. Marie Foster, 16 years old, 723 North Sawyer avenue, has been missing since Wednesday evening, when she left home supposedly to visit friends. The police have been asked to search for her.

Woman Clerk Cleared of Charges Made by a Wife

Mrs. Gertrude Thompson of 618 South Hermitage avenue, a clerk at the Juvenile Detention home, was acquitted before Municipal Judge Frank M. Padden yesterday of undue friendliness with John Danko. On Feb. 28 Mrs. Anna Danko, estranged wife of John, led a raid on the apartment of Mrs. Thompson. Testimony showed that Danko was a roomer in the flat and that there was nothing improper in their relations. Mrs. Thompson fainted in the courtroom.

Italy O. K.'s Treaty Giving Roumania Bessarabia

ROME, March 10.—(AP)—Ratification of the treaty recognizing the annexation of the former Russian province of Bessarabia to Roumania was approved by the Italian chamber of deputies today by a vote of 200 to 1. Deputy Torre said delay in ratification had been caused "only by Italy's attempt to change the soviets' obstinate refusal to abandon czarist imperialism in desiring to keep territory which was not rightfully theirs."

BUNDESEN ORDERS LABELS ON DRUGS IN ALL HOSPITALS

Bottles of boric acid and all poisons used in hospitals hereafter must be labeled and kept separate from nonpoisonous fluids, under rules issued yesterday by Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen.

The commissioner's action was taken with view to preventing future tragedies like that at the Columbus hospital a week ago, when six babies died from a boric acid solution given by a nurse who mistook it for distilled water.

"All drugs and solutions used in hospitals must be prepared under the direction of a registered pharmacist or physicians and carefully labeled," the rules stated. "All medicines shall be administered only upon the written order of a physician except in extreme emergency."

A GLASER CRANDELL COMPANY· PURE FOOD PRODUCT

Unlike any plantfood you have ever known!
Odorless-clean-easy to apply

CLEAN!
Sown by hand
like grass seed
ODORLESS!

FOR more than 30 years we had used almost every suggested means to have a beautiful lawn and shrubbery, but without satisfactory results," says John E. Keene of Peoria, Ill.

"Last Spring, 1926, following the advice of our landscape gardener, we used Vigoro. For the first time we had a rich velvety green lawn and thriving shrubbery."

You can enjoy this same success —get quick, sure results

Vigoro, you will find, is not to be compared with any other plantfood you have ever known. Absolutely nothing unpleasant about it! No odor! No dust! So clean you can scatter it by hand or sift from your kitchen colander!

This ideal plantfood is the result of years of experiment by Swift & Company experts. It provides a concentrated, balanced ration throughout the season. Gives a quick, vigorous start—more velvety green grass, better flowers, crisp succulent vegetables.

Not at all costly!

You need only a small amount of Vigoro to have a flourishing lawn or luxuriant garden. A 100 lb. sack provides enough rich nourishment for a plot 50 x 50 to 50 x 100 feet! Only two to four lbs. for every hundred square feet!

Your nearest Vigoro dealer can tell you more about this wonderful plantfood—will gladly answer any questions. Full directions for applying, in "The Home Beautiful" booklet in every bag.

Well put up in paper lined, cotton bags—convenient 100, 50 and 25 lb. sizes for economical application. Also tins of 5 lb. size. Today, at your dealer's!

TOTAL JAPANESE DEAD IN QUAKE MOUNTS TO 2,485

American Y.W.C.A. Girls Reported All Safe.

TOKIO, March 10.—[U. P.]—Additional deaths from fire, floods, and exposure during Monday's earthquake were reported today, indicating that the final complete accounting upon the disaster which spread destruction and suffering in central Japan would swell the death list close to 3,000.

Official reports at 4:20 p. m. today said that in the four northernmost subprefectures of Kyoto prefecture, where the earthquake was the most severe, there had been 2,459 deaths.

The combined death list numbered 2,485.

Storm Harries Refugees.

OSAKA, Japan, March 11.—(AP)—A terrific gale was sweeping central Japan early today, demolishing many refugee shelters in the Tango earthquake district and adding to the misery of the thousands of homeless in the devastated region. The storm started last night.

American Girls Safe.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—A two word cablegram today set at rest the fears of relatives and friends of 16 young American women in Japan.

"All safe," read the cable, which was sent by the National Committee of the Young Women's Christian association in Tokyo to the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. here.

Of the American Y. W. C. A. workers the following are stationed in Kobe, Kyoto and Osaka, all which were shaken in the quake: Miss E. Roberta Anderson, Madrid, Ia.; Miss Clare Armstrong of Kane, Pa.; Miss Blanche Best of Kansas City; Miss Mary Page of Berkeley, Cal.; and Miss Ruth Ragan of Denver, Col.

In Yokohama are Miss Carolyn Allen of Milwauke, Wis.; and Miss Hazel Verry of Farmington, Ill.

INVITE COOLIDGE TO BIG CALUMET JUNE CEREMONY

A delegation of eighty-three industrial and civic leaders of the Calumet steel district will arrive in Washington this morning to extend a personal invitation to President Coolidge to attend the dedication exercises of Lake County (Indiana) Memorial park. The President has indicated he will accept the invitation, and it is expected a date for the celebration will be arranged while the delegation is in Washington.

In the party are the mayors of seven cities and a number of officials of the various chambers of commerce of the Calumet region. Dr. H. E. Sharrer of Hammond heads the party and the mayors include R. A. Hale, East Chicago; A. E. Tinkham, Hammond; Floyd Williams, Gary; Ed Glover, Crown Point; John Jaranowski, Calumet City, and John Kroocswyck, Highlands.

Dr. Sharrer said that the celebration date would perhaps be set for some time in June.

INTRICATE HIDING PLAN REVEALED IN BOOZE RAID

Prohibition agents uncovered what they termed the most intricate efforts to hide any signs of liquor violation when they seized two stills and a quantity of mash and liquor in a three story building at 5761 Lake Park avenue yesterday.

Raiders on entering the second floor of the building found one still of 100 gallon capacity and another still of fifty gallon capacity. Barrels holding 4,500 gallons of mash and fifty gallons of alcohol were found placed in washtubs. This was done, the agents said, to prevent any of the liquid from seeping through the floors on the tenants downstairs. George Curtis was arrested by the agents.

At 3627 La Salle street agents seized a still and 1,500 gallons of mash.

STAB WOUNDS PROVE FATAL.

Edward Pucker, colored, 21 years old, 209 East 46th street, who was stabbed Feb. 22 by an unidentified Negro when they quarreled over a dice game in his home, died yesterday afternoon in the county hospital.

Crepe de chine—georgette—crepe roma—flat crepe—smooth, rich fabrics developed in a galaxy of individual new styles. Simplicity, good taste, and economy are all in these frocks that express the colorful dash of the new season.

The colors include all those most in demand, as well as clever developments in black, navy, and printed effects.

You will immediately recognize the skilled workmanship that predominates in such fashion points as: the bolero softly draped fullness—geometric stitching or tucking—variations of the pleated mode, and many others.

Elmer Enjoys Cadman Songs; W-G-N Features

And Finds Other Programs to Commend.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

One of the programs not heretofore mentioned in this column is the daily organ recital, WJAZ, 6:30. This is a bit different, due to the fact that a reproducing pipe organ is used, the selections being roll recordings by great organists of the country. Annoucements of the selections always include the statement, "as played by." This program may be summed up as a bit dry, but for various reasons, musically interesting and effective.

Cadman's song cycle, "The Morning of the Year," by WJZ's studio mixed quartet and string trio, through KYW, 7:30 to 8, was, as always, of consequence. The work is not unfamiliar to the radio audience, nor is it over familiar. Besides, the tone coloring and the general nature of the work enables it to stand the test of many repetitions.

The Whitney trio, with Haydn's "Trio in G major" WMAQ, 8:35, seemed more at home than in most any of the many things they have presented.

Turning to WJJD, 8:50, the Mooseheart children's band orchestra was heard. Some day some of these children may be famous soloists.

Dialing, now, to a musical and technically finished artist—Belle Forbes Cutter, soprano, WEBH, 9 to 9:30. Instantly one is aware of hearing a singer who knows her own voice, knows her songs to the last detail, and who knows the microphone.

Perhaps either many or most listeners would say that the New York program through W-G-N, 9 to 10, was the evening's best musical program. An orchestra and a vocal quartet furnished the bulk of the entertainment. However, the purely entertainment treat was a truumpet solo (I forget the title). For technical brilliance and virtuoso trumpet execution this was a thriller. A viola solo, "Songs My Mother Taught Me" (Dvorak), was an interesting musical study. This plaintive song was peculiarly appropriate for the richly toned and plaintive viola.

Tonight: Feodor Chaliapin, basso; Harold Bauer, pianist, and the Flonzaley string quartet, WJZ-KYW, 8 to 9.

L. L. SUMMERS, NOTED CHICAGO ENGINEER, DEAD

New York, March 10.—[Special.]—Leland Laflin Summers of New York and Chicago, head of a firm of consulting engineers bearing his name, died early today at his home at Whitestone, L. I., after an illness of about a week. He was 56 years old last Sunday.

He was a munitions expert and during the war discharged duties of great importance. He was a member of the war industries board in Washington during 1917 and technical adviser to it as well as chairman of the war industries board in Europe later. He was technical adviser to the American commission to negotiate peace in Paris during 1917 and 1918, and was the American member of the interallied munitions council.

Mr. Summers was born in Cleveland on March 6, 1871. He was educated in the high school of Highland Park, Ill. In 1899 he married Eve H. Brodlique in Chicago. She survives him, as does a son, Llewellyn L. B. Summers.

A. H. Childs, Stationer, Taken by Death at 65

Albert H. Childs, president of S. D. Childs & Co., stationers and printers at 136 South Clark street, died at the Evanston hospital yesterday of pneumonia and heart disease. Mr. Childs, who was 65 years old and resided at 1563 Oak avenue, Evanston, was a native of Chicago. He had been connected with the stationery company founded by his father since 1878. He was for several years treasurer of the National Association of Stationers. A widow and one daughter survive. Funeral services will be held in Rosehill cemetery chapel tomorrow at 2:30 p. m.

PATRICK M. FOLEY, who came to Chicago from County Clare, Ireland, 58 years ago, will be buried tomorrow in Calvary cemetery. Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a. m. from the residence, 1425 Carmen avenue, to St. Ita's church. Mr. Foley died yesterday at the age of 83. For years he conducted a business in Elston avenue between North and Wabansia avenues. He is survived by three daughters.

THE REV. HERMAN J. FUHRMANN died on Wednesday at his residence, 1630 Dayton street. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. in St. James' Lutheran church, Fremont street and Garfield avenue. Burial will be in St. Lucas cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Fuhrmann retired from the pulpit five years ago. Three daughters survive him.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: The Oracle That Failed

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Friday, March 11.)

(Standard Time Throughout.)

SELECTIONS from light operas and operettas will feature the half hour program to be heard at 8 o'clock tonight over W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE station on the Drake hotel. This half hour program by National Concert artists and brought each Friday night from New York will be presented tonight by the National Light Opera quartet. The members of the organization are Adele Parkhurst, soprano; Frances Paperte, contralto; George O'Brien, tenor, and Jack Oakley, basso.

The Salernos, in a type of program familiar to radio listeners, will come on the air at 8:30 o'clock with a half hour musical program, and will be followed by the Anglo-Persians.

Variety will be the keynote of the Anglo-Persian musical program night. From "The Call of the Desert" to the "Parting Melody," each number will be so entertainingly different from the others that, no matter what one's taste in music may be somewhere in the program a number will be found to strike the fancy and mood. A romantic oriental melody, a familiar waltz, a musical comedy, an intermezzo, a gypsy air, all will be offered.

Following the Anglo-Persians there will be heard the entrancing melodies of the Phantom Violin in its Friday night visit.

WLIB PROGRAM

A novel arrangement of "A Hunting Scene" will be played by Goldman's band in the hour program beginning at 7 o'clock tonight over WLIB, the Liberty Weekly station on the Drake hotel. This composition by Bucalossi with the arrangement made by Edwin Franko Goldman has been popular for many years. It depicts the preparation for and the actual progress of the hunt and brings in the singing of birds, the crowing of roosters, chimes, hunters' horns, the galloping of horses, barking dogs, the chase, firing of guns and the return home. The first selection of the evening will be "The March of the Peers," from Sir Arthur Sullivan's "Iolanthe," which is said to contain some of the best music which Sullivan ever wrote. Among other numbers will be "Egmont"; "Pan-American," by Victor Herbert; "Kiss Me Again," by Herbert; introduction to act three and bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin," and excerpts from "Pianfore."

BENJ. F. O'CONNOR, VETERAN CHICAGO FIREFIGHTER, DIES

Battalion Chief Benjamin F. O'Connor, Chicago's second oldest fire fighter, affectionately known among his friends as "Little Bennie" because of his small stature, died yesterday at Alexian Brothers hospital after an operation and thirteen weeks of illness. He was 65 and had been a member of the Chicago Fire department for 43 years.

He was chief of the 13th battalion with headquarters at Sheffield avenue and Diversey boulevard. A long list of honorable mentions follow his name in the record books of the department. For 34 years he was stationed in the loop, and for 19 of them was assigned to Truck Company 3, one of Chicago's most active companies. He was one of the first to reach the Iroquois theater following the alarm. He saved many a life there as well as at the Eastland disaster.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 9:30 a. m. from the home, 2727 Leland avenue, to the Queen of Angels church, Sunnyside and Western avenues. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery. Chief O'Connor is survived by a widow Mary, two daughters, Mrs. Harry Koehl of Melrose Park, and Martha, and three sons, Benjamin Jr., a member of the fire department, William and James.

SWISS AGAIN TRY TO PULL RUSSIA INTO ARMS MEET

Note Sent to Chicherin; Britain's Hand Seen.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

GENEVA, March 10.—Switzerland will send another note to Moscow guaranteeing protection of soviet officials participating in any conference of the league here or elsewhere on Swiss soil in order to tempt the Reds again to partake of a disarmament parley.

Motts Haeberlein Schurer of the foreign relations committee and one of the leaders of the Swiss federal council, after consulting with the Swiss minister in Berlin, M. Rufenbach, drafted a note at Berne and forwarded it to M. Chicherin, soviet minister of foreign affairs, yesterday.

It is believed most of the bolshevik demands have been met, although the pensions for the daughters of M. Vorovsky, the soviet minister to Rome, who was assassinated at Lausanne during the Turkish treaty negotiations in 1922 by the cocaine crazed engineer, Conradi, who afterward was acquitted, have not yet been fixed.

Seen as British Move.

It is considered here that Swiss resumption of the pourparlers with Russia to participate in the arms conference is another maneuver of Great Britain against the Reds in retaliation for Moscow's intrusion in English affairs and the fomentation of the Cantonese uprising against the British.

If Russia's demands are met by Switzerland, it is said, Moscow must send delegates to accept the reduction of armaments. If it refuses to participate in the conference when the conditions are granted, it must stand the burden of the responsibility for the failure of the parley.

The French minister to Berne was the intermediary in the negotiations between Switzerland and Russia a year ago, which failed.

The German foreign secretary, Dr. Stresemann, today told the newspaper men at the conference that he intends to raise the question of allied evacuation of the Rhineland soon. He declined to state the precise date.

"Same Foreign Policy."

"Permanent peace in Germany and the world will never be achieved while 75,000 foreign troops occupy a large portion of our soil," Herr Stresemann said. He pointed out that the allied military occupation permits the reactionaries and the opposition press in Germany continually to foment trouble and to embarrass any government trying conciliatory tactics on its enemies.

"The new German government is not a junker government nor is it any further to the right than the former cabinet," Herr Stresemann insisted.

He accused the right newspapers of exaggerating the recent changes and the portent of the foreign relations.

"Our foreign policy remains unchanged," he said.

ITALY ARRESTS GERMAN PHOTOG FOR HIS PICTURES

Captions Written in Berlin Cause Offense.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

ROME, March 10.—The first application of the "Safety of State" law against a foreign journalist was made yesterday with the arrest at Nervi of a German photographer, Karl Delius. Herr Delius is accused of having photographed "imaginary details" of Italian life, particularly of conditions in the Sicilian sulphur mines for the "Berliner Illustriente Zeitung and other Berlin papers." A triple accusation is involved: injuring Italian national dignity, inciting class hatred and offending Mussolini.

Herr Delius is being held for trial before a special tribunal. According to Popolo Di Roma, the trial will begin tomorow in Genoa.

Promise of Government.

The action of the government in arresting Herr Delius came as a big surprise to the foreign newspaper men in view of the announcement of Minister of Justice Rocco at the time the "Safety of State" law was passed that Article 5 would not be applicable to foreigners.

When Herr Delius' home was searched by police they found numerous photographs, which proved to be copies of those appearing in the Berliner Illustriente and other German newspapers. Despite the intervention of the German consul at Genoa and the German ambassador here, Herr Delius was held.

Eyes on Photographers.

According to police, they have been watching the activities of photographers for some time. Many pictures have appeared in the German papers which, police say, falsely represented Italian life. Agents throughout Italy were notified. The commandant of the Genoa political police suspected Herr Delius and ordered a search of his quarters.

It appears one of the things which most displeased the government was the caption over the picture of the sulphur mines reading:

"Dictator Mussolini constructed a world of promises and trumpeted abroad his fight against the Mafia, but the peasants and sulphur miners continue to live under the worst conditions of their lives, and even have become more miserable under the Fascist dictatorship."

ARTIST POTTHAST FOUND DEAD IN NEW YORK STUDIO

New York, March 10.—[Special.]—Edward H. Potthast, well known as a portrait and landscape painter, died at his studio apartment this morning. The body was discovered by a maid. A physician said that death had likely been due to heart trouble.

Mr. Potthast, a member of the National academy, was born in Cincinnati, June 11, 1857. He was a pupil at the Cincinnati academy and later continued art education at Antwerp, Munich and Paris. He was a member of the Society of American Artists, the National Arts, the American Water Color society, the New York Water Color society, the Salmagundi club, the Lotos club, Allied American Artists, Cincinnati Art club and the Honorary Painters and Sculptors' Gallery association.

BRITAIN PLANS AIR ROUTES TO MOBILIZE EMPIRE

Labor Demands Abolition of Fighting Planes.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 10.—Sir Samuel Hoare, air minister, introducing the air service estimates in the house of commons this afternoon, announced that £930,000 ($4,650,000) will be used this year in establishing a regular air service from Egypt to Basra. He hopes shortly to extend the route from Egypt to Karachi as the first section of a complete air line to India.

Speaking on the use of air power for defense of the empire, Sir Samuel revealed that the British are building two new types of airships capable of carrying 200 fully armed men with a complete squadron of airplanes.

Britain's Air Plans.

Air strategy, he said, will be based on naval strategy, developing power and concentrating an overwhelming force on a threatened point. In order to do this great imperial air routes between the dominions must quickly be completed. The minister pointed out plans to use the imperial routes by concentrating big forces first in the British isles, second in the middle east and third in the far east, so each group may be quickly reinforced by another.

Labor was skeptical regarding the new air police. It introduced the slogan, "abolish fighting planes" in the subsequent debate. According to the labor-socialist spokesman, Lee Smith, plans for France's expansion in the air have been broken completely. But the British plans, when complete, the socialist spokesman feared, would only stimulate France to fresh exertions. He then referred to the coming disarmament conference under the league of nations.

"Abolish Fighting Planes."

"The labor party wishes the British government would go to that conference with bold, dramatic proposals, which, as the United States did in Washington, would capture the imagination of the world," he said. "The British government should stand for abolition of the fighting aeroplanes and accept limitations and reductions only as a step to that end."

He argued that civil commercial machines could be used for bombing and it was clear that limitation of military airplanes would not necessarily lead to any corresponding limitations of airplanes which could be utilized in war.

Bloodless Surgeon and Partner Sued for $900,000

Newark, N. J., March 10.—(AP)—Dr. Adolph Lorenz, Austrian bloodless surgeon, and Dr. Carl R. Keppler of Newark were named joint defendants in a $900,000 damage suit filed in Supreme court today by Herbert H. Yudkin, of this city. Yudkin charged he had been unable to make free use of his lower limbs since a bloodless operation in 1924. Dr. Keppler was the partner of Dr. Lorenz in a clinic here in 1924.

Grows New Hair on Thin Places

Costs you nothing if it fails

Your own dealer supplies guarantee in writing

New method revives dormant hair roots

HERE is new hair under written guarantee; falling hair completely stopped under guarantee. You are asked to take nobody's promise. You pay nothing if the Van Ess method fails. It is folly not to try it.

It does what no other method does or has ever done: Massages powerful root-rejuvenating and germ-combating elements directly into the follicles (roots) of the hair. It is protected under U.S. patent.

It cultivates a totally new growth of hair—lustrous, wonderful hair with the sheen of youth actually grown where now thinning—or you pay nothing. You just rub it on your head, morning or evening, for scarcely a minute.

In last two years, it has proved 70% effective, according to record, in some 200,000 cases of falling hair, semi-baldness and even total baldness. That means success followed in the great majority of cases. Consider what this means.

Why then go on fooling yourself with old-time tonics? This method proves the hair roots people used to believe were beyond recall are revivable.

Go to any drug store. Get the Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage. Written guarantee to grow new hair in 90 days, to stop falling hair completely, supplied by the dealer with full treatment. Costs the same as ordinary hair remedies.

WIFE DIVORCES E. HEMINGWAY, AUTHOR, IN PARIS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, March 10.—Ernest M. Hemingway, a figure in the Montparnasse literary set and author of "The Sun Also Rises," reputed to be a best seller in America, today was divorced by his wife on grounds of incompatability.

The couple were married on Sept. 3, 1921, at Hortons Bay, near Charlevoix, Mich., before Mr. Hemingway had come to literary prominence, first with short stories, then with "In Our Time" and "Torrents of Spring," and now with "The Sun Also Rises."

It is understood the separation was amicably arranged. Mrs. Hemingway is expected to return to America with their three year old boy, whose custody she won.

(Mr. Hemingway formerly lived in Oak Park. He is the son of Dr. E. C. Hemingway.)

RADIO BOSSES HOLD MEETING; READY FOR WORK

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Three of the five members of the new radio commission held an informal meeting today. They named E. O. Sykes of Mississippi, one of the two Democratic members, to act as chairman until Rear Admiral W. H. G. Bullard of Pennsylvania, designated as chairman by President Coolidge, arrives from China next month.

The first formal meeting of the commission will take place next Tuesday. At that time four of the five members will be present. Those on hand today besides Mr. Sykes were O. H. Caldwell of New York and H. H. Bellows of Minnesota. J. F. Dillon of California will arrive in time for Tuesday's meeting.

The three members already have conferred with S. B. Davis, solicitor for the department of commerce, who has been Secretary Hoover's right hand man in working out radio problems.

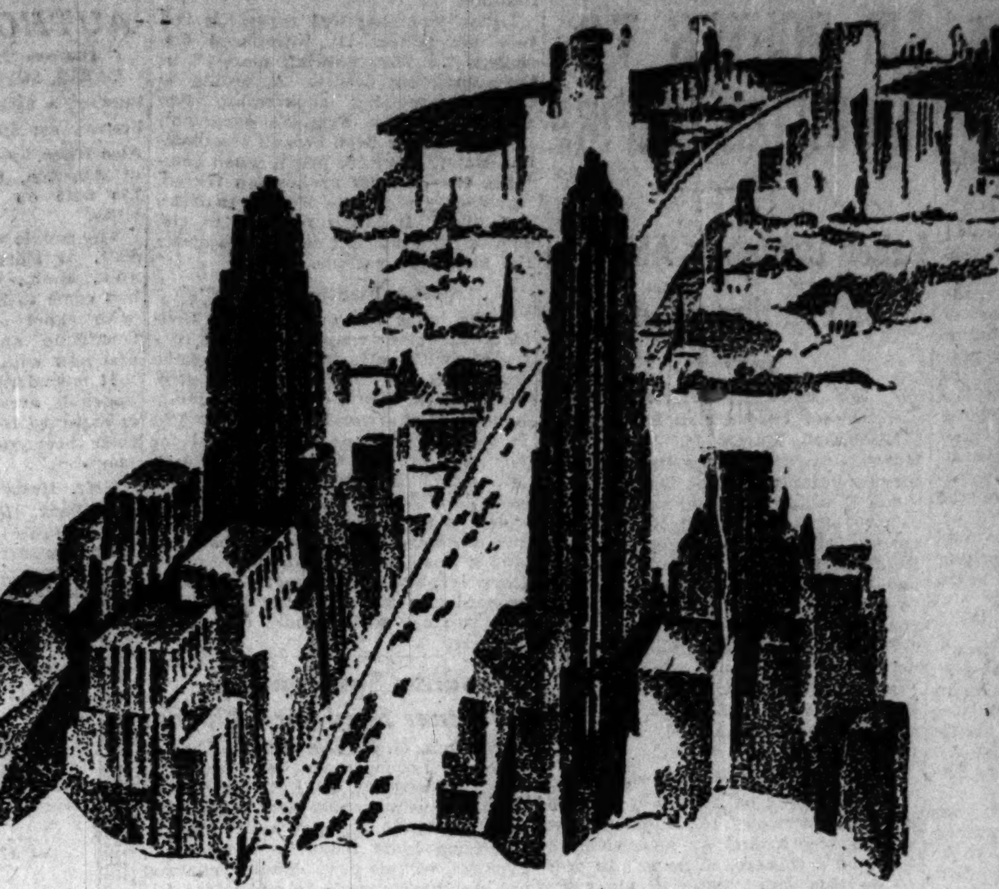
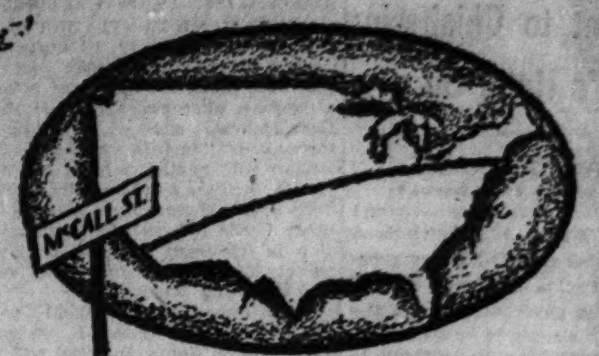
ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE

at the service of McCall Street . .





There are two sides of McCall Street—the well-known thoroughfare where the 2,140,000 readers of McCall's Magazine live. One is the Romantic side—the other, the Practical side. The former meets woman's desire to escape from herself and her surroundings . . . this is the Fiction side. The latter meets the practical side of her world that she must face daily—foods, clothes, home management, children, etc. This is the Service side of McCall's.

food authorities of national reputation

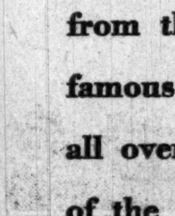
NO other magazine or institution is more thorough in its search to give the women of this country the latest and most approved information on food than is McCall's through the medium of the McCall Laboratory Kitchen.

In this famous laboratory kitchen—presided over by Sarah Field Splint, one of the nation's foremost authorities on food and household management—a distinguished staff of domestic science experts is constantly at work helping the women of McCall Street with their cooking, marketing and housekeeping problems. Here foods are analyzed, tested and cooked. Here intensive studies are made in marketing, home economics and dietetics. Here are developed alluring recipes for the women who seek to achieve distinctive dishes when they entertain.

Every month the results of these studies are published in McCall's Magazine, together with special articles by other noted authorities on food and nutrition. These articles are not confined to the preparation of food alone, but deal with the newest and smartest ways of serving it.

Each month there comes a special article from the pen of Dr. E. V. McCollum, that famous authority on nutrition who is known all over the world as one of the discoverers of the Fourth Vitamin. It is the lack of this vitamin which is responsible for faulty bone structure. Dr. McCollum has advanced the knowledge of food values more than any other American, and his rules of diet have been adopted by some tens of thousands of families on McCall Street.

The latest culinary chefs d'oeuvre of Europe are reported in McCall's by Day Monroe, an expert on foods and cookery, who is commissioned by McCall's to keep its readers posted on what the smart European hostess is serving.



SARAH FIELD SPLINT
Director McCall's Laboratory Kitchen

Of special help is the eminent specialist, Dr. Charles Gilmore Kerley of New York, who is recognized all over the United States as one of the foremost authorities on infant and child care. Each month Dr. Kerley renders incalculable service to the mothers on McCall Street through his advice on the proper care and feeding of babies and growing children.

Having all these sources of expert counsel, the women of McCall Street are able to plan menus particularly suited to the health requirements of their families, and to serve a great variety of dishes with that touch of originality which means so much to the modern hostess.

Those who have food products to sell will find McCall Street—the home of 2,140,000 interested families—a market well versed in the scientific aspects of food and cookery and especially open-minded to new suggestions. SIMONICH WHIPS LATZO IN 10 ROUNDS

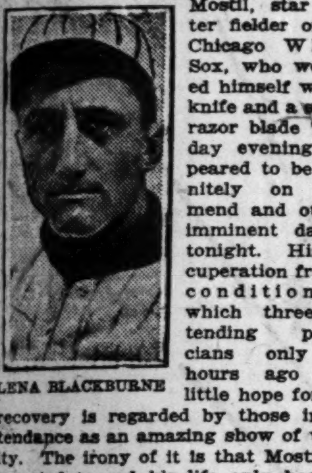
JOHNNY MOSTIL GAINS; OUT OF IMMINENT DANGER

SOX OUTFIELDER MAY COME HOME IN THREE WEEKS

Schalk Sends Men Through Game.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]



LENA BLACKBURNE

Shreveport, La., March 10.—After another day of improvement, Johnny Mostil, star center fielder of the Chicago White Sox, who wounded himself with a knife and a safety razor blade Tuesday evening, appeared to be definitely on the mend and out of imminent danger tonight. His recuperation from a condition in which three attending physicians only 48 hours ago had little hope for his recovery is regarded by those in attendance as an amazing show of vitality. The irony of it is that Mostil attempted to end his life only because he was convinced that he was a sick man, beyond hope of attaining robust health.

One of the more serious wounds was opened today and examined for signs of infection, but was found to be mending in a healthy manner and was dressed again. The other wounds will be opened tomorrow and redressed.

Brother Pays Him Visit.

Eddie Mostil, a brother, arrived from Whiting, Ind., this morning and was escorted to the hospital by Bill Barrett, Johnny's roommate. Johnny recognised his brother and became nervously excited as he inquired about his mother. He was remorseful for the worry he had caused her.

Johnny had solid food today for the first time. It is likely that he will be able to leave under proper convoy of friends and a nurse and return to his home for convalescence before the ball club breaks camp, three weeks hence.

The White Sox played themselves another short weight ball game today after they had been assured that Johnny Mostil was out of danger from his wounds and they won this one, 5 to 3, in seven innings. These games are becoming serious. They had a certified Texas league umpire in full lingerie behind the plate practicing for his summer mistakes and the pitchers cranked themselves with the official mid-summer windup before each serve.

Ump Carries Spare Masks.

The umpire's name is McIntosh McInnis and he can chew tobacco without removing his mask. He is very conscientious and attached himself to the White Sox for a period of spring training, although some of the athletes allege that a real umpire is able to call them wrong in season or out. McIntosh McInnis was given a locker in the club house and when he unpacked his equipment it was discovered that it consisted of several spare bird cages.

"How many masks does an umpire use in one summer in your league?" inquired Mr. Lena Blackburne, the coach.

"I generally buy them by the gross," said McIntosh McInnis, "some times along in July and August, the heat melts the wires and some times when the pitchers get throwing real swift, they bust them in on a man."

Well, in this ball game Homer Blankenship and Charlie Barnabe, the California pedestrian, who came in a week late and explained that he walked over just for the stroll, did the pitching for the winning team. Barnabe walks and throws left handed. The other team troubled Blankenship for three knocks in the first inning and three runs were scored.

Pegler Becomes Color Blind.

But in the second inning Blankenship's team made a couple of retaliatory hits, and by the intervention of a defensive error, tied the score. You can see how fluent it was.

In the third they scored another. In the fifth they scored again. That is, the Whites did. Blankenship's team was called the Whites because some of the players had on shirts and caps that used to be white. Some of the players on the other team had on shirts and caps that used to be white, too. They had just as much right to be called the whites. In fact, your correspondent thought they were the Whites, and there was a lot of confusion.

CUBS, HOLLYWOOD CLASH IN GAME ON COAST TODAY

Webb Only Recruit to Get Into Battle.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

EARL WEBB.

Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal., March 10.—[Special.]—With about ten days of rehearsing under their respective belts, McCarthy's Cub troupe is ready to go out and get the money. Their initial attempt along such lines will be made tomorrow at Wrigley field, Los Angeles, when the first of a three game exhibition series will be played for the benefit of those who care to spend a dollar to see what happens.

In tomorrow's battle the Hollywood Coast leaguers will be engaged and they are on the schedule for Sunday. On Saturday the Los Angeles champions will provide the attraction.

Before taking his gang away from the island this afternoon, McCarthy divulged some of the plans for the conflicts immediately ahead. He will start tomorrow with the same lineup used last season, except that Earl Webb, the rookie from Louisville, will be the left field occupant.

Picks His Pitchers.

Because his pitchers are not ready to stand much work, McCarthy is going to use at least three in every game scheduled for the week-end. Tomorrow it will be Brillheart, Roy, and Jones.

English, the Toledo short stopping sensation, is going to be given at least a few innings against Hollywood or Los Angeles. This will be done more with the idea of giving him exercise than of trying to find out whether he is as good as advance notices indicate.

Put in Two Hour Drill.

The sun was on the job again this morning, so the squad was able to pick up a couple hours' practice before leaving for the mainland. Both sets of infielders were given a chance to handle bounders and some of the pitchers were on the slab bearing down as best they could.

U. S. SWEEPS CHECKER SERIES WITH BRITISH

New York, March 10.—(AP)—A thirteen day international checker tournament ended tonight in a complete rout of a British team by American players, who closed with a total of 92 victories against 20 for their foreign foes. Draws were posted in 560 other contests.

WISCONSIN MAY GET FIELD HOUSE

Madison, Wis., March 10.—[Special.]—Plans for a field house for the University of Wisconsin were given impetus today when a bill was introduced in the Wisconsin state senate providing for a $300,000 appropriation to finance the project.

Chances for its passage are believed favorable. The measure was introduced by the senate committee on judiciary. The sum would provide the Badgers with a new physical education building.

JOSE CAPABLANCA INCREASES LEAD IN CHESS MEET

New York, March 10.—(AP)—José R. Capablanca of Havana increased his lead in the international chess masters' tournament here today by drawing with Frank J. Marshall while Aaron Nimzowitsch of Copenhagen, his closest rival, was losing an adjourned game to Dr. Alexander Alekhine of Paris.

Capablanca and Marshall agreed upon a draw after 60 moves, while Nimzowitsch resigned to Alekhine after the latter's 81st move. The standing:

	W.	L.
Capablanca	9½	3½
Nimzowitsch	7	5
Alekhine	7	5
Vidmar	5½	7½
Marshall	4½	7½
Spielmann	4½	8½

Lake View, Lane Divide Indoor Track Meets

Lake View and Lane Tech divided a track and field meet at Lake View gymnasium yesterday. The senior squad from Lake View marked up its fifth straight dual meet triumph of the season by winning, 56 to 24, while the Lane juniors were more successful, triumphing, 40 to 34. Seymour Lieberman of Lake View unofficially shattered the city high school mark for the high hurdles by negotiating the 50 yards in seven seconds. The official record was 7.2.

Ruth Pulls Up Lame as Yanks Whip Reds, 8-5

Orlando, Fla., March 10.—[U. N.]—Babe Ruth became the first and most important Yankee casualty of the season today when he pulled up lame trying to score from second on a single in an exhibition game against the Cincinnati Reds.

The Babe, whose $70,000 contract made him the highest priced ballplayer in the game, was supported to the dugout by Mark Koenig. His appearance in the Yankee lineup had attracted a large crowd, which remained to watch the American league champions come from behind and defeat the Reds, 8 to 5.

Ruth was cheered when he came to bat in the first inning but his best effort was to tap to Pittenger, substitute second baseman, who tossed him out.

In the fourth the Bambino walked and in racing home from second on a subsequent play stopped suddenly in pain with what appeared to be a charley horse. George Davis, a rookie outfielder, replaced Ruth in center field. The score:

Yankees ....000 413 000—8 11 4

Walter Johnson Injured.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—(AP)—Walter Johnson, star pitcher of the Washington Senators, has broken a small bone in his ankle and will be delayed in his spring training approximately three weeks, Clark Griffith, president of the club, reported tonight to the Washington Post. The injury occurred yesterday when a hot liner from Joe Judge's bat caught the hurler squarely in the ankle and the fracture was revealed in an X-ray photograph taken today. The break has been set and the leg is in a plaster cast.

Montreal Canadiens Beat Toronto by 4-3 Score

MONTREAL, March 10.—(AP)—Montreal Canadiens assured themselves a place in the international division playoff of the National Hockey league by defeating Toronto Maple Leafs here tonight, 4 to 3.

CRUICKSHANK AND ARMOUR DEFEAT HAGEN TEAM, 9-8

JOCK HUTCHISON.

Miami, Fla., March 10.—[Special.]—Bobby Cruickshank and Tommy Armour, who worked thirty-six holes of golf yesterday, only to be forced to try it all over again today for the international four-ball championship, took no chances of having to do another hard day's work today. They firmly and efficiently pushed Walter Hagen an Jock Hutchison aside, 9 and 8.

Cruickshank and Armour, who with the match "won" missed five and three foot putts respectively on the 36th green yesterday to give their opponents a tie, ripped through the Haig and the Hutch so effectively today that a missed putt or two didn't matter. On the first nine, Armour knocked over three birdies on the third, fourth and six holes, all for wins, while Bobby added another on a par four on the eighth.

Hutchison was putting poorly and Hagen was sending most of his drives into the rough, which didn't help the favorite of the galleries any. Armour set the pace, continuing his birdies, but his tiny Scotch partner held to the thrift of his race by saving holes whenever Armour found trouble.

FINALS AT BELLEAIR

Belleair, Fla., March 10.—[Special.]—Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., and Mrs. Stewart Hanley of Detroit came through to the finals of the Bellaire women's golf championship today by easy victories, due to first class golf. They play tomorrow for the championship.

Miss Wall defeated Miss Ruth Perry of Philadelphia, 4 and 2, after rolling up a lead of five holes in the first nine. Miss Wall played the first nine holes in 41, after taking five on a par three hole.

Mrs. Hanley won from Mrs. Dalton Raymond of Baton Rouge, La., 3 and 1.

BRUINS' PASSES SINK WASHINGTON CAGERS, 28 TO 19

Ten seconds after the whistle opening the basketball game between the Chicago Bruins and Washington last night every Bruin had handled the ball at least twice, while the Washingtonians vainly tried to stick a hand in the way of a pass. That's the story of the Bruins' second win over the easterners. The final score was 28 to 19.

Stonebreaker covered more ground than Barnum and Bailey's biggest tent and kept the mountainous Tillie Voss from scoring a single basket. Once near the end Voss slid him along the floor six feet with a flying block, but after getting the wicked floor burn painted with iodine Stonebreaker calmly sank his two free throws.

That was just at the end of the Bruins' attack of fumbling which had let Washington run the score from 18 to 11 up to 29 to 19. For a few minutes, with the Bruins passing wildly, it seemed Washington would overtake the Chicagoans. Two minutes to go and Stony sank his fouls, and then Guenther, Barak, and Russell sank baskets in quick succession to end the game by the widest margin they had had in the entire game. Lineup:

In the WAKE of the NEWS

RACING LAWS.

FLORIDA'S Supreme court rules that the certificate form of betting employed there in dog racing, horse racing, and jai alai is a subterfuge and contrary to the anti-gambling laws. In some other jurisdictions the certificates have been held legal.

Chicago interest in this decision centers in the fact that almost the same form of wagering is used in Illinois. Also that plans are under way for six dog tracks and a jai alai court around Chicago. It is not the province of this column to discuss the general honesty of dog racing. It is conducted at night. No reputable turf body in this country permits horse racing at night or on Sunday.

Race track interests generally are opposed to dog racing. The dogs, however, often follow the ponies. In states like Illinois, where there is no protecting law, the reputable race tracks fear to cause action against the dog tracks because the latter adopt the same form of wagering, and what would affect one affects the other.

Illinois has just started to take its place as a racing state with well conducted sport. Six dog tracks and a jai alai court are not likely to meet public approval. They may cause a revulsion of feeling against the ambitious plans of horse track owners for high class sport here.

All of which argues for passage of a sane racing law at Springfield. Legislation is needed not only for the encouragement of reputable and high class enterprises but for the discouragement of those that are not reputable and high class—fly-by-night affairs whose promoters believe in "getting it" while the getting is good.

McNAMARA AND GEORGETTI CLING TO ONE LAP LEAD

Tame Riding Brings Boos from 20,000.

New York, March 10.—[Special.]—With the finish of the six day race less than forty-eight hours away, the black jerseyed leaders, McNamara and Georgetti, maintained the lead that they have held since the opening night, last Sunday. Instead of three laps, however, their margin had been cut to only one at the close of the sprints tonight.

Except during the last few minutes of the sprint session last night, the riding was comparatively tame, so tame, in fact, that the 20,000 or more fans who crowded Madison Square Garden to capacity, starting a booing session that kept up until the flaxon haired Bobby Walthour and his partner, Freddie Spencer, appeased their appetites by starting a jam that lasted throughout the final two sprints and might have caused a change in the standing of the teams had not two spills called a halt to the wild riding. Score at 12 midnight—99th hour:

	Miles.	Laps.	Pts.
McNamara-Georgetti	1,612	9	115
Beckman-Petri	1,612	8	133
Walthour-Spencer	1,612	6	134
Stockholm-Winter	1,612	6	77
Grimm-Horan	1,612	4	104
Bello-Benezatto	1,612	3	141
Goosens-McBeath	1,612	3	122
Madden-Hanley	1,612	3	90
Dinale-Vannek	1,612	2	144
Zucchetti-Raffo	1,612	1	190

COCHRAN BEATS HOREMANS AND LEADS 18.2 MEET

Wins, 400 to 28, in Five Innings.

WELKER COCHRAN.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Welker Cochran, who began the world's 18.2 balk line billiard championship with the record of being the only first class player who never held the championship, seems in a fair way to wipe out this description before the end of the tournament. He won his fourth consecutive match today and instead of falling away from the brilliant pace he set in the opening matches, he increased it.

Each had counted 13 by the end of the second inning, but then Cochran started and Horemans couldn't. Welker ran 119 in the third, 233 in the fourth, and counted the 35 he needed in the fifth. Meanwhile, Horemans, his jab stroke sending the balls everywhere but where he wanted them to go, was laboring in a slough of mistakes. The loss took Horemans out of second place and into a tie with Erich Hagenlacher, who in the afternoon beat Jake Schaefer, 400 to 156, in third place.

COCHRAN-HOREMANS.
COCHRAN—13 0 119 233 35—400.
HOREMANS—3 11 14 1 0—28.

The German continued the brilliant billiards he showed last night in defeating Horemans, especially in his "oil," or defense. When he did miss he left Schaefer the hardest kind of shots.

Hagenlacher scored in every one of his six innings—one more than he needed for his 400 point block last night—scoring a high run of 106 and twice missing when within easy striking distance of century runs.

WELTER CHAMP BEATEN BY LONG RANGE BLOWS

5,000 See Defeat of Titleholder.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

JOE SIMONICH.

Joe Simonich, the wild swinging welterweight from Butte, Mont., decisively defeated Pete Latzo, the world's welterweight champion, in the main event of the boxing show staged by Mique Malloy in Dexter Park pavilion at the stockyards last night.

Fortunately for Latzo, his title was not at stage, as the agreed weight for the fight was 153 pounds. The world's welterweight poundage is 147 pounds, but the 5,000 who paid about $18,000 to see the show saw a champion given the worst beating any title holder has received since boxing was legalized in the state.

Simonich, a replica of Ace Hudkins, the wild man from Omaha, won six of the ten rounds, while three were even and the other, the tenth, went to the champion. Contrary to expectations, Simonich showed to better advantage at long range, while Latzo was superior at close quarters. The champion also had the edge at counter punching.

Attack Baffles Champion.

Joe repeatedly led with his right hand and still the champion was unable to land effectively enough even to stagger the western fighter, who continually tore in and threw his punches from any angle or position. Simonich also mixed his blows. He was clever at left hooking for the body and then bringing the same blow to the head.

Latzo failed to display the expected effectiveness with his left hand. He stabbed Simonich a few times, but in the majority of cases his left hooks were short or twined around Joe's neck. On the other hand, Simonich turned his long, wild swings loose in a haphazard manner, but they generally managed to land on some spot of Pete's anatomy.

There was not a semblance of a knockdown during the entire fight. In fact, neither fighter was staggered, although some stinging punches were landed. In the eighth round Latzo complained of being hit low, and again in the ninth session he appealed to Referee Jimmy Gardner to stop Joe's low punching. Simonich's blows appeared legal, but Joe was cautioned and he was not so wild in the closing session.

To Probe Semi-Windup.

This cautiousness had something to do with the champion winning the round. The first, sixth, and seventh rounds were even. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Latzo scaled 149¼ pounds and Simonich 150¾ pounds.

To all appearances the semi-windup between George Courtney of Tulsa, Okla., and Al Webster of Montana was one of those things. In fact, it looked so bad to the commission that the fighters' money was held up and the boxers requested to appear at commission offices at 2 o'clock this afternoon to explain a few things such as pulling punches and not following up advantages. It was a tame affair, which was booed by the crowd as early as the second round. Courtney, who won the decision, had nearly ten pounds advantage in weight. The agreed poundage was 162 pounds.

Nardi Stops Jahelka.

In the opening bout Bud Nardi stopped Joe Jahelka in the third round of the four session opener. Jahelka was knocked down three times in the opening round but managed to weather the storm of his opponent's blows in the second. In the third session, however, Nardi sent his man to the canvas three times, and then a towel was tossed into the ring as the silent sign of defeat. They weighed 142 pounds.

Mickey McLaughlin and Lew Pereth, local lightweights, went six rounds to a draw in the second opener and J. Indrisano of Boston was awarded the six round decision over Johnny Murphy of Pullman in the third preliminary. Haaken Hansen of Norway outpointed Patsy Recco of East Chicago in the last opener. In the third round Patsy butted his opponent over the left eye and blood flowed freely from a gash for the remainder of the fight. Rocco was booed for his unsportsmanlike act, which went a long way toward turning the judges' decision against him.

South Bend Honors N. Dame Cage Team

Notre Dame, Ind., March 10.—[Special.]—South Bend gave a testimonial banquet this evening for Notre Dame's basketball squad and George Keogan, its coach. More than 175 business men and fans came together to give honor to the coach and team. Capt. Johnny Nyikos, Bucky Dahman, Louie Conroy, and Vince McNally made their farewell speeches. Blankets will be given eight members of the squad as follows: Capt. John Nyikos, Louie Conroy, Vince McNally, Ray Dahman, Joe Jackson, Frank Crowe, Jack Bray, and Collerick.

BIG 10 INDOOR TRACK PRELIMS OPEN TONIGHT

Trials Scheduled for 440 and 880 Yard Runs.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Opening guns in the seventeenth annual indoor track and field championships of the Western conference will be fired in Patten gymnasium at Northwestern university tonight when trials in the 440 and 880 yard runs will be held. All finals will be decided at the same place tomorrow night starting at 8 o'clock.

As the result of the championships will depend largely upon ability of second string performers to gather points offered for third and fourth places, the coaches will start every runner who has shown possibilities. While Illinois and Iowa rule slight favorites, Ohio State and Wisconsin should be contenders all the way.

Cuhel of Iowa Is Star.

Cuhel of Iowa, a sterling all-around athlete, should have little trouble to qualify in his heat of tonight's quarter mile. Sittig of Illinois should also qualify unless Coach Harry Gill elects to start him in the half mile. In fact this star runner may take part in both races. Other reliable quarter milers are Baird, Phelps, and Beatty of Iowa, Burke of Chicago, Dougan and Stowe of Wisconsin, Fessenden and Orlovich of Illinois, Mueller and Ohlheiser of Michigan, Stephenson of Indiana and Capt. Scarborough of Minnesota.

Coaches Draw for Positions.

Among the outstanding half milers in the Big Ten are Erickson of Wisconsin, Burke and Williams of Chicago, Sittig of Illinois, Capt. Bevan and Hornstein of Ohio State, Hart of Michigan, Reynolds of Northwestern and Capt. Rue and Stellner of Illinois.

Coaches of the ten teams will meet at Patten gymnasium tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock to arrange for drawings in the dash, hurdles and pole positions in the track events. Tickets for the meet may be obtained at Spalding's and Patten gymnasium.

OWNER PLANS TO REOPEN TRACK AT POMPANO TODAY

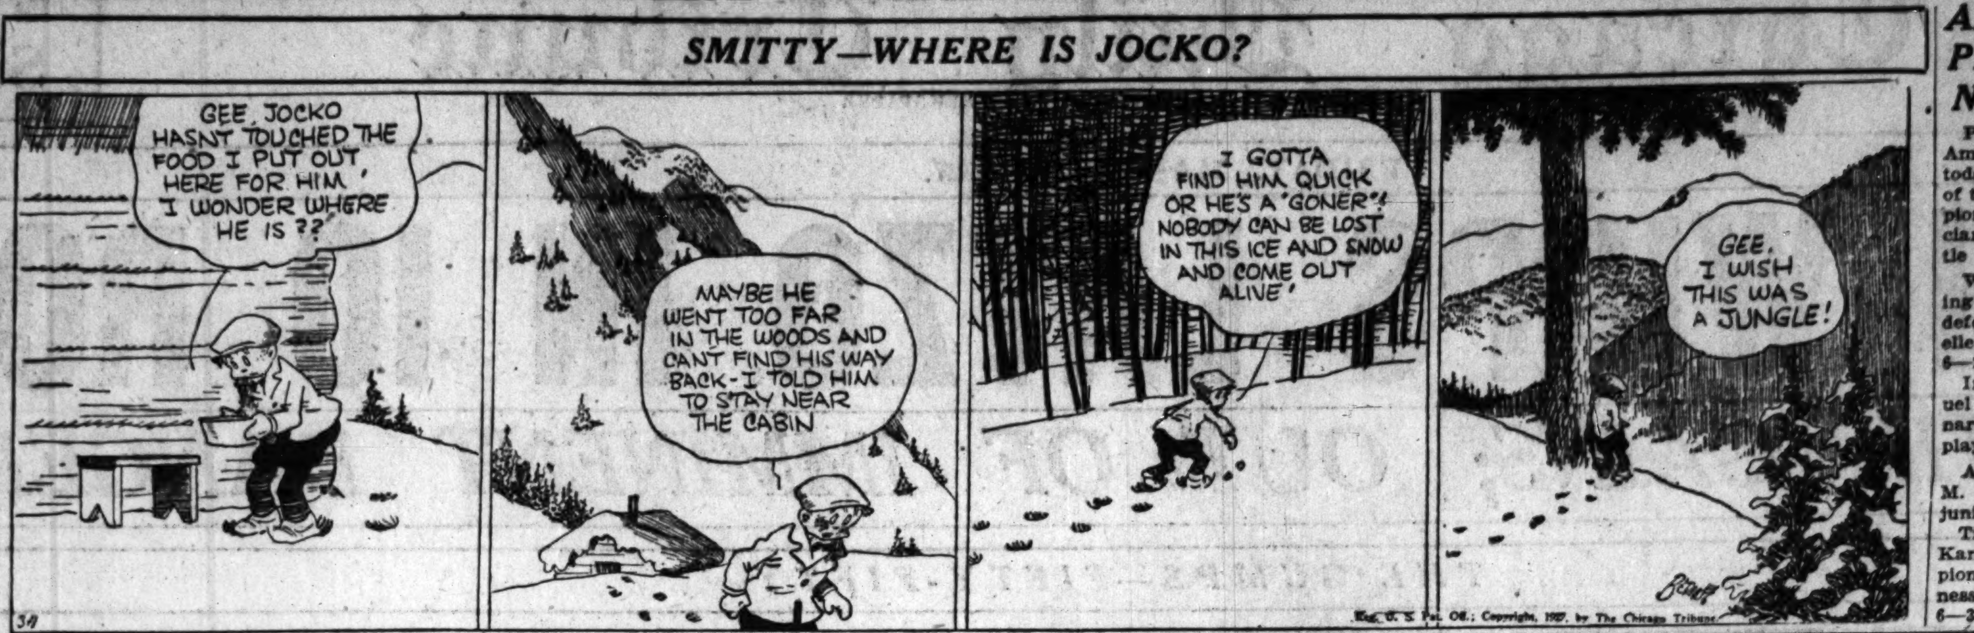
Tallahassee, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—Bugles were silent at race tracks and beagles were leashed in their kennels at most of the dog and horse racing plants in the state tonight.

The Biscayne Kennel club track was in operation, but the punters could find no legal place to "purchase an interest" in the winnings of the dogs. The racing card at Pompano was called off today, but Paul M. Beacum, president of the Pompano Horse club, said the scheduled twenty-four day meet will be resumed tomorrow.

Mr. Beacum said his Pompano plant would be operated, as he had been advised by counsel that "the mandate enjoining betting will not be handed down for thirty days, in accordance with the ruling of the court." Members of the court, however, said there was no such clause in the decision, and that if the Pompano officials continued the betting system they "would find themselves in an unpleasant predicament."

Petitions were in circulation today asking the state legislature to legalize the certificate system, or the pari-mutuels, and authorize a racing commission similar to that in Kenucky.

SMITTY—WHERE IS JOCKO?



GEE, JOCKO HASN'T TOUCHED THE FOOD I PUT OUT HERE FOR HIM. I WONDER WHERE HE IS ??
MAYBE HE WENT TOO FAR IN THE WOODS AND CAN'T FIND HIS WAY BACK-I TOLD HIM TO STAY NEAR THE CABIN
I GOTTA FIND HIM QUICK OR HE'S A "GONER"! NOBODY CAN BE LOST IN THIS ICE AND SNOW AND COME OUT ALIVE!
GEE, I WISH THIS WAS A JUNGLE!

Autoists' Ire Rises at Two Cent Gas Tax

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Gov. Len Small's proposal to levy a new automobile tax of two cents a gallon on all gasoline sold in the state became a point of active opposition on the part of organizations representing practically every section of Illinois yesterday, according to reports made by motorist representatives. It is expected that the organized opposition will come to a head in Springfield March 14, when a general conference of automobile clubs has been called to discuss every phase of the proposed levy and of alternative schemes to raise the revenue needed to complete the state's new $100,000,000 bond issue system of highways.

Among the organizations already on record as opposing the gas tax proposition as it stands now is the Illinois Farm institute, whose recent meeting in Champaign resulted in a refusal to indorse the gas tax. State Senator Henry M. Dunlap led the opposition before this farm body, declaring that farmers in Illinois are taxed to the limit now and should not be called on to pay for another levy. Resolutions against the proposal have been passed by the Cook county board of commissioners, the Winnebago county board, Lions' clubs of Lombard, Wheaton, Aurora, and Elgin, and by various automobile clubs over the state, it was reported by the Chicago Motor club yesterday after a checkup of organized motorists in the state.

The report shows the following clubs in active opposition to the gas tax: Alton Automobile club, Automobile Club of Illinois, formerly the North Shore Motor club; the Mississippi Motor club of Rock Island and Moline, the St. Claire County club, the Springfield Automobile club, and the Chicago Motor club.

ALONSO, TILDEN PLAY IN FLORIDA NET FINAL TODAY

Palm Beach, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—America's two first ranking net stars today fought their way into the finals of the Florida state men's tennis championship tourney on the Royal Poinciana courts, and tomorrow will battle for the prized crown.

William T. Tilden II., No. 1 ranking player, won three straight sets to defeat Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., Olympic doubles champion, 6—2, 8—6, 6—3.

Alonso today triumphed over George M. Lott Jr., Chicago, former national junior champion, 6—3, 6—4, 6—0.

Tilden, paired with Wilbur Coen Jr., Kansas City, Mo., national boys' champion, trounced Lott and Johnny Hennessey, Indianapolis, 6—4, 0—6, 1—6, 6—3, 6—4, in the doubles.

Junior Golfers to Meet Pros in Best Ball Match

A 36 hole best ball team match, in which the teams will be composed of members of the Illinois Junior Golf association and professionals, is announced for the closing night of the Golf show. The pros will be chosen by Jack Patterson of Midlothian, president of the Illinois P. G. A., but the juniors will have to earn their places.

Sixteen juniors will be eligible for the event and the tryouts will be held at the Dolphblin club, starting today at 6 o'clock. Tomorrow the boys may qualify from 2 o'clock to 7:30 and Sunday from 10:30 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon. The qualifying rounds will be 72 holes, medal play. Prizes of medals and cups for the winning, runner-up, and third teams will be donated by the P. G. A. and the juniors' association.

RIDING CLUB POLO TEAM DEFEATS ARTILLERYMEN

Winners Pile Up Score of 14 to 8½.

In the first games of the midwest indoor polo tournament at the Riding club last night the Riding club B team, led by Capt. Jim Hannah, defeated the 124th field artillery B trio 14 goals to 8½, and the North Shore outfit trimmed the A team of the 124th field artillery, 18 to 7.

Hannah's team showed superiority over the soldiers from the start, and although it had to give the gunners four goals handicap more than evened this up in the first period. After that it was a walkaway for the Riding club. Lineup:

RIDING CLUB "B" [14].		124TH "B" [8½].
Hannah, capt.	No. 1	Schuh
Phelan	No. 2	Tully
Silberman	No. 3	Everett, capt.

Goals—Hannah, 7; Phelan, 4; Silberman, 3; Everett, 3; Schuh, 2. The 124th lost half a point on a foul. Goals from handicap—124th, 4.

The 124th "A" team put up a stiff fight against North Shore at various times during the second contest, but the sure shooting of Lorber and Millikin was too much for the soldiers and their three goal handicap was of little use to them. This game was full of hard riding and close checking and the North Shore team lost a point as a result of two fouls. Lineup:

NORTH SHORE [18].		124th F. ART. A [7].
Millikin	No. 1	Gossett, Capt.
Lorber, Capt.	No. 2	Ferguson
Schultz	No. 3	Laker

Goals—Lorber, 10; Millikin, 7; Schultz, 2; Gossett, 3; Laker. Goal lost on fouls—North Shore, 1. Goals from handicap — 124th, 3.

The Riding club "A" team will play North Shore and the Fort Sheridan team will play the Riding club "B" team tonight.

ST. PHILIP PLAYS DE LA SALLE FOR CATHOLIC TITLE

St. Philip, winner of the north section title, and De La Salle, champion of the south section, will meet for the lightweight championship of the Catholic High school basketball league tonight at St. Rita gym, 63d street and Oakley boulevard. Both teams went through their league schedules with seven victories and one defeat.

Shea, center of the St. Philip quintet, and Lauraitis, who plays the same postion for De La Salle, are the mainstays of the two teams.

Maine Loses Overtime Tilt to Waukegan

Waukegan High school won its opening game in the Illinois state high school sectional tournament at Waukegan last night, nosing out Des Plaines, 27 to 26, in an overtime battle.

The tournament at Waukegan is one of the many throughout the state that eventually will determine the state championship, won last year by Freeport. The sectional tournaments will continue today and tomorrow. Other results of the Waukegan tourney were:

Palatine, 36; Libertyville, 14.
Arlington Heights, 27; Wauconda, 19.

Blue Island, 25; Riverside, 19.
La Grange, 31; Glen Ellyn, 23.
Calumet City, 31; Argo, 24.

Today's pairings: Harvey vs. Elmhurst, 2 p. m.; Hinsdale vs. Franklin Park, 3 p. m.; Morton vs. La Grange, 4 p. m.; Blue Island vs. Calumet City, 7 p. m.; Proviso vs. winner of Harvey-Elmhurst game, 8 p. m.; Bensenville vs. winner of Franklin Park-Hinsdale game at 9 p. m.

Notes of the Boxers

JOEY RYCHELL of the stockyards and Carl Feiber of the west side will meet in the windup of the Roosevelt Road A. C. boxing show tonight. They will go six rounds to a decision at 115 pounds. The other bouts will bring together Paul Wangly and George Mavis, Jack Gibbs and Snow Flake, Nick Taft and Lou Gordon, Lou Freedman and Joe Maggio and Ralph Frazier and George Shea. The show will open at 8:15 o'clock and the club is located at 3216 West Roosevelt road.

Andy Martin of Boston, not Johnny Farr of Cleveland, will be the opponent of Johnny Hill in one of the bouts of Promoter James Mullen's all-star card at the Coliseum next Thursday night. Farr accepted the match after his bout with Babe Herman at Cleveland Wednesday night. Yesterday afternoon Farr's manager notified Mullen his fighter was too badly marked to risk the Hill match. Martin will be here tomorrow to complete training.

Eddie Shea, the west side featherweight, yesterday had his tonsils removed and an operation performed on his right hand. He will be out of the ring for at least a month, according to Manager Ray Alvis.

Bud Taylor of Terre Haute, Ind., who meets Tony Conzoneri of New York for the world's bantamweight championship at the Coliseum on Feb. 26, will come to Chicago on Monday to start preparation for the most important contest of his career. The New York Italian will be here the latter part of next week, according to Promoter Mullen.

DUCK CONVOYS PRESAGE THAT SPRING'S HERE

Stop Near Chicago on Way North.

BY BOB BECKER.

Thousands of mallards and pintail ducks have arrived in the Chicago region as another evidence that spring is just around the corner. Following behind the Canada geese, the ducks checked in a few days ago and now are making themselves at home in the fields and ponds where a few months ago the hunters had their blinds and decoys set out.

Frank Collins of Morris, Ill., reports that much of his prairie land (dotted with shallow ponds and ideal for puddler ducks) is covered with thousands of greenheads and spiketails which will linger a few days to eat their fill and then push on farther northward.

Being bold, strong winged birds, the ducks are not afraid to migrate during the day, but there are many species of birds that are afraid to fly during daylight hours and herein lies one of the interesting studies that the bird fan in the city can pursue this spring: Which species flies by day and which by night?

If you will check up on your observations in April and May you'll find that the timid or feeble winged species are not seen on the flyways during the day. They are either afraid of an exposed daylight trip or are too weak for a long jaunt. On the other hand, the bold, strong winged species (like the blackbirds, robins, or bobolinks) hit the flyways during broad daylight.

A Mail Carrier's Experience with ISO=VIS

Mud was up to the hubs for miles—the car had to plough through on low—yet the motor was not heated—because the engine was lubricated with Iso=Vis. This experience is told in a letter received by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) from a rural mail carrier.

Charleston, Mo., Jan. 3, 1927.

Standard Oil Company, St. Louis, Mo.
Gentlemen:

I feel that I owe your Company a letter of praise for the perfect satisfaction your new oil Iso=Vis has given me. I am a rural carrier and the time I changed to this new oil, the roads were in the worst condition they have been in for years. I drove my car in first and second gear with mud up to the hubs for miles without heating my motor the least bit. I am also having a much easier time starting as the motor does not get stiff with Iso=Vis. I having been using Red Crown-Ethyl gas ever since it appeared in ourfilling stations here.

The two products make a splendid combination.

Louis E. Edward, Rural Carrier No. 2

Thousands of letters of appreciation have come to the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) since Iso=Vis was put on the market—letters telling of actual experiences, like the one above.

A motor oil so extraordinary in the results it gives that people voluntarily sit down and write enthusiastic letters of praise to the Company who produced it is worth trying out!

Iso=Vis has revolutionized lubrication. It makes for easier starting—overcomes dilution troubles—and gives efficient lubrication every mile from the first to the thousandth! That is why enthusiasm over Iso=Vis is so general. Try it once and you'll see!

Iso=Vis "F" for Fords.

CORN AND WHEAT PRICES DECLINE ON LONG SELLING

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Liquidation by tired longs developed in the grain markets after a firm opening with a decline of 1¾@2¼c in wheat from the high point, and the finish was within a fraction of the bottom at net losses of 1⅛@1⅝c. May closed at $1.39⅛@1.39¼; July, $1.33⅛@1.33¼, and September, $1.30¼@1.30⅜. Corn lost ⅝@¾c with May, 76⅛@76¼c; July, 80⅝@80¾c; and September, 84¼c. Oats finished ⅜@1⅛c lower with May leading. Latter was 45⅝c, and July, 45⅝c at the last while rye was ⅛@⅝c lower with May, $1.05½, and July, $1.03⅝.

Strength in Liverpool, with a little buying of futures here for foreign account, was responsible for the small upturn in wheat early, but trade was light, and later the northwest took the selling side. Market held within narrow limits until near the last, when an effort to take profits by scattered longs found support lacking, and with stop loss selling prices broke sharply.

Export Demand Only Fair.

There was nothing in the general run of the news to account for the late selling and the decline, but the recent bulge which carried May up to $1.42⅛ weakened the technical position, and with a light trade the market became overbought, and the decline was rapid once it got under way. There was no export demand of consequence at the seaboard, with sales of 400,000@500,000 bu in all positions, but the trade has a strong belief that the business is not reported in full.

Weather conditions over the winter wheat belt continue favorable for the new crop, and the forecast indicated more moisture would be received overnight. Liverpool wheat was ⅝d higher. Buenos Aires was stronger early and closed unchanged to ½c higher, with May $1.30 and June $1.31½.

Corn Closes at Bottom.

Bulk of the trade in corn was of a local character, with prices fractionally higher early on talk of a further reduction in marketings in the interior and a better cash demand, but the market weakened with wheat and on selling by local operators, and the finish was at the bottom. Spot basis was steady to 1c higher. Harvesting of the new Argentine corn crop is under way in the northern provinces.

Houses with eastern connections that were recently on the buying side of oats were liberal sellers, and with a lack of aggressive support prices declined readily, with May showing the most weakness. Weather conditions were more favorable in the southern parts of the belt for field work. Buying on the decline was largely by shorts.

Rye was easier in sympathy with wheat, but trade was not large. A little export business was put through at the seaboard, and fair clearances are looked for from New York.

CASH HOUSES BUY LARD

Trade in provisions was fairly active, with commission and cash houses on the buying side of lard, while the selling was largely by brokers who usually act for packers. Market was relatively firm early, but eased off toward the last in sympathy with grains and the close was at net losses of 5@7½c, with ribs unchanged to 2½c lower and bellies 5@10c higher. Deliveries on March contracts were 100,000 lbs lard. New York cleared 396,000 lbs lard and 38,000 lbs meats for export. Prices follow:

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Export demand for wheat at the seaboard was relatively slow early in the day, but the late break uncovered resting orders, and sales in all positions were finally estimated at 400,000 to 500,000 bu. A little business was done in rye and barley.

Chicago handlers sold 3,000 bu wheat; 54,000 bu corn; 49,000 bu oats, and 10,000 bu barley to the domestic trade with 20,000 bu corn to go to store. Deliveries on March contracts were 20,000 bu corn.

Hard winter wheat was in better demand on spot here with the basis steady to 1c higher. Red winter was little changed. No. 2 hard brought May price to 2c under, and No. 3 hard 3@7c under, while No. 2 red was 4@5c under and No. 3 red 6@12c under May. Basis at St. Louis and Kansas City was unchanged.

Offerings of cash corn were smaller and the demand fair with the basis steady to 1c higher. No. 3 grades brought 10@12c under; No. 4 hard, 12½@18c under; No. 5 grades, 16@20c under, and No. 6 grades, 20½@23c under the future. Outside markets were unchanged to 1c higher.

Cash oats basis was unsettled with No. 2 white 2@4c over the May and No. 3 white 4c under to 1c over the future.

Official receipts of grain at Chicago Thursday: Wheat, 34 cars; corn, 138 cars; oats, 69 cars; rye, 1 car; barley, 8 cars.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

Confidence of the bulls in wheat received a severe jolt in the rapidity of the break late yesterday, and after the close there was a feeling in many quarters that increased support would be necessary to prevent a further decline.

Decline in corn increased bearish sentiment to some extent, but there were still many operators who felt that the buying side was in order on the sharp declines. Shipping demand has improved of late, and sales of 1,250,000 bu have been reported so far this month. On the other hand there is still some old corn in the east that is hard to dispose of.

A cargo of rye was loaded yesterday at New York, and a boat is expected to start to load another today.

PRODUCE MARKETS

Reports that foreign butter was being offered more freely had a depressing effect on the eastern markets, but with the exception of a drop of ¼@½c at New York there was little change in prices. New Zealand butter was offered at 36@36½c c. i. f. New York, and Argentine at 35½c for unsalted. Cheese showed a slightly firmer undertone.

Fresh eggs in better demand and prices ½c higher. Receipts, 11,016 cases. Live poultry unchanged. Receipts, 1,265 coops.

Demand for potatoes less active and prices on northern stock were unchanged. Wisconsins sold at $2.00@2.15 per 100 lbs. Receipts, 83 cars, and 192 cars were on team track.

EFFICIENCY OF RAILROADS HITS EQUIPMENT FIRMS

Increased efficiency on the part of the railroads in the use of their equipment is the reason railway equipment corporations have not increased their earnings on the same scale as other manufacturers in recent prosperous years, says R. P. Lamont, president of the American Steel Foundries, in his annual report to the stockholders issued yesterday.

The actual number of freight cars in existence at this time is practically the same as it was 13 years ago and still the total carrying capacity of the cars has increased 15 per cent, Mr. Lamont says. He adds that the average number of cars and locomotives purchased annually since 1920 is less than half the number per year from 1900 to 1910 despite the fact that the carriers handled satisfactorily the largest volume of traffic in their history.

"Reasons which help to account for this remarkable situation," says Mr. Lamont, "include the larger capacity and better cars and locomotives manufactured in recent years, together with the fact that a considerable percentage of the short haul business has been taken over by auto trucks and automobiles, thus releasing large numbers of cars for more profitable long haul business."

The report shows net profits for the year ended Dec. 31, 1926, of $4,675,795, equal after preferred dividends, to $4.49 a share. This compares with $4,669,737 or $4.47 a share on the no par common stock for 1925. Total profit and income was $4,701,887. The balance sheet shows current assets and liabilities of $21,176,927, and $3,278,505, respectively, compared with $21,385,256 and $3,177,382 at the end of the previous year.

The annual dinner of the Traffic Club of Chicago will be held Wednesday evening, March 23, at the Palmer house.

The New York Newspaper everyone is talking about

The responsiveness of Herald Tribune readers to advertising is reflected in the amount and diversity of its advertising lineage.

In 1926 the Herald Tribune gained more lines of advertising than any other New York newspaper, weekdays and Sunday.

In diversity of appeal—the figures for February, 1927, are significant. Last month the Herald Tribune carried a greater volume of advertising in each of the following classifications than any other New York morning newspaper, weekdays and Sundays combined.

Foods—of special interest to housewives.

Tobacco—appealing to men.

Newspapers—addressed to advertising experts.

In each of these classifications, the New York Herald Tribune led the New York morning field weekdays and Sundays combined, proof of the completely rounded appeal made by the Herald Tribune, the New York newspaper everyone is talking about.

Because of the character and responsiveness of its circulation, the Herald Tribune is the logical keystone for any campaign calculated to sell merchandise in New York, the world's greatest market.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, March 10.—(AP)—Highly erratic movements again characterized today's curb market. Oils showed better resistance to pressure, Vacuum standing out with a jump of 4 points to a new high at 110½ in anticipation of an excellent 1926 earnings report.

A brisk demand developed for Universal Pictures, which was bid up more than 3 points to a new high record at 43. Rand Kardex issues touched new highs in anticipation of formal ratification tomorrow of its merger with Remington Typewriter and other units. Johns Manville new stock reacted on the traditional "selling on the good news" following the inauguration of dividends.

While rapid accumulation of United States government issues continued in the bond market, the demand spread out to include high grade securities in practically every field.

Treasury 4¼s was again the most active in the list, moving up once more to a new high record price. The second Liberty 4¼s were accumulated in a large amount, but within a narrow range of prices.

Strength of high grade railway mortgages was an outstanding feature of the general list. Accumulation of bonds of some of the oil companies led the activity in the industrial list. General Asphalt 6s and Barnsdall 6s were centers of attention. A few soft spots were attributed to profit taking. Granby 7s were particularly susceptible.

In the foreign exchange market Spanish pesetas established another new high just below 17¼c and most of the other rates held firm. Demand sterling was quoted around $4.84 13-16 and French francs just above 3.90c.

Singer Manufacturing Declares Extra Dividend

Directors of the Singer Manufacturing company yesterday declared an extra dividend of $3.50 a share. The new common stock of the Johns Manville corporation was placed on a $3 annual basis with the declaration of 75 cents, quarterly. The Fulton Syphon company declared an initial dividend of 87½ cents, quarterly, thereby placing the stock on a $3.50 annual basis.

MANAGERIAL PAY HIGH IN LIGHTING, POWER UTILITIES

BY HARPER LEECH.

Managerial reward for the executives of utilities falls into well defined types, according to the evolutionary stage of the corporation.

As in the case of banks and railroads the rate of return upon capital cannot be high.

But although earnings are regulated by law, officialism cannot stop the expansion of such a young and vigorous industry, riding the crest of triumphant physical science.

So we find that the executives of old and established utility concerns are either on an exclusive salary basis or receive a moderate percentage of the earnings above fixed charges, taxes, and dividends.

But in those sectors of the industry where expansion is taking place at a rapid rate, where new territory is being developed, where old companies are being combined, reëquipped, refinanced, and restaffed—in short, wherever isolated units of the first electric age are being rejuvenated by the superpower policies and engineering, the executives of utility properties associated with such developments are getting rich, if they want to.

The same opportunities are, of course, theoretically open to any outsider—exactly as any man with enough money to buy stocks on margin in 1922 might have prospered almost as mightily as some of the executives of General Motors. But the inside is the inside—and such gains are nowadays due to the knowledge of industrial conditions, the march of science, the capabilities of the executives and confidence in them. No outsider can possibly share in all that on a basis of equality with the courageous insider.

Such are the possibilities in power and lighting. Needless to say, they no longer exist in traction—except where a transport magician has a rapidly growing metropolitan area to deal with. Such possibilities do not exist in telegraph or telephone.

One branch of radio has presented an unusual problem. Management bonuses have had to be adjusted there to promote expansion but to eliminate the "unearned increment" from the sudden exploitation of a scientific advance.

Here is the management plan of one of the greater utility holding companies with properties mostly located in great cities and relatively mature and stabilized. The four key executives of the holding company split annually a sum approximately equal to 2 per cent of the earnings available from common stock. Executives of equivalent importance in the subsidiary operating companies receive a similar reward. Managerial reward is associated with various systems of stimulating employé performance and morale. The executives do not split a great percentage of the earnings, but the pool is divided by few men.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

NEW YORK, March 10.—(AP)—Demand for silk and cottons, rayon and cottons, and soft finished cottons, printed and plain, was unusually active today for wash fabrics sales. Printed lines were so much sought after that most mills were running overtime to fill orders. Gray cloths were firm. Burlaps were higher and more active. Silk goods in sheer weaves were much sought after, crepes, printed, and plain being especially active. New lines of worsted dress fabrics will be opened next week.

OFFICIAL WEATHER FORECAST.

Missouri—Showers probable by Friday afternoon or night and on Saturday; cooler Saturday.

BY AL CHASE.

The Mart Shoe Stores corporation, with eight outlying footwear shops, is to invade the loop with a branch in the Capitol building. A lease was signed yesterday which calls for $660,000 rental for a ten year term beginning May 1st, according to the Browning Realty company, which represented the lessees. Lee J. Lesser represented the lessor, the State and Randolph Building corporation.

The lease calls for 6,000 square feet on the south half of the second floor, facing on both State and Randolph streets, and taking in the entire Randolph street frontage, together with the store at 157 North State street. This first floor shop will be used as the entrance to the main salesroom on the second floor.

To Be Remodeled.

The premises will be extensively remodeled and new bronze front installed in the first floor store. A private elevator will connect the first and second floors. The State and Randolph building corporation consists of Walter Ahlschlager, Henry Hedberg, Leo J. Lesser, and Albert T. Appleton.

According to Julius G. H. Gertz, chairman of the Mart Shoe Stores, Inc., a lease also has been closed at 922 East 63d street for another shop to be added to the chain. P. H. Fogelman is president of the Mart concern, and S. D. Cohen is secretary and treasurer.

M. Grusin, owner of the southeast corner of Harlem and Washington, Oak Park, reports that he has not sold the property, as reported in this column yesterday. THE TRIBUNE printed the information in good faith, having received it from an apparently reliable source.

To Erect Two Plants.

The Robert W. McIlvaine company, consulting engineers, will erect a large plant immediately on a site fronting 259 feet on 15th street and 259 feet on 15th place, with a depth of 266 feet, which it has just purchased from Henry L. Schroeder, manufacturer of bakers' tools and implements. The property is east of Cicero avenue and adjoins the B. & O. T. C. Ry.

Mr. Schroeder owns the property on the east side of Cicero, between 15th street and 15th place, on which he proposes to erect a large manufacturing plant.

The price was not disclosed in the McIlvaine purchase. James J. Robinson of Baird & Warner was broker. Mills & Howe were attorneys for the buyer and Eli D. Langert of Irwin Grossman's office acted for the seller.

City of Brisbane
Thirty-Year Sinking Fund 5% Gold Bonds

Dated March 1, 1927
Due March 1, 1957

Not Redeemable for Twenty Years Except for Sinking Fund

Interest payable March 1 and September 1. Coupon Bonds in denomination of $1,000, registerable as to principal only. Principal and interest payable in New York City, in United States gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness, at The National City Bank of New York, Fiscal Agent of the Loan. Principal and interest of the Bonds are payable without deduction for any present or future taxes or duties levied by the City of Brisbane, the State of Queensland or the Commonwealth of Australia, or by or within any political sub-division or taxing authority thereof, and are payable in time of war as in time of peace, irrespective of the nationality of the holder or owner.

The bonds are redeemable prior to maturity at 100% of the principal thereof, either as a whole, at the option of the City of Brisbane, on March 1, 1947, or on any interest date thereafter, or in part, through the operation of a sinking fund, on September 1, 1927, or on any interest date thereafter. Approximately 65.8% of the bonds will be retired, prior to maturity, through a cumulative sinking fund of 1% per annum, operating semi-annually.

These Bonds are the direct obligations of the City of Brisbane and are authorized by a Resolution of the Brisbane City Council, dated December 18, 1926, and approved by the Governor-in-Council of the State of Queensland on the same date, in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of the City of Brisbane (The City of Brisbane Act of 1924, dated October 30, 1924). The City agrees that if, in the future, it shall sell, offer for public subscription, or in any manner dispose of any bonds or contract any loan secured by any charge or pledge on or any revenues or assets of the City, the service of this Loan shall be secured equally and ratably with such bonds or loan.

Application will be made to list these Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

We offer these Bonds if, as and when issued to and received by us, subject to approval of counsel. Delivery in temporary form is expected on or about March 24, 1927.

Price 96 and interest, to yield over 5.26% to maturity

CHICAGO STOCK TRANSACTIONS

Thursday, March 10, 1927.

Day's sales ....32,000 Year ago ....70,000 Total, 1927 ....1,714,600 Year ago 3,903,600

Chicago stocks were strong yesterday, Illinois Brick leading the upward movement with an accumulation which netted a gain of 1½ to 53½ on the day. Reports were current that the company has either completed or is about to complete a deal in which it will sell some of its property and add considerably to the large surplus in the treasury. Stewart-Warner was given support and rallied ⅝. Borg & Beck also closed ¾ higher and United Iron Works moved up ¼. Yates Machine was down ⅝. On small sales, Union Carbide advanced 1⅜ and Bendix, American Shipbuilding, and Central and Southwest prior lien each were up a point.

FARM AND GARDEN BY FRANK RIDGWAY

Gardening fever is running high in Chicago nowadays. It is too early to plant in the open garden or in lawn beds but it is not too early to start either flowers or vegetable seeds in window boxes.

Wide windows that are now being commonly built into the new apartments and homes makes it possible to run indoor gardens successfully. Sun porches make ideal places for seed boxes or flats.

Flowers started in window boxes can be brought into bloom in outdoor porch boxes, so that a modified form of gardening can be followed even by persons who live in apartments or city homes where they have no lawn space. The seedlings can be grown to good sized plans on a sun porch where in many apartments and homes the plants can be exposed to the direct rays of the sun from early morning until late in the afternoon.

Small shallow boxes are the most convenient flats to use because they can be shifted readily from bench to bench and to the sunniest spot in the home.

The ground is thawing out early this season. The soil is still wet and must be dried out before it is put in seed boxes. Some find it a good scheme to bake the soil in an even to kill insects and weed seeds.

A supply of 40,000 fresh and stale hogs forced prices down mostly 5@10c, the general average lowering 5c at $11.55, with extreme top off 10c at $12.15. However, after an uncertain opening, activity developed and market finished on firmer ground, larger packers being among principal operators in mid-session. A short 8,000 remained at the close.

Butcher grades of hogs sold largely within a range of $11.30@11.60, several droves of 250@260 lb averages costing $11.40@11.50, with 225 lb averages around $11.60. Larger houses obtained droves of 260 lb butchers a shade below $11.35, buying freely on the break.

Prime weighty beeves at $13.50 established a new high mark for the year. Steers averaging 1,570 lbs went east for fancy trade at this figure, highest for the weight in over a year. General quality, however, showed little improvement, and the increased number of in-between and commoner grades of cattle moved slowly, finishing at slight reductions. The second highest price on the list was $12.75, only a few loads passing $12.00. Butcher stock held mostly steady. Calves moved slowly at recent declines. Stockers and feeders were scarce and brought stronger prices.

Lamb Market Erratic.

After limited shipping orders were filled at steady to strong prices, killing lambs slumped 25@50c, larger packers operating slowly at the full decline late. Fancy light topped the list at $16.25, bulk of woolskins later bringing $15.00@15.50, with weighty shorn lambs $12.75. Aged sheep, due to scarcity, held firm, light ewes bringing $9.50. Feeding and shearing lambs met strong demand at steady prices.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 2,000 cattle, 27,000 hogs, and 11,000 sheep, against 2,500 cattle, 30,456 hogs, and 13,762 sheep the previous Friday, and 2,796 cattle, 27,976 hogs, and 11,415 sheep a year ago.

LESS CALL FOR COTTON

Reports of a less aggressive demand for spot cotton in the south with better weather conditions in the western and central parts of the belt led to selling of futures, and while trade was not large the finish was at net losses of 4@8 points here, with New Orleans off 3@8 points, and New York off 2@13 points.

Messages from the south indicated that the campaign to reduce the acreage of cotton was not meeting with the success expected, and it was doubtful if the actual curtailment would exceed 10 per cent. Spot prices were unchanged with Houston, 13.95c; Galveston, 14.05c, and New York, 14.25c. Prices follow:

DIVIDEND RECORD FOR QUARTER SET BY STANDARD OIL

New York, March 10.—[Special.]—A record for cash dividend payments by the Standard Oil group in the first quarter of any year since 1913 was established in the first quarter of this year when they aggregated $55,333,056, according to compilations made by Carl H. Pforzheimer & Co., specialists in Standard Oil securities. Dividends for the present quarter have been declared by all the companies except the Prairie Pipe Line which is expected to declare the usual $2 quarterly payment.

Payments in the present quarter include $1,000,000 disbursed by the Southern Pipe Line as a final payment in the parital liquidation program and a special dividend of $990,000 by the Cumberland Pipe Line, representing a reduction in its outside investments.

The Prairie Oil and Gas company paid $1,200,000 for this quarter, against nothing in the first quarter of 1926.

First quarter dividend payments for the present and the last five years follow: 1927, $55,333,056; 1926, $40,580,317; 1925, $34,355,618; 1924, $34,975,667; 1923, $33,499,988; 1922, $28,206,068.

GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, Trustee.

Westvaco Chlorine Products Corporation owns all of the capital stock except Directors' qualifying shares of Westvaco Chlorine Products, Inc., a company engaged in the manufacture and sale of chlorine, caustic soda, and related products.

Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, all of the stock of which excepting Directors' qualifying shares is owned by Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation, has contracted to pay monthly to the Trustee for these Debentures, during the period commencing January 1, 1928, and terminating December 31, 1937, or at such earlier date as all of said debentures shall have been retired, the sum of $1,000 per day to be used by the Trustee for the payment of interest on these debentures and for their retirement.

The payments provided in the above mentioned contract will be sufficient to cover interest requirements on the debentures to be outstanding January 1, 1928, and to retire the entire issue before maturity at the existing redemption prices.

These payments by Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation have been guaranteed by the Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation and this guarantee will be assigned to the Trustee for these debentures.

Current net earnings of Westvaco Chlorine Products, Inc., available for interest and depreciation, are at the annual rate of $480,000 or over four (4) times the interest on these Debentures for the ten (10) months period from March 1, 1927, to December 31, 1927.

Legal matters in connection with the issuance of these Debentures will be passed upon by Messrs. Wise, Whitney & Parker. We offer these Debentures for delivery when, as and if issued and accepted by us, subject to the approval of all legal proceedings by counsel.

DROP IN UNFILLED ORDERS SHOWN IN U.S. STEEL REPORT

BY O. A. MATHER.

In the present era of hand-to-mouth buying of commodities, unusually sharp changes in demand can occur in a limited time. This situation is reflected in the monthly report of forward business issued by the United States Steel corporation yesterday.

The report shows a decrease of 203,058 tons in unfilled orders during February. Buying was moderately large, but the mills operated at the relatively high rate of 85 per cent of capacity. Therefore, shipments exceeded new orders. But within the last two or three weeks, incoming business has increased sharply and the Steel corporation has expanded its operations to 97 per cent of capacity. In fact, demand has increased so sharply that prices have stiffened and premiums are being offered for immediate delivery.

Larger Decrease Expected.

The decline in unfilled tonnage of the Steel corporation was not quite as large as had been expected, although it brings forward business down to 3,597,119 tons, the smallest total since last September, and also 1,019,703 tons below a year ago. But the present decline, which would have appeared large a few years ago, is not regarded with apprehension in view of the present close relation between production and consumption.

In fact, the present low amount of forward business on the books would prove a distinct advantage if demand continued to expand and prices firm up. In that event, the steel companies would have a minimum amount of low price orders to fill and could secure larger profits on future business. This trend appears actually to be developing. Cold rolled strip steel has advanced $4 a ton and pig iron has advanced 50 cents a ton.

Petroleum Industry Profits.

The petroleum industry enjoyed unusual prosperity last year and recent cuts in crude and refined products have not shaken confidence in the future. The Midcontinent Petroleum company yesterday initiated common stock dividends at the annual rate of $3 by declaring a quarterly payment of 75 cents. Net income for 1926 was $8,615,711, equivalent after preferred and minority dividends to about $6 a share on the common stock, compared with $7,000,926, or $4.81 a share, in 1925.

The Barnsdall corporation increased the annual rate from $2 to $2.50 on its class A and B shares. Net income for 1926 was equivalent to $5.28 a share. The Washington Oil company declared a dividend of $2 a share. A payment of $4 was made in December.

Credit Demand Slackens.

Slackening in the demand for credit following the February month-end settlements and prior to next week's income tax payments is shown in this week's report of the federal reserve system. Continuance of easy money market conditions again is indicated.

The report for the whole system shows loans declined $18,705,000; open market bills, $24,338,000; and government securities, $4,645,000. Deposits fell $28,826,000, with member bank reserves and government deposits declining $10,122,000 and $20,076,000, respectively. Note circulation increased $1,937,000. Gold and total reserves expanded $31,075,000 and $29,366,000, respectively. The ratio of reserves to liabilities rose to 79.7 from 78.5 per cent last week.

At New York loans and bills declined $1,591,000 and $3,499,000, respectively. Deposits increased $11,856,000, and reserves expanded $20,965,000. The reserve ratio rose to 84.2 from 83.2 per cent. At Chicago loans increased $5,693,000, but bills declined $1,552,000. Deposits showed little change. Reserves increased $3,947,000 and the reserve ratio rose to 75.3 from 75.1 per cent.

Commercial Credit (Baltimore).

F. C. B.: Commercial Credit company (Baltimore), in its consolidated income account, shows balance of net income available for its own preferred stocks of $1,100,626 in 1926, against $3,000,704 in 1925.

After dividends on its 6½ and 7 per cent first preferred and its class B preferred stocks, amounting to $1,076,667, there remained a balance of only $23,959 for the common stock in 1926.

The dividend was decreased on Dec. 31, 1926, from the annual rate of $2 to $1 a share.

The common stock is of medium grade and speculative at present.

We cannot predict future earnings or the course of the market.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Resumption of the upward price movement in today's stock market sent more than a score issues to new high levels for the year, but heavy profit taking developed just before the close in some of the recent favorites, leaving final quotations irregularly higher. Trading showed a further expansion, total sales again running close to the 2,000,000 mark.

Despite the decrease of slightly more than 200,000 tons in the February unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation, Steel common was well bought, Wall street apparently paying more attention to the current expansion in mill operations. The new "when issued" stock crossed 117 to a new record high, but later lost part of its gain.

Credit Continues Easy.

The credit situation continued easy, with call money in plentiful supply at 4 per cent, which rate has been maintained without change since the first of the month.

The demand for the rails was more sustained, but there was nothing in the day's news to explain the heavy accumulation of the leading carrier stocks. Some of them doubtless are attractive as investments in view of the relatively low yield on most high grade bonds. Gulf, Mobile and Northern jumped 6⅝ points to 54⅝, and Atchison, Wabash common, Bangor and Aroostook, Peoria and Eastern, and St. Louis Southwestern preferred advanced 2 to nearly 4 points.

Remington Typewriter Soars.

Remington Typewriter common soared 10 points to a new record high at 170 in anticipation of a formal declaration of the completion of its consolidation with Rand Kardex and other units. New peak prices for the year also were established by American Brake Shoe and Foundry, Shubert Theaters, Loews, National Biscuit, Coca Cola, Electric Boat, Manhattan Electrical Supply, Owens Bottle, Sterling Products, Union Tank Car, and a few others.

Starring Dulcie Jayne

By Virginia Tracy.

SYNOPSIS.

Cornelia Marsh, employed in the scenario department of Hertzog's Perfection Motion Picture Studio at Fort Lee, N. J., learns with sorrow that Henry Horner, the head of the department, has been fired by Lyman Hertzog, son of the owner of the studio. Every one knows that Lyman is jealous of Henry because he is in love with Dulcie Jayne, the star of the studio, but Dulcie seems to prefer her director, Daniel K. Leland.

Mr. Hertzog suggests to Lyman that they feature Leland as an actor as well as a director and this causes a quarrel between father and son. Old Mr. Hertzog suffers a stroke of apoplexy as a result and Lyman is left in charge of the studio. His first independent action is to discharge Leland, who takes his dismissal coolly, and proceeds to finish a picture he's been working on. Lyman meets Dulcie on location and tries to force himself on her. Benny Rosencrans, Leland's camera man, comes to her assistance.

Cornelia Marsh is detained at the studio by Lyman, after the others have gone, to write a criticism of a play he's interested in. She asks Lyman to let her off because she has an engagement to meet her mother downtown and take her to dinner and the theater as a birthday celebration. Lyman refuses. Cornelia misses the last trolley, but Dulcie Jayne comes along in her car and offers her a lift to the ferry. Dulcie invites Cornelia and her mother to dine with her and she tells Cornelia that she is engaged to marry Henry Horner.

INSTALLMENT XLII.

CONFIDENCES.

It was the Marsh ladies' first experience of rolling through electric starred and thronging darkness, between traffic block and traffic whistle, in the tooting, gliding, creeping, waiting, racing of a motor's progress theaterwards through the streets of New York at shortly past eight in the evening. For long afterwards all Cornelia's impression of it was filled with the small, rumbling thunder of Dulcie's voice and the sensation of Dulcie's little fist on her knee, pressing down passionate emphasis. But she could never quite remember whether it was in the limousine or in their box, between the acts, that this martyrdom turned into a story of rebellion.

She liked to recall distinctly that moment of their arrival at the theater when a man in uniform opened the door of the car and, like goddesses, they descended. The storm was dying and there were some brilliant toilettes in the crowd—though few with finer hand embroidery than Cornelia's! She saw Mrs. Marsh sniff with pleasure the air of rolling equipages, of function, of privilege. The hasty coming forward of the house manager with the box seats, the terrific impressiveness with which the ladies were given in charge of an usher who drew their chairs with an air of prostrating herself beneath them were all, Cornelia saw, acceptable and seemly; Mrs. Marsh breathed them in like a pleasant odor. It was an almost tremulous delight to watch her adjust her gloves, glasses, opera glasses, savor the perusal of her program to the sounds of the orchestra, and gaze with delicate relish about the house, once more smiling down upon the audience; sparkling at last, so brightly yet so composedly; at home.

"Luckily for us, the person he and every one suspected was Dan."

But to Cornelia herself, there with the play spread bright before her, much of it chattered as idly as an aviary. Doubtless a rich form of entertainment, the drama, but it could scarcely expect to compete with the richness of Cornelia's own life! The middle aged maiden lady, office broke, watched the composite head of the audience, its whisper and its opera glass turn toward where Dulcie sat, a trifle self-conscious until she grew absorbed in the acting, a trifle restive, as if she were a captive princess, gracing some alien triumph; Cornelia noted the actors hanging out various signs of awareness, bloomingly friendly or elaborately indifferent. But none of these people were on the inside, like Cornelia! None of them were having poured into their ears those confidences which Dulcie would begin the instant the curtain struck the stage and which, even while the curtain was up, went on and on in Cornelia's mind until at last they all flowed together into a single stream of light, illuminating the whole past year.

"It was 'Heart of Fire' really woke us up. We realized the minute we read it that it was my stuff. And then what we realized, as soon as we began talking about the way to do it, was that at Hertzog's we could never do it right. It'd be just like putting it down the sewer! And if I failed in such a story as that I'd be worse off with the public than ever. So Henry refused it, hoping to heaven nobody would take it before we got my contract broken. And we began getting in all the most expensive lawyers to see couldn't they break it. So, thinking we had hopes, we started going over all the big companies, looking for one where we could do 'Heart of Fire' right. There wasn't one, Miss Marsh, not the best of 'em would give us a perfectly free hand. So it was then we said: 'We got to form our own company!'

"'Tisn't the producer's fault. Dan'd tell you how, ten or twelve years ago, when pictures made their biggest strike to be as good as ever their producers could make 'em, the high brows all stayed home sneering at what they thought must be bad, and the low brows all stayed home complaining at what was good, so the best pictures starved to death and scared the exhibitors stiff. They're scared to be anything but corpses yet. Not one of 'em but sees the money in 'Heart of Fire,' and not the best of 'em but would think they had to leave out the soul to get it! The same way with my acting, Miss Marsh, they want to rubber stamp that, too. Are you acquainted with the works of the English novelist, Charles Dickens?"

"Henry showed me his story, 'The Cricket on the Hearth.' It's not much of a story, but there's a kind of a feeling in it I'd like to play. And in that title there's something homely, sounds like me. Only Lyman was afraid it would let on there wasn't any party dresses in it and better call it 'The Butterfly's Dream.' How'd you like their taking 'Briar Rose' and calling it 'The Orchid'? They can't see it's no good, me trying to turn myself into one of the latest standard patterns. What I'm good for is kicking like a pony when I'm mad, and looking ugly when that's the way to look, and not to smile so sweet at meanness or danger, but to spit in its face—funny or not, as the scene goes. The managers saw the public liking me cranky like that, a regular little crab-apple, and thought how much better it'd like me if I could be turned into a cream puff. O, well, Miss Marsh—and your mother, too, if she isn't worn out listening to me—I can't be that way. I've got queer things inside me and deep things. O!" Dulcie's breast heaved. She struck it a light, fierce blow with her small fist, "O, if I don't get them out they'll go off on me and blow me all to pieces! But not a lawyer could break the contract for us.

"Maybe you think there's something phoney about my feelings, or I'd let the contract go to the dickens. And of course, if it was only the indemnity, Miss Marsh, Henry and me'd be an old married couple by now. A hundred thousand dollars—six months' salary—pshaw! But six months' salary when, besides that, you've got to stay off the screen for three years and can't make any salary at all—that is surely something else again! 'Specially when papa's formed the habit of his children supporting him, and I'm determined no child'll do any supporting except me. Why, just me, Henry could always take care of. And, if he couldn't, I'd as soon sit in a field with him and eat oats. But when you've got kids dependent on you, you can kick all you like, you can rear around saying why should you, but there they just are. So we settled down to waiting for that secret marriage when I was eighteen, and for forming our own company till Hertzog's had lost so much money on me they'd be glad to let me go. Then along comes Lyman Hertzog and gets stuck on me.

"Well, then! Aside from never letting me go, probably, he was always spying for why I couldn't stand him. Absolutely fatal if he got onto Henry and me! Lucky for us, the person he and everybody suspected was Dan.

"Well, no doubt about it, Dan certainly is attractive to women—not like Henry, of course—but his reputation alone's enough to make us talked about. But on the coast people never bothered about me knowing that for him it was only girls with red hair. Maybe it's because he can't get married again, poor fellow, but the way he acts there's lots of those psycho people say some woman with red hair must have bent over his cradle when he was an awful impressionable age. It does get terribly trying in casting the smaller parts, because it isn't as if red photographed, even. But pshaw, it's his only fault and I'm just grateful it wasn't a woman with light, taffy colored hair—certainly would have complicated my life all right! Heaven's own mercy, Dan said the talk was, about him and me. And we certainly did whoop it up like a masquerade ball. Though Henry did act quite ungrateful, sometimes, about what we were making people think. And then, anyhow, though Lyman never got on to me about Henry, he did get on to Henry about me. And fired him. If I hadn't had Dan to keep my courage up I'd have hoped to die.

"'Specially when papa begins cuddling up to the idea of Lyman. Of course you know, Miss Marsh, though they always keep on handing you the old gag about the public losing interest in an actress if she marries—just as if everybody wasn't always marrying everybody—still even to managers and parents there's some husbands that're pretty congenial. Foreign nobles, for instance. Because, in foreign nobles, there's publicity"

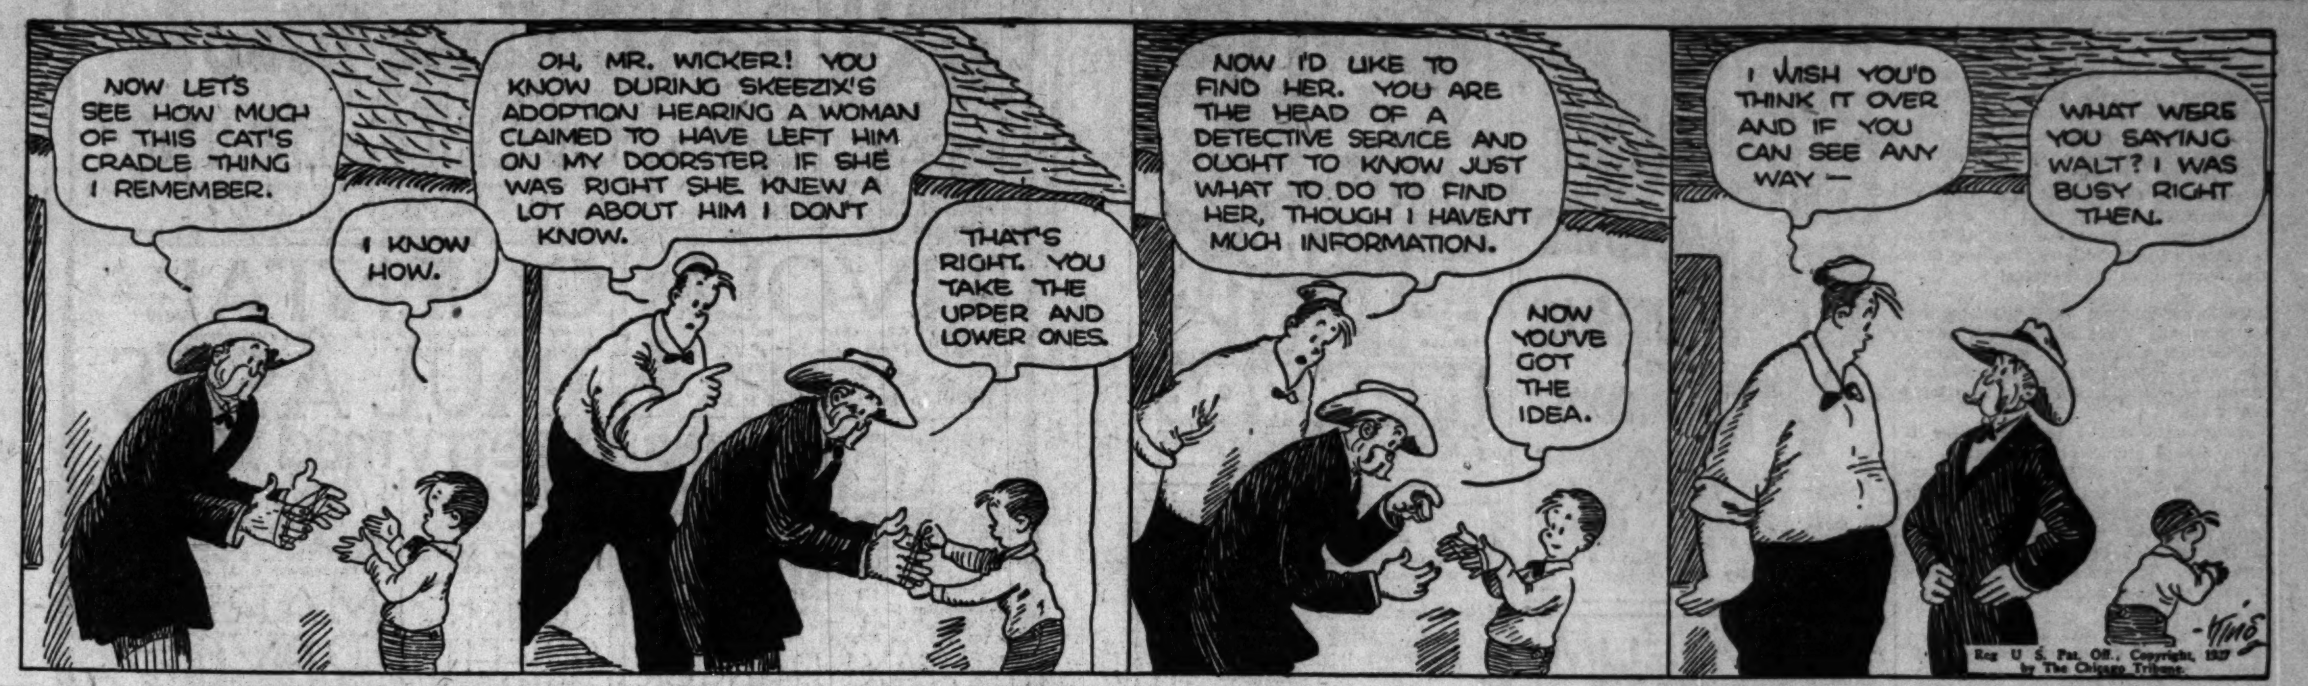
GASOLINE ALLEY—MR. WICKER TAKES THEM IN ROTATION



NOW LET'S SEE HOW MUCH OF THIS CAT'S CRADLE THING I REMEMBER.
I KNOW HOW.
OH, MR. WICKER! YOU KNOW DURING SKEEZIX'S ADOPTION HEARING A WOMAN CLAIMED TO HAVE LEFT HIM ON MY DOORSTEP. IF SHE WAS RIGHT SHE KNEW A LOT ABOUT HIM I DON'T KNOW.
THAT'S RIGHT. YOU TAKE THE UPPER AND LOWER ONES.
NOW I'D LIKE TO FIND HER. YOU ARE THE HEAD OF A DETECTIVE SERVICE AND OUGHT TO KNOW JUST WHAT TO DO TO FIND HER, THOUGH I HAVEN'T MUCH INFORMATION.
NOW YOU'VE GOT THE IDEA.
I WISH YOU'D THINK IT OVER AND IF YOU CAN SEE ANY WAY —
WHAT WERE YOU SAYING WALT? I WAS BUSY RIGHT THEN.

Suburbs Seek Reduction in Phone Rates

Charge of Five Cents to Chicago Demanded.

Industrial and civic leaders from a half-score of towns and villages which encircle the outer rim of Chicago yesterday launched a determined move to bring about a cut in telephone rates between their homes and offices and the city. The present minimum rate to the city from the towns affected is 10 cents. It is proposed to win a cut to 5 cents.

As a climax to the drive for "reasonable" phone rates, a big massmeeting is to be held at Berwyn, where the campaign was initiated, on Monday night, March 28.

Among towns reported already active in the drive are Evanston, Oak Park, Berwyn, Cicero, and Chicago Heights. Officials of those towns, as well as leaders in various organizations, such as the Lions, Rotary, and Kiwanis clubs, and the Optimists, Bankers' and Realtors' associations, are assisting in the campaign, it was said.

Other villages preparing to join the drive are Maywood and Flossmoor, which are also within the 10 cent rate radius, it was reported.

A council to carry on the fight, similar to the Illinois Municipal league, will be organized at the massmeeting. Members of the Berwyn chamber of commerce are given the credit for originating the move. Counsel of this trade body are reported to have mapped out definite plans for presenting arguments in favor of the proposed rate cut before the Illinois Commerce commission, which fixes the rates public utilities may charge.

Telephone company officials declined to comment. But it was understood they plan to wage a bitter fight against the cut before the commerce commission.

BEG YOUR PARDON!

A TRIBUNE story on March 5 stated that a bomb had caused damage in the office of the Zechman Lumber company, 1436 South Morgan street. The damage was to the office of Zechman & Co., lumber dealers, at that address. The Zechman Lumber company, 436 North Robey street, is not connected with this firm.

$400,000 Palestine Appeal Fund Drive Officially Launched

The drive to raise Chicago's quota of $400,000 in the United Palestine appeal was officially launched last night at a farewell banquet given for Dr. Chaim Weizemann, international head of the world Zionist organization who has been in Chicago more than a week addressing Jewish groups in the interests of the drive. Judge Harry M. Fisher presided at the meeting which was held at the Blackstone hotel and attended by about 300 Jewish leaders.

Within the next 25 years, the present population of 160,000 Jews in Palestine should be swelled to a half million, made possible through the concerted efforts of Jews throughout the world, particularly those in America, Dr. Weizmann said. Such a Jewish commonwealth, he added, would help solve the present problem of 9,000,000 Jews made destitute in southeastern Europe by the industrial crisis following the war.

Contributions of $121,000 in the United Palestine appeal were announced last night, including $23,000 from the woman's organization of Hadassah. Edward Dato subscribed $5,000, and Balaban and Katz, Maurice Joseph, Samuel Philipson, A. Z. Halperin, and S. P. Platt each $2,000. Among those at the speakers' table were Judge Hugo Pam, Rabbi Saul Silber, Rabbi Hirshberg, Representative Adolph Sabath, I. B. Lipson, and Max Shulman. Dr. Weizmann departed for Indianapolis following the banquet.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Joseph Anderson, 5159 South Paulina street, was awarded $5.

The Question.

Were you to give advice to the young men of today, what would it be?

The Answers.

C. E. Briggs, 6421 Maryland avenue, construction superintendent—Save your money. Start saving and keep on saving. The time may come when you will need all you have saved. Opportunities come more readily to man with money.

Miss Minnette Schwartz, 3608 Irving Park boulevard, dramatic teacher—There are so many marriages at too young an age. If young men and women would only wait until they are, say, in the twenties, or at such an age that they are able to distinguish between infatuation and true love there would not be so many heartaches and fewer divorces.

C. E. Zuercher, 1000 West Fulton street, manufacturer and importer of cheese—If I were a young fellow I would get as good an education as I could in this country and then would try to get a little practical experience in foreign lands, after which I would settle down in some vocation, stick to it, and get married.

Mrs. Rose Hoerth, 633 North Dearborn street, housewife—That is important and I will have to think a minute. They won't take advice, anyhow. Possibly they don't need any. We are young only once, so let them have all the healthy fun they can.

Emanuel S. Solomon, 525 Cornelia street, manager—They should at all times watch their step. Don't jump at rash or ill considered conclusions. Don't always assume that the other fellow's opinion is wrong—there are two sides to most questions.

Prize Contest Winner Soloist for Symphony

Marked Talent Revealed by Girl of 18.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

About as encouraging a sign as has yet come out of the contests conducted by the Society of American Musicians became evident last night when Eleanora Koskiewicz appeared as soloist in the popular concert of the Chicago Symphony orchestra at Orchestra hall. She was the prize winner in the piano division of the aforesaid contest, and as a reward she was given the opportunity of playing two movements from Rachmaninoff's second concerto with the orchestra, Mr. Stock conducting.

These contests have been running for several years, and this would seem to be one of the decisive talents uncovered by the process. Miss Koskiewicz was a bit nervous at starting, but what newcomer of eighteen years has ever failed to be nervous at such a time, or, being cool under the circumstances, would be likely to be worth anything as a musician. She has talent, not only the kind of talent that is able to put difficult combinations of notes in the right places at the right times, but the kind of talent that shows that the music means something to her, which she is able to transmit in turn to her audience.

She was an immense hit with the audience, and after receiving so many flowers that it took her several trips to clear them from the front of the stage she returned to play the Chopin Polonaise in A major.

The program took on a marked Polish tinge outside of her appearance. Mr. Stock conducted another Chopin Polonaise that in A flat major, in the Theodore Thomas orchestration, Philip Scharwenka's "Arcadian Suite," and two movements from Moszkowski's "Boabdil," and Felix Borowski took the baton for a performance of his own "Youth"— another great hit, by the way—leaving only Strauss' "Wine, Women, and Song" and such encores as Pierné's "March of the Little Fauns" to be registered outside of the Polish list.

The second recital in the Young American Artists' series at Fine Arts recital hall brought forward Dora Lyon, soprano, who had the qualifications of youth, eagerness, and a rather good natural voice in a group of songs by Bonancini, Donaudy, and Henschel, with quite a bit still to learn in the matters of handling her voice, enunciation, and various other items of the kind. She was assisted by Lucille Manker, pianist, who was heard in a correct but unglowing performance of MacDowell's "A. D. 1620" and a Debussy Nocturne.

Travelers' Aid Supervises Orphans' 6,000 Mile Trip

Traveling 6,000 miles all alone through many strange countries, Wilhelm Rowoldt, 9 years old, German war orphan, arrived in Chicago over the Manhattan limited from New York yesterday on the last lap of his long journey from Wyck Auf Foehr, Germany, to an uncle's home in Portland, Ore. All the way from Germany Wilhelm has been under the care of the Travelers' Aid bureau, whose representatives met him in New York and arranged his trip to Chicago. At the union depot here he was met by Mrs. Cox, in charge of the Travelers' Aid desk, who made reservations for him on the Burlington train departing last night.

THEATER

Next week will be the last of "Ned McCobb's Daughter" in the Princess; and this information means that Chicago playgoers have again overlooked something good—a well-written, well-acted, interesting, and topical play. A baffling aspect of the engagement, so far as it is gone, is that I have yet to hear anything save praise of the piece by anybody who has seen it. Persons who haven't seen it tell me that they understand it is not drawing well because a coffin is indicated as among the movables in the second act; and, as to that, I may say nothing save that little that is good in the theater can be of real interest to anybody who wouldn't like "Ned McCobb's Daughter" because of the talked-about coffin. The play is listed among the successes of the season in New-York.

The play by Samuel Shipman wherein Louis Mann and Miss Clara Lipman are about to resume their old costarhood is now named "That French Lady." It was first announced as "A Woman in the House," and then, for a day or two, as "The French Kiss." . . . The new title traces back, for Miss Lipman, through "The Marriage of a Star" to "Julie Bonbon," to "The Girl from Paris": she has through three decades preferred, when playing at all, to be a French character saying ze for the and zis for this.

Miss Lynn Fontanne, Miss Margalo Gillmore, Alfred Lunt, and Earle Larimore are to make up the cast of "The Second Man," a new piece soon to be staged by the Theater Guild of New-York. As the Guild now has four plays running,—two and two in alternate weeks,—and as the players named are in one or another of the four, the rearrangement will be interesting as a device to live up to the idea of répertoire. Miss Gillmore is in both "The Silver Cord" and "Ned McCobb's Daughter"; Miss Fontanne is in "Pygmalion"; Mr. Lunt is in "Ned McCobb's Daughter"; Mr. Larimore is in "The Silver Cord."

Lowell Sherman and Miss Pauline Garon [Mrs. Sherman] will be in next week's Palace bill, using a sketch made from material in "Lawful Larceny," a play made known here about a year ago in the stock-company experiment by the Messrs. Ascher in the Adelphi. . . . Frank Fay, an amusing contributor to the current bill, holds over.

The schedule for the incoming Negro show, "Lucky Sambo," calls for an extra weekly performance starting at midnight Saturday.

Miss Sophie Tucker, done with Le Maire's Affairs, is to be put into "Gay Paree" in the New-York Winter Garden just as the former piece is regarded as ready for the diversion and enlightenment of Manhattan.

"A Hen Upon the Steeple" is the name of a play by an English writer, Miss Joan Temple, soon to be shown in New-York. . . . Other new things with uncommon titles are "Man-Factory," by Daniel L. James, and "The Room of Slats," also by Mr. James.

The current issue of Variety says that what is to be known as the Chicago cast of "Chicago" is being formed, and that it will tarry twelve weeks in Detroit before coming hither. . . . I have a keen memory for Detroit when it was regarded by managers as merely a fairish place for half-a-week's engagement: the play or show that prosperously survived a full week in Detroit was regarded as extraordinary in merit.

St. Patrick's Celebration to Be Held by K. C. Council

Charles Carroll council, Knights of Columbus, will stage a "A Night in Ireland" Tuesday evening, at the Knights of Columbus club, 4711 West Madison street, as a St. Patrick's celebration. The program will consist of Irish music and songs and an address on "The Sons of St. Patrick," by the Rev. James J. Pennings, pastor of Presentation church. Edward C. Connor, Helen Byrne, Anne McCarthy, J. Cyril Kinsler, and Tony Corcoran will give the musical program.

Women Outline State Campaign for Jury Bills

Public's Support to Be Sought for Measures.

An intensive drive to arouse public sentiment throughout the state in favor of passing as quickly as possible the bills providing for women serving on juries which the judiciary committee of the state house of representatives has recommended, was announced yesterday by Miss Esther A. Dunshee, chairman of the Illinois committee for women on juries.

Speakers representing the eleven prominent women's organizations who are sponsoring the bills will canvass the state during the remainder of the month, Miss Dunshee said, addressing both men's and women's organizations, urging them to request their legislators to vote for the bills. Numerous radio talks will be broadcast through Chicago stations.

In addition, Miss Edith Rockwood of the Illinois League of Women Voters is working at Springfield for the early passing of the bills, and petitions are being circulated by parent-teacher associations and the League of Women Voters in order to reach all the voters in the state. Opposition is expected when the bills reach the floor of the house, Miss Dunshee said.

Most active among the speakers during the campaign will be Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, Mrs. Grace Harte, and Mrs. Beatrice Podell of the Women's Bar association; Mrs. James W. Morrisson, president of the Illinois League of Women Voters; Mrs. John Mason of Aurora, head of the legislative department of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, and Miss Grace Temple.

The women's organizations backing the three bills, which were introduced by Mrs. Rena Elrod on Jan. 26, are the Illinois Women's Bar association; Illinois Federation of Women's clubs; Illinois League of Women Voters, Illinois Women's Trade Union league, Illinois Council of Parent-Teachers' association, Illinois Association of Business and Professional Women's clubs; Woman's City club of Chicago; Oak Park League of Women Voters, Chicago Woman's aid, Chicago League of Women Voters' forum, and the National Council of Jewish Women, Chicago section.

Baptists Seek New Million; John D. Jr. Gives $250,000

A fund of $1,000,000 will be raised at once to apply on the regular budget of $6,360,000 by the Baptists of the northern convention, according to announcements yesterday. John D. Rockefeller Jr. has contributed $250,000 toward the million. Decline in the purchasing power of the American dollar is given as the cause of the special emergency. Seventy-five Baptist ministers from various cities will meet today at the Great Northern hotel to consider the situation.

Up to Date Mouth Hygiene Calls for Cleansing Wash

by Antoinette Donnelly

You may use your toothbrush three times a day, but that does not entitle you to a diploma as an up-to-date mouth hygienist. An antiseptic mouth wash should follow the brushing to combat the micro-organisms that are recognized as contributing to tooth decay.

Every mouth harbors a certain amount of bacteria, harmless enough until poisons are produced by their growth and multiplication. It was nature's original intent to make the saliva do this cleansing work, but the evolution of the jaw of mankind and his changed form of diet have made it necessary to use some sort of wash to remove food particles that the floss may leave in small crevices.

Certain dentists hold that warm water swished back and forth between the teeth will serve. But oral hygienists generally recommend antiseptic agents to be used in conjunction with the water.

Boric acid added to the water is often found thoroughly effective. A salt solution is another wirely recommended rinse. A teaspoonful of salt to a pint of water is the popular formula. And this may be strengthened by the addition of a little sodium bicarbonate. There are antiseptic mouth washes on the market that are satisfactory.

The mouth wash by all means should be used before retiring, as salivary secretion is at its lowest ebb during the night.

People suffering from pyorrhea symptoms, such as soft, swollen or bleeding gums, are urged to use special astringents. These are not advised as substitutes for the brush, but as supplementary aids to restore the mouth to a healthy condition.

Tender gums, especially, require brushing. Even though they may bleed at first the brushing should continue. Dr. Bernard Fantus, professor of clinical medicine at Rush Medical college, Chicago, says that a few drops of glycerite of tannic acid added to warm water has a gum hardening purpose.

If it is inconvenient to brush the teeth after the noonday meal it is wise to rinse the mouth out with clear water. An apple eaten at the end of a meal has a cleansing effect.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

FRANCIS: APPLY COLLODION to the hang nail, giving it a chance to heal. They are most annoying. Send a stamped addressed envelope for instructions on care of the nails.

MYRTLE: IF YOU WOULD IMPROVE the luster of your hair get out your hair brush and use it every morning and night. It will not only give luster but will improve the condition of your scalp.

E. M.: THE POSITION IN WHICH the neck is held has much to do with sagging muscles and a double chin. When you read in a reclining position do not allow the neck to flop down on the chest. When you sit, walk, or stand hold the head erect. Exercises for double chin may be had for a stamped addressed envelope.

How to Have Soft, Pretty White Hands

Many women will undoubtedly be glad to know how they may have beautiful, white, soft, pretty hands regardless of the work they have to do. The secret lies in rubbing a little Ice-Mint into the hands occasionally, preferably just before retiring at night. In the morning you will be agreeably surprised at the pleasant transformation that has been wrought by even a single application. Ice-Mint is made from a Japanese product that is simply marvelous for its beautifying properties whether used on the hands or face. Regardless of what kind of work a woman does she should have pretty hands as they are really the true marks of refinement. A few applications of Ice-Mint will actually make any woman proud of her hands and skin. It costs little and is sold and recommended by good druggists everywhere. United Sales & Mfg. Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

HOMELIKE

"You forget you're in a theatre. It seems like home!"

A visitor to the BELPARK, charmed by soft shadows and yielding seats, made this remark, for the BELPARK'S scheme of decoration has the rare quality of homelike peace; the beautiful interior is a balm to tired minds. And yet, not a dull moment.

MOTION PICTURES AND HEADLINE VAUDEVILLE

The BELPARK has every feature of modern theatres and the people of Belmont Park will enjoy the shows and discover in its friendly atmosphere a happy restfulness.

Society Women Lend Their Efforts to Make Cushman Club Homey

BY NANCY R——.

Chicago society women are sponsoring the Charlotte Cushman club, which is, as perhaps you know, a club for women of the stage while they're in Chicago, and they are bending every effort to make it a homey spot. On Tuesday next, at half past two in the afternoon, the ensemble of the "Vagabond King" company, under the direction of Miss Daisy Belmore, will give a performance of "As You Like It" at the Vic theater, the proceeds to go to the redecorating and furnishing of the new clubhouse. Mrs. Walter F. Braun is chairman of the ticket committee.

I hear that Mrs. John H. Winterbotham has spent many of her hours at St. Luke's since her return on Wednesday from her eastern junketing, as her husband is there recovering from an attack of malarial fever. The fever germ was presented to him by a malicious mosquito down in Jamaica, where he and his daughter, Rue, went for a winter holiday. Mr. Winterbotham is getting along well, I am happy to report, and will probably be able to go home within a short time.

Day's News in Society

The Junior league probationers who have "made the grade" and are now eligible to membership include Miss Harriet Borland, Miss Carolyn Case, Miss Mary Louise Fenton, Miss Martha Ferguson, Miss Margaret Forgan, Miss Margaret James, Miss Angela Johnston, Miss Virginia Landon, Miss Jean Logan, Miss La Verne Louer, Miss Corinne McVoy, Miss Elizabeth Merrill, Miss Jean Milsted, Miss Barbara Neff, Miss Dorothy Plamondon, Miss Margaret Quan, Miss Virjean Ritchie, Miss Hildegarde Schmidt, Miss Betty Scriven, Miss Jane Schutter, Miss Margaret Sinclair, Miss Ellen Stuart, Miss Katherine Thayer, and Miss Pauline Wolf.

Mrs. William H. Scriven of 102 East Oak street is to give a tea this afternoon for the girls who are to take part in the fashion show to benefit Emerson house at the International Golf show from March 21 to 26, at the Hotel Sherman.

George W. Dixon has received an interesting letter from his daughter, Miss Marion Dixon, who with a group of other young women is making a tour of the continent. On the evening of Feb. 11 she was dining with the captain of the Italian liner S. S. Biancamano, on which she sailed, when their discussion turned toward America and Americans. The captain suggested that, since the next day was Lincoln's birthday, the Americans aboard ought to plan some sort of celebration, sort of an educational program for the others of other nationalities. Miss Dixon appealed to Arthur Reynolds, who with his family was also on the ship. Mr. Reynolds forthwith gave a speech on Lincoln and America the next morning; Miss Dixon read the Gettysburg address, and there were patriotic songs as well. The ship landed in Naples and Miss Dixon's party is now spending ten days in Rome, after which they will go on to Spain.

Thornhill Broome, who has been residing at the Racquet club since Mrs. Broome and their children went to Pass Christian, Miss., where they have a house until late April, and gave up their apartment at 2340 Lincoln Park West, is planning to join his family soon. When the Broomes return they will stay with Mrs. Broome's mother, Mrs. John Alden Spoor of 1526 State parkway, until they all depart about the middle of May for their place at Hyannisport on Cape Cod, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Rogers Jr. have returned from a lengthy stay with Mrs. Rogers' mother, Mrs. Francis Lee Higginson, in Boston. They and their new baby daughter, who was born in Boston on Dec. 30, are domiciled at 32 Scott street until they go out to their Lake Forest place in about three weeks. They have named their child Adele, after Mr. Rogers' mother, who was Adele Waller.

Mrs. Victor Elting is expected to return next Monday from a stay of several weeks in Bermuda. She and Mr. Elting have been staying at the Lake Shore Drive hotel for the winter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Perry are occupying their Winnetka home until spring.

Mrs. John Adams Chapman of Lake Forest is due to return in a few days after a month's sojourn at Castle Hot Springs, Ariz.

John W. Kirkland of London is to arrive today to visit his sisters, Miss Caroline Kirkland and Mrs. Victor C. Sanborn of Lake Forest. He is to stay at the Ambassador for a week. He is en route to South Africa, where he plans to make his residence.

Diplomas Given to 731 in City Evening Schools

Graduation exercises for the 731 evening school students who earned diplomas during the second term of the scholastic year were held last night in twenty-nine schools.

The number of graduates exceeds by about twenty per cent the figure for 1926, according to Morgan G. Hogge, assistant superintendent in charge of evening schools.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Mrs. Taft, wife of the chief justice, was the principal guest at luncheon today of Mrs. Edward Terry Sanford, wife of the associate justice of the Supreme court, who had a company of fourteen in her apartment.

Senator and Mrs. Charles S. Deneen departed this afternoon for a fortnight's motor trip through the southern states, on their way to their Chicago home. Mrs. Deneen will not return here until the last of November, when she will make preparations for the debut next season of her daughter, Miss Bina Deneen, who will be graduated from Bryn Mawr in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Isham of New York have taken an apartment at Wardman Park hotel. They have been for some time with Mr. Isham's grandmother, Mrs. Robert Todd Lincoln in her home in Georgetown.

Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett and her sister, Mrs. Charles G. Matthews, joined the former's daughter and mother-in-law, Mrs. D. St. P. Gaillard and Mrs. D. D. B. Gaillard in New York for this week.

Mrs. Barbara Miller of London, who has been the guest of Mrs. Elonzo Tyner of Chicago and Washington, in her apartment at Wardman Park hotel, departed this morning for New York to sail early next week for England.

Mrs. Marshall Field Here for Short Visit

Mrs. Marshall Field arrived in Chicago yesterday morning from her winter home in Washington, D. C. She will remain at her residence at 1905 Prairie avenue until tomorrow, when she expects to return to the east. While in Chicago she will visit with her niece, Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge.

Senator Dill to Wed Miss Jones on March 15

New York, March 10.—(AP)—The marriage of Miss Rosalie ["General"] Gardiner Jones of Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., and United States Senator Clarence C. Dill of Washington, will take place on March 15 at St. John's Episcopal church, at Cold Springs Harbor, it was announced today.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Romantic Potato.

In the "Annual Report of the Smithsonian Institution, 1925" there are twenty-five pages or more devoted to an article, and its illustrations, which has the title, "The Potato of Romance and of Reality," by William E. Safford. Anybody interested in food history is bound to love this and delight in the great and romantic names connected with the history of the potato, though the story of Sir Walter Raleigh's introduction of it into his farm in Ireland—near Cork—is said to be a myth and Sir Francis Drake, the most glorious of all pirates, also has the credit taken from him which he got from those who transferred credit from Sir Walter to him. It seems that Queen Elizabeth dined with him once on his ship, Pelican, "but that there is no record that potatoes appeared on the bill of fare."

Mr. Safford, in the fourth point of his summary, has this: "It was carried to Europe from South America by the Spaniards soon after 1580, thence to Italy, and in 1588 reached Charles l'Ecluse, keeper of the botanical garden of Vienna. It was cultivated as a field crop in Ireland before 1663. It did not reach the United States until 1719, when it was brought from Ireland by immigrants who settled at Londonderry, N. H. The Irish potato reached the West Indies after 1700, and was first propagated from seed brought from the British Isles.

The man who is sometimes ranked as the father of all botanists, Gerard, planted it in his garden in 1597, and recommended the "roots as a delicate dish, not as a common food."

The story of what Frederick the Great of Prussia did to force his people to adopt the potato, and how he learned all about its culture himself, how to plant just the eye, how to keep it in winter, etc., is fascinating. He had literature prepared on the subject, with recipes.

And it was when he was a prisoner in Germany during the Seven Years' war that the Frenchman, Parmentier, was fed upon potatoes and learned to like them. The story of how he got them introduced into France is a thrilling one. On international menus potato soup is still called Parmentier soup.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, March 10.—[Special.]—Mr. and Mrs. George Barr McCutcheon have arrived from their ranch at Phoenix, Ariz., and have taken an apartment at the Berkshire until the end of June.

Mrs. Clarence S. Wadsworth returned from Bermuda on the Araguaya and will be at the Gladstone for a short stay before going to her place at Middletown, Conn.

William B. Phillip of London gave a dinner at Pierre's tonight for Dr. and Mrs. A. Hamilton Rice, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gade, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Jaeckel, and William Chadbourne.

Dr. and Mrs. Preston Pope Satterwhite will return from Palm Beach Saturday and will be at the Plaza for a week's stay.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Cady of Evanston announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Dr. Lucien S. Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell W. Griffith of Dundee, Ill. Miss Cady is in her senior year at the University of Wisconsin and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Dr. Griffith is a graudate of Northwestern university and received his medical degree from Northwestern Medical school last June. He is now an interne at St. Luke's hospital. He is a member of the Wranglers and Phi Rho Sigma.

"Mushroom Cults" Scored at Loop Lenten Service

"Mushroom cults as substitutes for the historical faith of Christianity" were scored yesterday by Dr. Frank E. Wilson of Eau Claire, Wis., who spoke at the Episcopal Lenten services at the Garrick theater. Dr. Wilson will close his series of addresses today.

"The new cults spring up overnight," said Dr. Wilson. "They get their start from some loquacious individual, who is able with honeyed language to win certain persons who do not stop to consider whether these self-appointed religionists have any authority for their teachings other than their own egotism."

Rule 1

Do this nightly if "That Schoolgirl Complexion" is your aim

By NORMA SHEARER

FAMOUS beauty experts, both in Europe and America, now urge simple cleanliness—soap and water—as the first rule in skin care.

Wash the face gently with Palmolive. Massage its balmy olive and palm oil lather into the skin. Rinse with warm water; then with cold. That is all—it's nature's rule for keeping that schoolgirl complexion.

Thus, largely on expert advice, millions use Palmolive Soap; touch their faces with no other. It is made of cosmetic oils. It is made for one purpose only—to protect and beautify the skin.

Use this way regularly, and particularly before bed. Use powder, rouge, make-up all you wish. But never leave them on the skin over night. Note, then, how much better your skin in even one week.

GET REAL PALMOLIVE

Get Palmolive today. Costs but 10c a cake. Use no other on your face. But be sure you get GENUINE Palmolive. Crude imitations, repressented to be of olive and palm oils, are not the same as Palmolive. Remember that and TAKE CARE. The Palmolive-Peet Co., Chicago, U. S. A.

Home Should Be a Place of Rest for the Working Woman

BY DORIS BLAKE.

There are three general types of homes which the young working woman leaves and returns to daily. In one you have the parent who recognizes a new life has unfolded for the wage earner, one in which she is still entitled to be a sharer in the home by contributing a reasonable amount of what she earns and at the same time is permitted to buy her own clothing, and to spend and save out of her pay envelope. She is also permitted time for re-creating play after her work day.

In another you have the tyrannical parent who thinks her authority never due for release so long as the girl lives under her roof. She demands the full pay envelope be turned over to her, dictates to a nickel the necessary allowance for car fare and luncheons, and also puts a czaristic hand over the girl's leisure hours, often pressing her into household duties that are distinctly unfair.

In the third you find the parent who accepts unwisely the daughter's assumption that she has no duties toward home now she is working, that no interference nor dictation from parents is permissible about her money, her friends, her pleasures. There are fewer of this type than of the other two.

The ideal home for the young woman worker, according to Mrs. Margaret W. Eggleston, who has had years of experience handling girls' problems, is a place of rest, relaxation, of companionship, of advice, of safety. It should be a place where home training is carried on for pleasure and not as a duty. Mother should become the girl's best friend, rather than her authority. The girl should still bear some of the burdens of the home, but the home should remember that the girl's day of work has tired body and mind, making her unfit for many more tasks unless they be pleasant ones. She should be taught how best to spend, to save, and to give out of her earnings.

The new companionships formed by the working girl should be a matter of deep parental concern. Mrs. Eggleston believes parents should help in this matter by seeking to keep the home open for her friends; by influencing the girl to make chums of the neighborhood girls rather than strangers.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

He's Too Bashful.

"Dear Miss Blake: How can I win her love? She lives two blocks away from my home and I see her every day and at times I have a regular conversation, but never get anywhere. She seems to care for me. I am bashful, but want her love. BASHFUL."

You have every reason to feel encouraged, but you must speak up, Bashful. Suggest taking her to some place of amusement. From all indications she won't turn you down. After the first time it won't be hard to repeat.

Scrapping Over Her.

"Dear Miss Blake: My ex-boy friend told me to stop going with another boy, and he told him to stop going with me. What would you advise? ELENA."

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Musician Needs a Tuxedo.

"I am to play in a concert this month and I will need a tuxedo, but I can't afford to buy one. Do you think one of your readers would have one, in size 38, which they are no longer wearing? I am quite tall. "J. G."

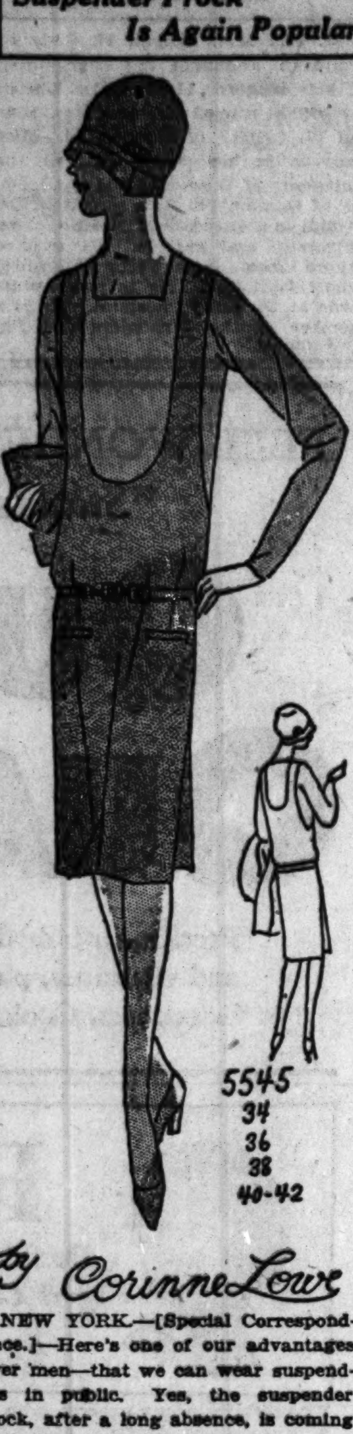
If you are about to get new dinner clothes, this young man could make splendid use of the old suit. May he not have it?

No Wrap to Wear.

"I wonder if some one has a discarded evening wrap she could give me. I have been invited to a formal party and I cannot afford to buy one. I wear size 36. A. B."

If you are about to invest in a new wrap, here's a splendid opportunity to dispose of the old one and at the same time make this young woman extremely happy.

Suspender Frock Is Again Popular



by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Here's one of our advantages over men—that we can wear suspenders in public. Yes, the suspender frock, after a long absence, is coming back—and a good thing, too.

Look at the model we are showing today and see how much you'd resemble it in your grammar school daughter. We have chosen for its development two shades of green wool jersey to emphasize the suspender effect. The silhouette is almost perfectly straight, interrupted only by a slight blousing above the self-material belt. Two inset pockets and a square neck line are finishing details.

Of course, you might, were you so inclined, use the two toned jersey fabrics featured for sports wear by Jane Regny of Paris. On a plain ground she appliques a huge design of modernistic type in darker shades, and when this design simulates foliage sprays she often terminates them on the left shoulder in an organdie flower.

Jersey, kasha, and plain woolens continue to be stressed in the new sports wear importations. Although sweater blouses seem to be losing none of their prestige, other interpretations of the blouse are good. One designer stresses a blouse of printed crêpe to be worn with jersey shirt and cardigan, and the head of a smart specialty house here predicts the popularity of the mannish silk shirt in connection with sweater coat, plaited skirt, and a hip length jacket.

The best is not too good for your child

WHEN cod liver oil is prescribed for your child, you want the best that can be procured. Peter Möller's Purest Norwegian Hydroxyl-free Cod Liver Oil is the original pure cod liver oil. No better cod liver oil can be bought.

Bottled in Norway as soon as produced, this cod liver oil comes to you as fresh and pure as the day it was extracted. It is practically tasteless and is absolutely free from any disagreeable odor or after-taste.

The exclusive Möller process preserves all the delicate vitamines which make cod liver oil the world's greatest food tonic, and brings them to you absolutely unimpaired.

Doctors now prescribe cod liver oil as a part of the daily diet of children—to insure sound health and build up resistance to disease. Be sure to get Peter Möller's Purest Norwegian Hydroxyl-free Cod Liver Oil. It is worth a little more money to know you get the best.

40,000 Persons Attend Garden and Flower Show

More than 40,000 persons visited the Chicago Garden and Flower show at the Hotel Sherman during the first four days of the exhibit, it was estimated last night. Because of the wide interest aroused in the show, the closing date has been advanced from Saturday until Sunday night.

Numerous delegations of school children who have been given half priced tickets are expected to attend tomorrow, with their botany teachers. Already plans are well under way to repeat the exhibit next year.

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, viewing the exhibits for the first time yesterday, declared the show to be the most wonderful thing of its kind ever staged in the city, with a direct message in sanitation and health.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune. Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

Mistaken.

I'm cured of parading my knowledge on any and all occasions. The other evening a group of us were gathered in a corner of our club discussing various subjects. The word "transpire" was in some manner used and its definition disputed by one of the group. He stated that "transpire" meant "to sweat, or to exhale," in addition to other meanings.

I loudly and indignantly persisted in stating that "transpire" meant "to happen." It wouldn't have been so bad, but I persisted in making fun of the fellow who gave the first definition.

I was quite embarrassed when the dictionary was consulted and I was forced to swallow my pride by acknowledging that the supposedly ignorant one was correct, after all.

So many suffer needlessly

MARTYR TO PAIN FOR 16 YEARS

Finds relief after spending much money in vain.

After spending a great deal of money on medicines without results, a woman who had suffered from rheumatism for years got quick relief by a simple home treatment.

"I have suffered from rheumatism for 16 years and I have spent a great deal of money in trying to get something which would ease the pain," she writes. "In Sloan's Liniment I have found instant relief."

Sloan's helps when other remedies fail because Sloan's doesn't just deaden the nerves. It stirs up the bodily forces to throw off the poisons that are causing the pain.

So easy, pleasant and clean to use, too. You don't even have to rub it in. Just apply gently, and the medicine brings the relief.

Get a bottle today and have it on hand. All druggists—35 cents. Dr. Earl S. Sloan, 113 W. 18th St., New York.

EXPERIENCED REAL ESTATE SALESMEN

SHOULD GET IN TOUCH WITH

ARTHUR T. McINTOSH & CO.

AT ONCE.

To Sell Homes & Home Sites.

Large Commission. Plenty of Newspaper Leads Furnished Full Time Salesmen. Best Co-operation.

We have openings for full and part time salesmen to handle our new properties in 1927 and are giving experienced real estate salesmen and part time salesmen an opportunity to attend our training school in order that they may benefit by our advertising campaign which started Jan. 3 in all Chicago newspapers and which will continue throughout the year. We are one of the largest advertisers in display and classified advertising in Chicago and furnish our full time salesmen with leads. The experienced salesman will appreciate what this means to him. More than $100,000 in bonus money has just been paid to our sales organization.

To people now employed in other lines we offer, free, a 16 week course in modern salesmanship, conducted by the La Salle Extension University. Part time men must now be employed and over 21 yrs. old. This course is a real education for any salesman. Enrollment should be made at once at this office. After completing our salesmanship course, a La Salle Extension University diploma will be given as well as an opportunity of joining our full time sales force. Here is chance for people who wish to increase their earnings, to make considerable extra money and at the same time receive a training in salesmanship.

It is seldom that this firm advertises for salesmen and this offer is limited. See the res. sales manager any week day between 9 a. m. and 8 p. m.

WANTED—GENTLEMEN.

Good positions and a rare opportunity. Regardless of your present occupation, read this ad thoroughly and, if you are sincere, answer it.

This is a GENUINE ad and the opportunity is REAL. We will employ several gentlemen over 25 years of age, and if you are at present employed in a good position you may work one hour during the evening and receive a remuneration which will not only delight you but will substantially add to your present earnings. [If you are employed you may work part time, if not, permanently full time.] GOOD PAY—NO SELLING! This work is extremely simple and can be accomplished by any one with ordinary intelligence without experience. WE DO NOT REQUIRE EXPERIENCE. We want permanent workers [either part time or full time], who will appreciate a pleasant occupation in a congenial atmosphere. If you are industrious and of good character you will have no difficulty in being accepted. REMEMBER, THIS IS NOT A SELLING PROPOSITION, but merely assisting our departments in a systematic plan of distribution. Do not apply unless you can work and be permanent. Apply Friday evening only at 8 o'clock sharp.

Room 1512. Blum Building.
624 S. Michigan.

Notice—Take PRIVATE ELEVATOR to 15th floor and you will be directed to the proper department. Remember this work is entirely different than anything you have ever heard of is systematic, requires no business experience, and we are absolutely the only firm in Chicago offering this kind of employment. Do not confuse this with other ads. Refinement essential. THE TIME—8 O'CLOCK SHARP FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 11 ONLY.

PROF. MICHAEL LEWIS, CHARACTER ANALYST.

America's Foremost Exponent of This Science.

Don't waste time, come in and get a character analysis free. Have your strong powers pointed out to you by a man of 22 years' experience. At a glance he will tell you what is in the way that keeps you from success, and will tell you your weaknesses and how to overcome them. You cannot determine your earning power; the best you can do is guess.

Prof. Lewis has been engaged by some of the large corporations in the United States. Many people owe their success to him. His marvelous and wonderful delineations in public and private place him in a class by himself. Consult him absolutely free from 10 o'clock to 2. Those selected by Prof. Lewis will be given positions by large Chicago corporations.

THIS POSITION HAS A FUTURE!

Somewhere in the Chicago district is a woman, 25 to 35 years old, high school education, two years or more retail selling experience, good speaking voice, who loves selling. She is not timid; she works hard. She may be teaching, doing stenographic or clerical work. Some selling experience is valuable but not essential. She probably realizes that she can never make more than $25 a week where she is.

One of the most reliable concerns in Chicago wants to employ that girl. Not real estate, books, bond, or stocks. Liberal salary and bonus. Call Friday at the Eastman Coal Company, 252 W. 69th-st.

TRAVELING SALESWOMEN — EXPERIence not necessary; good salary; rapid advancement; to travel for large company; must be over 30 years of age. FRANCO-AMERICAN HYGIENIC CO., 125 E. 13th-st., or phone MISS SEGALE, Calumet 4526.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—LADIES!

Good positions and a rare opportunity. Regardless of your present occupation, read this ad thoroughly and if you are sincere, answer it.

This is a GENUINE ad and the opportunity is REAL. We will employ several ladies over 25 years of age and if you are at present employed in a good position you may work one hour during the evening and receive a remuneration which will not only delight you but will substantially add to your present earnings. [If you are employed you may work part time; if not, permanently full time]; GOOD PAY; NO SELLING! This work is extremely simple and can be accomplished by any one with ordinary intelligence without experience. WE DO NOT REQUIRE EXPERIENCE. We want permanent workers [either part time or full time] who will appreciate a pleasant occupation in a congenial atmosphere. If you are industrious and of good character you will have no difficulty in being accepted. REMEMBER THIS IS NOT A SELLING PROPOSITION but merely assisting our departments in a systematic plan of distribution. Do not apply unless you can work and be permanent. Apply Friday evening only at 8 o'clock sharp.
Room 1512. Blum Building.
624 S. Michigan-av.

Notice: Take PRIVATE ELEVATOR to 15th floor and you will be directed to the proper department. Remember, this work is entirely different from anything you have ever heard of, is systematic, requires no business experience, and we are absolutely the only firm in Chicago offering this kind of employment. Do not confuse this with other ads. Refinement essential.
THE TIME—8 O'CLOCK SHARP.
FRIDAY EVENING.
MARCH 11 ONLY.

$30 A WEEK AND 4% COMMISSION.

We will pay a few women who are ambitious and honest and want to better themselves a salary of $30 and 4% commission to assist me in seling bungalows, residential and business lots on the N. W. Side; improvements in and paid for. This position does not require full time.

Experience not necessary.

JENNINGS & GAHAGAN REALTY CORPORATION,
10:30 A. M. TO 5:30 P. M.

600 ACRES
RICH TRUCK FARM
AND ONION LAND.

Wells that have been producing for a long time [the well known Ohio oil field] are located not far distant, on all sides of this tract.

The tract has been acquired by inheritance and owner has had numerous proposals from companies interested in the oil rights, but has not given a single lease in order that he might be able to sell quickly should the occasion arise.

There is a ready market for this land, as

ONION FARMS

should the purchaser care to subdivide it and sell

SECOND MORTGAGES.

Adapting Mrs. Snyder's candy slogan, "I can't make all the candy in the world, so I only make the best," we might say:

We don't attempt to make all the second mortgages in Cook, Lake and DuPage Counties, so we make what we make on the most liberal terms and at the lowest rates.

By the way, you know our commissions are 4%-7%-10% for 1-2-3 years, and our payments are by the month—as low as 2%, that is $20.00 and interest on a $1,000 loan.

We have unlimited funds for this purpose; we invite home owners to consider doing their second mortgage financing through us.

INSPECT THEM FIRST

You are not asked to purchase one of our used automobiles until you inspect it thoroughly—so positive are we that our cars are represented right and marked at the ROCK-BOTTOM price.

The Studebaker Used Car Pledge guaranteeing 5 days' driving trial protects every buyer.

STUDEBAKER COACH. Former owner oiled and greased it every 500 miles and drove it carefully. Like a brand new car in every respect. Handsome mohair upholstery; finish glistens. GUARANTEED to be in the best condition. Extras are spare tire, heater, bumper and bumperettes, etc. Reduced to $895.

CLEVELAND SEDAN. You'll be pleased by the appearance. The finish is a light green and the upholstery is like new. Has a wealth of equipment—4 wheel brakes, spotlight, snubbers, bumpers, step plates, heater, spare tire, etc. Reduced to $645.

FORD TUDOR SEDAN. A late model with little mileage. Exceptionally clean and attractive. Runs like a top. Has bumpers, rear vision mirror, windshield wiper, etc. Reduced to $395.

DODGE COACH. The society woman who used this car for a short while gave it unusual attention. The finish is a beautiful Dodge blue and the engine has smooth and abundant power. Extras are spotlight, step plates, spare tire, seat covers, etc. Reduced to $745.

PAIGE BROUGHAM. This car has been advertised as the "most beautiful car in America," and we admit its appearance is unrivaled. Like new in everything but price. Equipment is lavish—heater, spotlight, trunk, spare tire, bumpers, Pine's winterfront, and snubbers. $845.

RICKENBACKER SEDAN. See this car, ride in it, if you want to prove what a bargain it is at $245. Extras are Pine's winterfront, spare tire, etc. A rare Rickenbacker bargain.

REO TOURING. From the looks of this Reo you would place it in the class of cars now selling for $1,200. The leather upholstery is handsome, the body just has been refinished and the engine is A1. Has spare tire, snubbers, bumpers, step plates, etc. $385.

NASH COACH. You need not be an auto mechanic to know that this is great in performance, or be an expert in values to tell our price is an unusual bargain. The equipment is very complete—4 wheel brakes, spare tire, etc. Will be sold at once at $725.

STUDEBAKER PHAETON. Late model Duplex, traded in by a prominent manufacturer, who used car for a few months in Florida. You'll find this model beautiful. It's been refinished a glistening blue and the leather inside is handsome. The car is GUARANTEED to be in the best condition. Equipped with built-in sliding curtains. Special for $745.

WILLYS-KNIGHT BROUGHAM. Compare this car with any Willys-Knight selling for $250 more, and prove to yourself what a great value this one is. For good looks and good mechanical shape it's the last word. Just refinished. Has snubbers, spare tire, etc. Reduced to $785.

OAKLAND COUPE. This is a recent model, and really it's a beauty. For attractive appearance and fine performance it can't be beat. Actually used only a few months. Has 4 wheel brakes, spare tire, bumper and bumperettes, etc. Reduced to $875.

MOON SPORT ROADSTER. A snappy car with plenty of pep, and a beauty in looks. There's a rumble seat in the rear. 4 wheel brakes, 5 balloon tires that look unused, and desirable extras. Here's a Moon that's bound to sell soon. Today, $745.

AUTOMOBILES—GASOLINE.

INSPECT THEM FIRST

You are not asked to purchase one of our used automobiles until you inspect it thoroughly—so positive are we that our cars are represented right and marked at the ROCK-BOTTOM price.

STUDEBAKER COACH. Former owner oiled and greased it every 500 miles, and drove it carefully. Like a brand new car in every respect. Handsome mohair upholstery; finish glistens. GUARANTEED to be in the best condition. Extras are spare tire, heater, bumper and bumperettes, etc. Reduced to $895.

CLEVELAND SEDAN. You'll be pleased by the appearance. The finish is a light green and the upholstery is like new. Has a wealth of equipment—4 wheel brakes, spotlight, snubbers, bumpers, step plates, heater, spare tire, etc. Reduced to $645.

FORD TUDOR SEDAN. A late model with little mileage. Exceptionally clean and attractive. Runs like a top. Has bumpers, rear vision mirror, windshield wiper, etc. Reduced to $395.

DODGE COACH. The society woman who used this car for a short while gave it unusual attention. The finish is a beautiful Dodge blue and the engine has smooth and abundant power. Extras are spotlight, step plates, spare tire, seat covers, etc. Reduced to $745.

PAIGE BROUGHAM. This car has been advertised as the "most beautiful car in America," and we admit its appearance is unrivaled. Like new in everything but price. Equipment is lavish—heater, spotlight, trunk, spare tire, bumpers, Pine's winterfront, and snubbers. $845.

RICKENBACKER SEDAN. See this car, ride in it, if you want to prove what a bargain it is at $245. Extras are Pine's winterfront, spare tire, etc. A rare Rickenbacker bargain.

REO TOURING. From the looks of this Reo you would place it in the class of cars now selling for $1,200. The leather upholstery is handsome, the body just has been refinished and the engine is A1. Has spare tire, snubbers, bumpers, step plates, etc. $385.

NASH COACH. You need not be an auto mechanic to know that this is great in performance, or be an expert in values to tell our price is an unusual bargain. The equipment is very complete—4 wheel brakes, spare tire, etc. Will be sold at once at $725.

STUDEBAKER PHAETON. Late model Duplex, traded in by a prominent manufacturer, who used car for a few months in Florida. You'll find this model beautiful. It's been refinished a glistening blue and the leather inside is handsome. The car is GUARANTEED to be in the best condition. Equipped with built-in sliding curtains. Special for $745.

WILLYS-KNIGHT BROUGHAM. Compare this car with any Willys-Knight selling for $250 more, and prove to yourself what a great value this one is. For good looks and good mechanical shape it's the last word. Just refinished. Has snubbers, spare tire, etc. Reduced to $785.

OAKLAND COUPE. This is a recent model, and really it's a beauty. For attractive appearance and fine performance it can't be beat. Actually used only a few months. Has 4 wheel brakes, spare tire, bumper and bumperettes, etc. Reduced to $875.

MOON SPORT ROADSTER. A snappy car with plenty of pep, and a beauty in looks. There's a rumble seat in the rear. 4 wheel brakes, 5 balloon tires that look unused, and desirable extras. Here's a Moon that's bound to sell soon. Today, $745.
